Part Two Extra Quantum Leap Power Prayers

I wrote all of these prayers to help you direct your creative energies, so you do not ever have to feel helpless. Is there bad weather coming your way? Look up the challenge under the "weather chapter" and read the power prayer with intent and feeling. If you want to give the prayers lots of positive forward movement, then say it out loud using the power of the spoken word. This is the basics of creation.

If you want to focus some of your attention on calming all nuclear Elementals down, it's in the "calming the radiation leak in Japan manual". If you would like to give your attention to cleaning up the pollution in our waters, look that one up under "Healing the water Elemental and all sea life".

Don't ever feel powerless for you are not. When you direct your creative energies at a situation in prayer, it matters. And when people are in harmony and focusing together as one ...Yikes ... It will manifest. It's totally OK to be creative and make up your own power prayers too. If you feel Divinely inspired - GO FOR IT!!!

Protection

Before I share with you how to talk to the Angels and work with crystals, I will teach you a very simple method of protection. You simply visualize yourself in a Bubble of Radiant White Light. When you see yourself or call to your Higher Self to be surrounded in Light, you have protected yourself in the Divine Light of God.

I do this when I wake up in the morning, before I start to drive my car, before entering any public place, before meditating and before I go to sleep. It is something I always do.

By strengthening the Divine light of God in and around you, negative energy (thoughts and feelings) cannot affect you for it is transmuted into Love as it enters your Aura of Divine Love.

Women must take special care to protect themselves. They are the receivers and will absorb energy to a greater degree than a man. There are also many men who are sensitive, and the negative energy will pull their usually positive selves into a negative state of mind. Have you ever been in a great mood, then went shopping and became irritable or even depressed? If this happened, you are very open psychically and are “receiving” everyone’s negative thoughts and energies, which brings you down to an unhappy state.

To stop this from happening, protect yourself in the Divine Light of God. See yourself in a bubble of white light and mentally call to your Higher Self for the Light to be intensified and expanded around you. There are many other methods to protect yourself. Your own inner guidance will guide you if there will be something else for you to do. Find a method and use it.

Next, we will discuss discernment between God’s Angels of Light and Satan’s Boys, as there is positive energy; there is also misused negative energy.

When I feel a presence of Spirit around me, I COMMAND it to stand in the energy of the Divine Light of God or the energy of the Christ Light. If I still feel a presence and I want to be sure this is from God, I will call to Michael the Archangel, and ask that this presence around me be removed from my Aura, if it’s not from the Divine. I will ask this entity if they are from the Divine God, and if I do not receive my “chills” as a Yes answer then I assume that this energy is of a Lower Vibration (which I would rather NOT have around me).

When the entity of a lower nature is around you, it can literally drag you down. You will feel irritable, angry, jealous, crabby, hateful - anything but happy and joyful. These Lower energy forms feed off negative emotions. The more you react in a negative way, the more the spiritual energy vampires will be able to feed from that energy you are sending out. By asking God to change this entities energy to a higher good, you release this entity from its trapped state on a lower astral plane to one of a more Divine nature. As this negative energy is released from the Earth to the light—more Divine Light is on the Earth raising the Earth's energy to a higher Divine state.

You must realize that a lower vibration entity is one who may have experienced a sudden violent death, or someone who had such a hateful life, it does not recognize the Light, choosing (at the time of death - transition) to stay in its trapped state on the lower astral planes on Earth. So, they stay on the earth, attaching themselves to people who do negative things—causing these people to be even more negative and aggressive.

Spiritual entities working in the Light of God would NEVER have this kind of effect on people. Angels and your spiritual teachers and guides, want you to be happy and express love, joy and kindness to others.

NEGATIVE FEEDS NEGATIVE - POSITIVE FEEDS POSITIVE ... Stop and think – which side do you support and feed with your attitude? If you choose negative, please catch yourself and do not let it go on. Start looking for the positive in the situations you are now in. It's there, just look. Remember as you stay happy you are feeding the Light of God with joy, raising the conscious to a higher vibration.

After I have taken all my precautionary steps and I still feel this energy around me, I will feel comfortable enough to begin to acknowledge and communicate with the Angelic presence. I cannot express myself enough. You must protect yourself in the Light of the Divine at all times. I also extend the “Divine Light” to surround my family and friend's energy day.

REMEMBER: As you ask for others – it is also given unto you ...

“Not my will but thy will be done.”

SO BE IT!

Basic Communication with the Angels

I now will share the Basics of how to communicate with the Angels. They have been trying to communicate with you for a very long time – you might not have been recognizing the signals.

I will share with you some basics so you may start to give attention to what is going on around you and to begin to discern your feelings from that of the Angels.

REMEMBER; God wants you to know so you can continue growing. The Angels are messengers of God the Divine - sent to help us get back to Him.

The Angels have many ways of communicating.

Four basic avenues of communicating with the Angelic Realm are:

2. Visual
3. Auditory (hearing)
4. Super sensitive (feeling them physically) through energy and vibration
5. Smell.

Visual:

When I say visual, I mean your inner sight. For those of you who can “see” pictures and faces when your eyes are closed the faces you see are your teachers, guides, Angels on the Etheric plane. Or you could be astral traveling in your mind’s eye to anywhere on the planet.

For those of you who want to open your “third eye”, pray and ask God to open your door, also ask to be guided to whatever you need to do to open your third eye. You may find yourself placing rocks and crystals over your third eye or using a crystal wand to stimulate that area.

A crystal wand could be made out of a quartz crystal shaped like a wand. It may have one pointed end and the other end would be round. Many find this shape a great tool to use for massage work. Or you may have a double terminated wand where both ends will come to a point. The energy will flow through both ends simultaneously. The material that makes up the wand can come in many varieties of stone for you to choose from.

Then you have the wands made out of metal and stones. The center will be metal with crystals and stones on one end - or both. The varieties are endless and the prices vary according to size, simplicity, and quality of the materials used.

To choose what kind is best for you is up to you. You may see a wand and find that you are drawn to it. You may pick up the wand and feel an intense energy flow through it that may make your hand get hot or tingle.

Hold the crystal wand, pointed end on the middle of your forehead for a few minutes every day. When you start to see flashes of faces and scenery, ask to see one face only. When it appears, ask a name – the first name “popping” into your mind will be that Angelic teacher you just saw. Please ask them to stand in the energy of the Christ Light - which is a very high vibration - if they are your teachers, in the light they will stay, if a spirit of low vibration, they will leave.

Another way of opening up your third eye ... or helping yourself remember lost information you have gained in past lives, is putting the stone malachite on your third eye (in the middle of your forehead). To do this, lie down and have a piece of malachite that has a "bull's eye" on it" (rings in the stone). Start to breathe deeply and imagine yourself going into a malachite cave. The deeper you breathe the deeper into the cave you are going. You will feel the malachite sending information into your brain which can feel like an electrical current flowing into your brain. The more you do this the more information the malachite will send into your brain, like a computer overlay. Malachite holds all the earths' records and it will bring to the surface information you have forgotten and now need. For example, you may be studying healing medicinal Herbs or psychic development of some kind. You will have many aaahhhaas come into your awareness where you will remember information that is buried deep inside your conscious mind.

Auditory

Since everyone is not visual, Angels also communicate through the Auditory Senses. Did you ever hear a note or tune in your head or a ringing in the head? Each Angel has a note of its own. When this happens, ask the Angel to stand in the Light of the Divine. Then ask who it is. The first name that comes to mind is that particular Angel you heard. Whenever you hear that note you will know it is that Angel announcing that he/she is around. Your inner hearing may be developed to where you actually will hear voices in your head.

If it is from the Divine God it will be clear and messages will be easily understood. If you find yourself becoming confused, it is not from the Light of the Divine but from darkness and a lower spiritual entity. Again, protection is very important. COMMAND all voices to stand in the Light of the Divine. Ask God to intensify your own Divine light from within to without. COMMAND these entities to go toward the Divine Light of God and leave your Aura NOW. If there are still confusing messages, then call to Michael the Archangel asking him to take his sword of blue flame and cut all ties that these entities have to you. Imagine them being tied and bound, sent though the Violet Flame to clean up their energies, and escorted back to God by Michael and his band of Angels. Fill that space up with an Angel of your choice (healing, love, compassion, humor, or all of the above). The confusion will leave and you will hear clear guidance from the Angels. When you hear a voice ask for a name from which the Angel wants to be known.

Super Sensitive

Whenever you are super sensitive, you will feel things. Have you ever gotten chills, goose bumps, hair standing on end, sinking feeling in the bottom of your stomach, a pressure on the back of the neck when nobody is around? If you have, this is another way the Angels communicate with us. Have you ever been talking with someone and when she/he said something gotten chills, goose bumps, or electric waves going through your body? What is happening is the Angels are confirming to you whatever that person was saying is true and they want you to pay special attention. Your joy-guide Angels may tickle the end of your nose with an invisible feather to get you to smile and be happier. When something is not going to go my way, I feel a pressure like someone is putting a firm hand on my shoulder as a warning signal. When that happens, I then ask questions to understand what my Angel is trying to tell me. I will ask my question and then wait to feel chills, which is my yes answer. Okay – I ask the Angels “so you want to talk about this ... or this?” Then I ask another Angel question, “is it this subject or this one?” - until I feel my “yes” chills. I do this until I have asked enough yes and no questions to understand. My signal for the question - “Am I going in the right direction?” or “Am I doing the right thing?” - is a very warm tingling sensation on my back, as if a big gentle hand is pushing me forward.

If I am driving in my car and feel very cold (so cold I need to put the heat on high) this is a dark astral entity that has come into my field. To release them I simply call to Michael the Archangel to cut the ties to whatever the entity has attached to (especially me), tie and bind it, and send it through the Violet Flame to clean its energy up. Then imagine it going back to God. I fill that space up with an Angel of Love and the car warms back up to normal temperature.

Another Angel will touch my face to where the energy feels very velvety, soft and warm.

Sense of Smell

Sense of smell is something the majorities of us have and don't use. Sometimes the Angelic realm will use a fragrant scent to announce their presence. The next time you're in a room by yourself and you begin to whiff frankincense, myrrh, rose or something spicy, an Angelic teacher may be in your midst (or perhaps an ascended master). Don't be so overwhelmed that you forget to ask for a name.

You have learned some basic communication with the Angelic realm, so let's have some fun and begin to communicate with these Divine beings (although I am sure you already are).

Let's meet your Guardian Angel. I would like everyone to sit, your spine straight and your feet flat on the floor. Breathe deeply and relax. Close your eyes. Picture yourself in a Bubble of Divine Light. Invite your guardian Angel to stand behind you and communicate. For those of you who are auditory, you will hear a note, a tune or voice. Those who are super sensitive will feel goose bumps or chills, while others may smell a fragrance.

After your Guardian Angel has established contact, ask for a name. The first name that comes to your mind is your Guardian Angel. Ask if she has a special way, she wants to communicate with you. Then get very quiet and pay attention to your entire body. You may feel a pressure on your arm or shoulder. Again, be open minded, allow and trust in your own senses.

Angels want to work closer with people on earth, but according to Universal Law, are limited to what they can do. Universal Law is truth and God's rules apply to everyone on earth and to other beings existing on other worlds, universes, and planes.

One of the better-known Universal Laws is the Law of Karma – what goes around comes around. You get back what you put out.

Another Law is the Law of Attraction. You draw to you that which you are. Are you happy with the people you surround yourself with? Happy draws happy – negative draws negative. If you want to change – change your attitude. The more positive you are the more positive people and situations will come your way.

Another Universal Law that applies to the Angelic Kingdom is that Angels cannot interfere with mankind – unless mankind invites, asks for, prays for their assistance. The more we ask the Angels for help the more help they can give. Following are some suggestions to ask the Angels to help with:

- Hostage releases.
- Extra protection for children or any loved one.
- Finding choice parking spots (no job too big or too small).
- Breaking up fights.
- Inspiration, guidance and protection.
- Confirmation of choices.
- Healing.
- Anything.

When you do ask, put the request in a positive way. An example is: when you hear about a hostage crisis, silently (or out loud if you like) call to the Angels and ask them to do whatever it takes to end the hostage crises in a positive way and that the captives be released Now unharmed. If you happen to see a fist-fight, instead of running over to try to break up the fight, call to Michael the Archangel and ask him to end this affair in a peaceful way where no one will be hurt. Ask him to send each fighter their own separate ways. In minutes they are separated and going in opposite directions peacefully.

Don't be afraid to communicate with the Angelic Realm and ask them to help you. As you grow; they will also grow. As you earn your mastership; the Angels also earn theirs. You form a partnership. When you decide to be born again on the earth, you are assigned Angels who are responsible for you until you make transformation (physical death of the body) or illumination. Its teamwork and they want to direct their energy toward helping you help others and your own personal growth.

It brings the Angelic realm great joy to assist us in our tasks. If more people work with the Angels - the Angelic energy on Earth that radiates in the Light of the Divine - this will result in a nicer world to live in.

Practical Applications of Divine Love

What goes around comes around. When people argue ... Jane will say something negative to Mary who replies back in the same manner feeding each other's negative energy. Each time either one reacts in a negative way the negative energy build. Now suppose Mary, instead of reacting to Jane's comments, did not reply but instead went inward and returned the energy of Love. Then one would not have anything to "feed" from and the negative energy would begin to dissipate.

This is what is called Transmuting Energy: taking negative energy, neutralizing it with Divine love and returning Love. You can practically apply this to anyone or any situation. The first time I tried practicing using Divine Love, I was in the car with my 10-year-old son. He was very negative and nothing positive or nice was coming from his lips.

Instead of reacting to all that negativity I saw him in a Bubble of Light, and sent Love from every cell of my body to him. In a matter of minutes, he was laughing and joking, making fun of himself, in a positive way, for saying negative comments. What a remarkable change. It is truly amazing what the power of Love can do if people would only use it.

So many people complain about how unhappy they are at the office because there is someone working there with whom they do not get along. When I find myself in the same situation, I meditate every night and see this person in a Bubble of Divine Light. I also call to his or her Higher Self from my Higher Self and I ask that they get together on the Etheric plane and communication be opened between us. That whatever is blocking us from being friends, be brought out into the open in a gentle kind way, so that we can discuss the problem in a friendly manner. I also say whoever sends me any dark energy of any kind is neutralized upon entering my Aura and I return Love. Keep sending Love, Love, Love. When you send Love two things will happen. You will either become friends with that person or they will leave ... the room ... the job ... etc. They will leave of their own choosing because the energy of Love will make them too uncomfortable to stay in that working environment.

Could your family use more Divine Light in the house? I know at times; my house will become very low energy and family fights will erupt. Negativity will fill the air, overwhelming the house and everyone inside. So, what has happened is the infamous T-shirt "Crap happens" has begun to manifest in the house.

When I finally wake up and realize what's going on I call to the Light of the Divine to descend around me (to strengthen my Aura) so that I will no longer feel the negative energy pull on my emotions. Then I ask that this Light radiate around everyone in the house. (I will also extend this energy around all the animals and cars outside). I call forth the Violet Flame to expand from within my heart center to fill every room of the house with the color Violet, inwardly seeing everyone in the Violet Flame, cleansing and purifying the energy of the house.

Then I call God, Michael the Archangel, Jesus, Buddha, etc. (Divine being of your choice) to remove any entity, that is not in the Light of God, from any of my loved ones, and release this entity to the Light of God to be transmuted by Light and Love into Light and Love. And as I believe and have faith that God has answered my call—it is done.

Then before I go to bed at night, I will get more specific in what I pray for. If I am having trouble communicating with someone in the house, I will call to our Higher Selves and ask that they get together on the higher planes and open communications between me and my loved one in a peaceful way.

I will also take any rocks, crystals and stones (that are present) and give them a good cleansing by putting them under running water. This will help change the energy in your environment to a more positive space.

Keep the doors open to Love flowing into the house by asking God to keep sending His Divine Energy into the house every day.

This can be done anywhere—the workplace, or at home, for building better relationships with family and friends. Anywhere you feel the need for more light, joy and happiness.

“Not my will but thy will be done.”
SO BE IT!

How to Pray and Send Healing to Others

People who “know” (who are aware), can unlock doors for those who are unaware. That is one reason the Master Jesus prayed so much for others. When it is brought to my attention someone needs healing, I call from my Higher Self to their Higher Self and ask permission (mentally) to send healing to them. I ask their Higher Self to send them whatever energy healing on whatever level is needed. I call to Michael the Archangel to cut the ties to whatever or whoever may have caused this dis-ease. I then call forth the Violet flame to transmute all out of balance energy in the challenged area. I now send the energy of the Angelite to heal that area. Now I reconnect all cells, atoms, molecules including the DNA back to Creator. I COMMAND the out of balanced parts to now mimic the healthy parts of that challenged area. I call to the Higher Self of the person I am working on and ask that his Divine blueprint for perfect health be activated. I now send that person lots of energy to that challenged part of them until I feel that area in me becoming warm. When this happens, I know there has been a good shift.

I do this for at least 5 minutes a day for the person who needs an extra healing boost, until they tell me they are feeling better.

As long as you go to God and whoever you are praying for, their Higher Selves, you are placing the problem and solution into the hands of the Divine. Then there is no ego, and you are not manipulating someone into a healing you think they need. God knows what is needed. He needs you to open the doors for those who are not aware enough to ask for themselves.

And as I have faith and believe it is being done ... it is!

“Not my will but thy will be done.”
SO, BE IT!

What to do with a Crystal, The Basics

Why do people choose to work with crystals and other rocks? They look at these rocks as tools to help them grow spiritually, using rocks to heal their bodies, minds and souls as well as helping to cope with stress. Crystals are NOT to be worshipped or placed before God. They are tools God placed on earth to help us grow closer to Him...as well as coping on the planet.

Some people choose not to work with them at all. That's okay! For nowhere is it written that you have to work with crystals to get closer to God. I use them because I have developed my awareness to the level that I can see and feel the changes within me when I use them.

I developed my sensitivity by using rocks and stones. When I held a crystal I learned to focus my concentration on what I could feel in my hands and anywhere else it affected my body.

This new skill developed into psychometry, defined as holding an object of someone's in your hand and tuning into the energy of that person through that object. Being able to give them a spiritual reading, feel their body blocks, and give them the information to what is possibly causing these blocks so they can recognize them and help them release the blocks.

I use rocks and stones to help me purify and raise my energy level. To release any negativity in me so I may bring more Light and Divine Healing into my body.

I will use hematite; for example, when I'm very stressed-out or going to a stressful place (getting my taxes done), I will wear a piece of hematite jewelry or put a big, tumbled piece in my pocket. Hematite is a very calming stone that will pull all your scattered energies in and ground you, so that you can focus and make decisions.

As you study and learn what the energies of crystals and rocks do, the more practical uses you will find for them. You can use crystals to energize your plants by putting crystals in the water you use to water them; this will energize the water. I like to put crystals on the television and computer to cut down on the radiation exposure. I believe my van gets better gas mileage when I have a load of crystals inside.

Before you work with any crystal, do not forget to protect yourself in your Bubble of White Light.

Many have asked me how to clear a crystal. By cleansing a crystal, I am not talking about scrubbing the surface with soap and a brush. I mean cleansing all the negative energies and vibrations from a crystal. There are so many ways to do this. I will give you a few simple ways.

Put your crystal under running water for a few minutes. The temperature of the water doesn't matter. When I feel my rocks need an extra special cleansing, I will add sea salt to water and let them soak for a few hours (I use table salt if that is all I have around at the needed time). Dry salt will work also. If there is no salt or water handy, hold the stone in your hands and clear your mind of all thoughts. Look into the crystal and gently blow on the rock. While doing this, see the crystal clearing and all unwanted energy transmuted into Love. You can burn incense, sage, or use smudge sticks around the crystals asking God to clear the energy with Love, again transmuting all the negative energy into Divine Love.

If you are a student of the stone and would like to learn more about rocks, do a specific meditation on the type of stone you want more knowledge on. While in meditation, call to the gemstone guardian of that particular rock to help you learn about that stone. Work with the stone Malachite and place it on your third eye while meditating. Malachite holds all the earths' records and if you ask it, the malachite will feed you information about the stone in question directly into your brain. This will bring you accelerated growth.

Next time you take a bath place a few crystals in the tub. The crystals will charge the water with energy, helping you to relax and recharge your own energy.

Place a bottle of clean water outside in the sun with a small piece of Amethyst crystal, which will then radiate the amethyst energy into the water. Set the bottle outside in the sun for a few hours, this is great cleanser for the body and will help the body reoxygenate itself as well as open your creativity, for Amethyst will activate the right side of the brain which inspires you to be creative.

When I give a rock or crystal away, I program it with Love, asking the crystal to give whatever the person I'm giving the crystal to needs.

If you are interested in bringing out your own inner child and would like to go treasure hunting for your own special crystal, find a map and look for Arkansas.

I could tell you exactly where to dig, but what fun would that be? I will tell you that Arkansas is the place to find clear quartz! Meditate before you go to Arkansas and ask the Creator to guide you to places where crystals are in abundance and waiting for you to find them.

There are many mines in Arkansas where you pay a minimal fee a day and everything you find is yours. There also are mines where you may dig and pay by the pound, or you could meet people who live there that will take you to their "special spots" to dig.

The people are friendly and helpful. When you do go to Arkansas, make sure you stop at one of the natural hot springs in the area. This is very healing because the natural minerals will cleanse your aura and body from radiation and toxins, and it's very refreshing. It's the perfect way to end the day after digging for crystals.

Thank you, Creator.

A few special treasures of Arkansas:

- Clear quartz crystals
- Smokey Quartz
- Blue or black phantom quartz
- Green phantom quartz
- Green sand crystals
- Diamonds
- Hot mineral springs

Practical Applications of Stones and Crystals:

CLEAR QUARTZ: Enhances left side of the brain which is logic. If you are over-emotional, it will help balance you. Enhances the positive keeping negativity away. Enhances your energy and balance. Awakens your spiritual side.

AMETHYST: Enhances right side of your brain which is creative. Enhances spiritual growth, cleansing and transmuting. Calming. I wear amethyst when I want to be creative and enhance my spiritual tributes. The amethyst also represents the physical form of the violet ray, which means it will help transmute dark energies into Light. Very protective.

SMOKEY QUARTZ: Very grounding and sedating. I wear Smokey quartz when I want to be connected to the Earth and all the Elementals that create her. Because of that reconnection to the earth, it will help you become more level headed.

GREEN PHANTOMS: Aids depression. Very hard to be unhappy when worn. Brings joy. Puts one in the frame of Knowledge where you know better than to be unhappy and start choosing happy instead.

ANGELITE: Great all-around healing and first aid stone! Enhances quicker healing for burns, blood clots, bruises, broken bones, and fractures. When worn as a necklace it opens up your lungs cutting down on asthma attacks helping you breathe. Worn as earrings it will work on your ear drums and I noticed my hearing improve. I have put a piece of rough Angelite into a bottle of water and then drank the water. I keep filling the water bottle with water until the Angelite is dissolved completely. Then replace with a new Angelite. Angelite is made up of 9 different trace minerals that I have found to help my bones become stronger, my hair gets thicker and grow again. (My hair is past my waist now ... And still growing). Angelite also opens communication with the Angelic kingdom.

HEMATITE: Great to hold during stressful situations. You will find yourself reacting less stressfully and will enhance your ability to make decisions without your emotions getting in the way. This is the best grounding and calming stone and I use it often in my store when people come in and get spacey from all my crystals ... making it difficult for them to make a decision. I have them hold a few pieces of hematite which immediately grounds them giving them clarity.

RUTILATED QUARTZ: Great protection stone. Neutralizes any negativity sent your way and helps you return love.

TIGER EYE: In sphere form - very powerful for drawing abundance to you. Also strengthens will. Blue tiger's eye's energy will be softer than the gold or red, reducing the aggressiveness to a much lesser degree. Red tiger eye will radiate in energy. This is the strongest tiger eye causing one to have greater vibrant energy. To create much cause and effect, and to draw abundance to oneself.

MALACHITE: Holds all the earths' records. When placed on third eye can send information into the brain, and when done enough, can help you remember that which you forgot. If you are studying astrology ... you will have past life memories of information, come to you ... and this applies to whatever your interests are.

ROSE QUARTZ: Healing of relationships. Considered stone of Love. Helps enhance ability to lose weight. Helps one develop Unconditional Love.

BLACK TORMALINE: Great for psychic protection. Helps you not take on other people's energies, and helps you stop procrastinating – resulting in – finding yourself finishing projects.

TEKTITE: this is a meteorite - and when worn on the body, it will take all your old patterns, scatter them, and open you up to new possibilities. I find myself doing old things in new ways and more open to new opportunities.

How to Develop Your Sensitivity Using Crystals, Rocks & Stones

You need to find a small crystal that will fit comfortably in your hand. It should be pointed on one end and the base should be rough. Any un-polished point will do. Hold the quartz in your left hand. We are using the left hand because usually it is the most sensitive. However, as you grow and develop, you can use either hand. Energy will flow through the base of the crystal and out the faceted-pointed end.

Sit in a chair with your spine straight. Protect yourself with your Bubble of Divine Light. Hold your crystal in the left hand, point directed up the arm. Close your eyes and place all your attention on your hand holding the crystal. You may feel your hand tingling. The crystal may get hot enough to make your hand sweat with a strong pulsing beat. This is not your heartbeat, but the energy of the crystal. Male crystals will have stronger energy surges that feel like a strong pulse or heartbeat. Whereas a female crystal will take a few minutes to warm up for you to feel her energy, her sensations are gentle, even and constant. Now that you can “feel” energy in your hand, place your attention on your arm. You may feel the crystal directing energy up your arm and it may feel tingly. Do not be concerned if you do not feel energy in your arm, for not all crystals will do this.

Other places on the body that you may feel energy directed to are the seven CHAKRA points.

- The Crown CHAKRA (top of head)
- The Brow CHAKRA (middle of the forehead)
- The Throat CHAKRA (throat area)
- The Heart CHAKRA (upper center chest area)
- The Solar Plexus CHAKRA (right under heart center)
- The Sacral CHAKRA (belly button area)
- The Root CHAKRA (sexual areas)

Chakras are energy areas in the body which, as we grow spiritually into the Light, they grow and expand. When people stop growing spiritually the reverse occurs – they remain dormant or close down. These seven centers are not to be found in the physical body, but they are close to the same region where the seven major glands are located in the Etheric Body (the spiritual body we don't see).

As you grow spiritually you also develop your chakra centers, so you become more aware of what's going on around you. You become more sensitive to the Elemental Life by working with gardens and the Angel Kingdom that helps you grow spiritually.

As your heart center develops you become more understanding and return Love. As your mind center develops you see pictures and images that will explain why you do certain things. As your crown Chakra expands, you become Divinely inspired. New ideas and thoughts fill your unlimited mind. Your life is full of more dreams and choices.

You may feel different sensations in these areas such as tingles, a light pressure, or electric energy that feels "sparkly". You may feel energy on the temples, on your head, the neck, and the spine.

Developing these chakra centers can be done by simply placing your attention on your body and trusting what you feel. Once you can feel the energy of a crystal, then you can hold anything in your hand and feel that objects energy. Pick up a pine cone and feel its energy surges, or go outside, hold a leaf or a flower and tune into their energy.

If you practice and try: you will develop your energy centers, your chakras, which will result in the development of your spiritual growth.

Much more on Chakras in Chapter 8!

ANGELITE: A Tool of The Golden Age

Let me introduce you to a wonderful healing stone called ANGELITE. I have worked with this stone for 22 years experiencing what many people call miracles -- I now call a normal part of my life. I have had so many testimonials over the years in regards to Angelite and the healing it has done for others. I am going to share with you some of these stories and my own personal healing stories with Angelite.

Angelite is a mineral that was found in South America in 1987 -- the day of the Harmonic Convergence. I was guided to buy a piece of it at a rock show. As I was driving back to Michigan from the rock show in Tucson, Arizona, I noticed I had a small blood blister on my finger, so I held the Angelite stone on it for around 10 minutes. The next day when I looked at my finger the blister was gone - finger was healed.

The next time I tried the Angelite, I accidentally scalded my hand with hot water. I had a lot of Angelite stone beads then, so I wrapped them around my hand, and within 10 minutes the pain was gone. I took the beads off and the pain came back ... this was a no brainer. I wrapped the beads around my hand again and kept them there all day. By the end of the day my hand was healed.

This was the beginning of my journey with the most highly evolved mineral on the planet -- Angelite.

Over the past 22 years, I have had Angelite heal burns and bruises overnight. Angelite has Help people dissolve tumors and cysts, and has accelerated the healing of broken bones. I broke my little finger, and made myself a splint made of Angelite and band-aids. My finger was healed in 1-½ months ...

A man came into my store a few years ago telling me that the hospital sent his elderly 80 yr. old mother home to die from pancreatic cancer. He bought a large piece of Angelite (4" round), put it under her mattress without telling her, and he said she was cancer free in one month.

A young woman of 18 years came into my store with her sister and told me the young sister had a brain tumor. Every night they would tape the Angelite over the tumor, and it was gone in 3 months. (And she stayed off of her cell phone).

I had a woman in her 50's, from Japan, come into my store - she had stomach cancer. I did some energy work on her, and she took some pieces of Angelite home to Japan with her to place over her tumors. When she went back to her doctor one month later she was cancer free with her tumors shrinking.

When I ate my first stuffed Jalapeno pepper and thought I was going to die from the most horrible heartburn I ever had, I searched for the biggest piece of Angelite I could find, stuck it in my bra, and the pain was gone in 10 minutes.

I have taken Angelite and put it in my water, where it will slowly dissolve, for it is a mineral. I will drink the water and I have noticed that my bones are stronger. My hair stopped growing yrs ago and after I started drinking Angelite water, it got thicker and began to grow. Now it is past my waist and still growing. I am past 57 ... most people's hair will stop growing as we age from mineral deficiency, which Angelite will counter, giving you the minerals you are lacking, which will result in hair growth.

Angelite is very easy to use and can be used over and over again. Just place the Angelite over the area of your body that you are having a challenge with. - i.e., If I had bronchitis, I would wear a piece over my lungs; Back pain, tape it to my back; Wrist pain, wear a bracelet; Tumor, band aid a slice of Angelite directly over the tumor and leave it there till it is gone. (You can take it off for bathing). Keep the Angelite out of the water unless you intend to drink it as mineral water.

Just holding the Angelite on the pain can help release the trauma. Use Angelite for reducing hives, bed sores and shingles. Tape it over your skin after an operation to accelerate the healing or over the cast for broken bones.

After I was allowed to discover the healing properties of Angelite, I knew I had to make it into something more functional. Dad didn't teach me how to use tools and I was a bit stumped as to what direction to go in. A few months after I met my now ex-husband Garry (who is a tool and dye engineer - a real disappearing field), a Divine Master from India, Shri Sathya Sai Baba, came to my ex-husband in a dream and showed us how to put together our Angelite healing tools. Between us we created an amazing healing product line that allows anyone to remove pain and stress with ease.

You can see all the Angelite products online at www.angeliteom.com. There is also product and ordering information at end of this book.

ANGELITE MASSAGE TOOL (GLOW-IN-THE-DARK)

The Angelite Massage Tool has an assortment of different minerals in it for balance. The massage tool can have a quartz core to amplify your Divine energy, and the Angelite inside it allows a novice to use this Angelite tool successfully, to help others release pain and stress. You can even use it on yourself. If you see it glow at night - it is suppose to. We add a pinch of fairy glow-in-the-dark dust and a dash of Sai Baba's vebuhti, to enhance its healing properties. Just put the Angelite Massage Tool in the sun for a few minutes, then go find a dark place and look at it glow. If you sit it in a place where it's able to receive some form of light source, it will pick up enough light to glow all night. Leaving the tool under a light bulb will also charge it up. Too much direct sunlight will fade the color; however, it will not interfere with it glowing all night.

Do not soak the Angelite Massage Tool in ANY clear or salt water. Rinsing the tool under water is OK, to clear it from any negative energy it may have collected. Then immediately dry it.

HOW TO USE THE ANGELITE MASSAGE HEALING TOOL

You can use it ANYWHERE ON THE BODY. Just hold it in either hand and rub it on the person's back. Just be careful to avoid the bony parts of the body and rub only the fleshy parts. Determine the amount of pressure you can use by what feels comfortable for the receiver. Send some love through the Angelite Massage Healing Tool. It's that simple. Don't forget to massage the head ... Yum ... what a divine experience.

The Angelite Massage Healing Tool is good to use for reflexology. You can place the ball on the floor and put your foot on top of it, rolling your foot over the ball. Apply as much pressure as you can without causing pain or discomfort to your foot. Massaging your feet is like massaging your entire body affecting all your internal organs. It is very beneficial.

You can also massage your hands with the Angelite Massage Healing Tool. Just roll the ball between your hands for a few minutes, or massage one hand at a time. It feels great.

Use the Angelite Massage Healing Tool to massage your kids, your parents, your honey and your friends. You can create a mutually beneficial experience by teaching them how to return this gift of healing. It will make them feel so good that it will be hard for them to not reciprocate.

A Simple Way to Balance your Chakras

Why is balancing your energy centers a good exercise to do? A person with balanced Chakras will be in control of themselves emotionally and will seem to be more energetic and a clearer thinker. You become more in tune with your Higher Self and the Angelic energies, allowing yourself to become a channel for the Creator, with the Divine Energy of love constantly flowing through you to other people. You become more centered; thereby you react to people and situations in a more positive light.

The Seven CHAKRA Points:

- The Crown CHAKRA (top of head)
- The Brow CHAKRA (middle of the forehead)
- The Throat CHAKRA (throat area)
- The Heart CHAKRA (upper center chest area)
- The Solar Plexus CHAKRA (right under heart center)
- The Sacral CHAKRA (belly button area)
- The Root CHAKRA (sexual areas)

The basic functions are as follows:

The lowest Chakra is the Root Chakra located at the base of the spine; it is the focus of lust and passion in the spiritually un-awakened individual. This is the negative aspect. In the awakened it is the positive direction of purity.

The second Chakra is the Sacral located at the spleen; it is the focus of anger, jealousy, hatred, and even mild dislike, in its negative aspect. Its positive activity is the power of Invocation and prayer for others.

The third Chakra at the Solar Plexus is the focus of greed, out of balance extremes, and fears, in its negative aspect. That is why you feel struck in the stomach when you suddenly feel afraid. The positive quality of this Chakra is peace. You are in the center of your emotions and have complete protection against both fear and the destructive desires of mankind.

The fourth Chakra is the Heart. In its negative aspect it represents lethargy, laziness or uncaring. Have you ever not been able to put your heart into a job? How much time and energy do you give that project when you don't care? The positive radiation of this center is that of pure, selfless Divine Love. Unconditional Love.

The fifth Chakra is at the Throat; where in its negative aspect rests envy, and the desire for personal power. Its positive activity is the power to create perfection by the doing of God's will - by asking "Not my will Father, but thy will be done". This is the chakra that also gives you the power of the spoken word that is the spark of Divine creation.

The sixth Chakra is in the Forehead – the Brow Chakra. This chakra is the focus of the power of reason, and its negative aspect manifests as pride of intellectual arrogance. The positive aspect is your third eye and is developed to where you see with your "inner sight" - pictures, scenery, people and past lives. You become the "all seeing eye" of God, and the power of concentration.

You will not see people committing to any project until both their mind and heart are convinced that the project is a worthy endeavor.

The seventh Chakra is the crown center at the very top of the head. There is no negative vibration in this center. As you grow spiritually you will find the top of your head throb, get very hot or become itchy; even becoming a little light headed. You are receiving information from your I AM PRESENCE – your GODSELF – your MASTER TEACHERS or ANGELS and GUIDES.

As stated in chapter 6 ... As you grow spiritually you also develop your chakra centers so you become more aware of what's going on around you. You become more sensitive to the Elemental Life by working with gardens and the Angel Kingdom that helps you grow spiritually.

As your heart center develops you become more understanding and return Love. As your mind center develops you see pictures and images that will explain why you do certain things. As your crown Chakra expands, you become Divinely inspired. New ideas and thoughts fill your unlimited mind. Your life is full of more dreams and choices.

“As ye give, ye shall also receive”

Balancing Your Chakras:

To balance your Chakras, sit quietly with your legs and arms uncrossed. Call forth your Bubble of Divine Light and expand it all around you. Imagine light coming down and entering your Crown Chakra until you feel a warmth or pressure. When you feel this, keep the energy flowing through that particular Chakra, and then go on down to the next Chakra and do the same thing.

Keeping the Divine energy flowing through your Crown Chakra... Now bring the energy through your Brow Chakra, Throat Chakra, Heart Chakra, Solar Plexus Chakra, Sacral (belly button) Chakra, and your Root Chakra.

Now feel all that energy flowing down your legs and feet (Chakras in middle of each foot), going into the earth. Now feel all that energy flow down your arms, out your hands (Chakras in the palms of both hands), and now down your spine. Ground when finished. A couple of ways to do this are ... hold some hematite (this helps to pull the energy back into your body), or go and hug a tree ... until you no longer feel light headed or spacey.

I always end with...
“Not my will but thy will be done”
SO BE IT!

For the next 2 exercises, just know that as you balance other people's energy centers, yours will automatically go into alignment:

“As ye give, ye shall also receive”

Balancing Someone Else's Chakras:

Find a friend who needs their energy balanced. Have them lie on their back with legs and arms un-crossed. Call forth your Bubble of Divine light and expand it around both of you. Take a crystal pendulum, usually whatever crystal necklace I'm wearing at the time works great. Starting at the Crown Chakra, hold the pendulum over the Chakra and ask the Creator "to open and expand this Chakra".

The pendulum will start to swing in a circle and will counter swing to clear the Chakra. Then I say "Mother/Father, when the Chakra is open, and in perfect balance and harmony, please stop the crystal from swinging". When the pendulum stops swinging go on to the next Chakra.

If you find very little movement from the pendulum when you put it on a chakra center, the center is closed or almost closed. Ask your friend to bring Divine light from the Crown Chakra and direct it through the closed center. When the pendulum starts to swing in a wide circle, ask them to allow the energy to naturally flow on its own. Then continue to hold the pendulum until it stops.

You will do all seven Chakras. Then also do the energy centers that are in the feet (middle of foot) and the Chakras in the palms of both hands. When you are finished, let them lie relaxed on the floor for a few minutes, breathing deeply. Then have them hold some Hematite to ground, for you do not want them to leave your place feeling light headed and spacey. If something happens to them, you are responsible, for you put them in that state of mind. Having them hold a piece of hematite pulls their energies back into their body, grounds them, and they should feel clear headed.

"Not my will but thy will be done."

SO BE IT!

Long Distance Chakra Balancing:

This is a nice way to give a person some long distance healing. After asking for permission either verbal or call to their Higher Selves and ask. Then direct the energy to their Higher Selves. By doing this you will not create any negative karma by trying to manipulate someone into doing your will.

If you are a very sensitive person you can imagine light coming down and entering their Chakras starting with the Crown. Keep bringing down the Divine energy until you feel a warmth or pressure in your own Crown Chakra; when you do, keep the energy flowing through that particular Chakra, and then go on down to the next and do the same thing. Continue down through all the Chakras; the Brow Chakra, Throat Chakra, Heart Chakra, Solar Plexus Chakra, Sacral Chakra, and the Root Chakra. Now imagine all that energy flowing down their legs and feet, going into the earth. Now imagine the energy flowing down their arms, out their hands and down their spine. Ground when finished by keeping the energy flowing until YOU no longer feel lightheaded. This will ground them too. Now you are done. I always add at the end...

"Not my will but thy will be done."

SO BE IT!

How to do a Simple Working Meditation/Healing Circle

This is a working meditation/ healing circle that everyone participates in. When you sit with a group, the energies are magnified, and everyone's growth is enhanced and quickened. A working circle is a group that not only meditates, but also channels the Light of the Divine into healing whatever the Creator directs them.

The basic outline of the working meditation/healing circle is as follows:

1. Opening the circle.
 2. Silently meditate 15 to 30 minutes as a group. (Length is up to you).
 3. Share experiences.
- BREAK-*
4. Bringing in Divine Light for healing work.
 5. Taking time recharging in the center (play time) this is the time when we allow spiritual messages to be given.
 6. Closing the circle.

Opening the Circle

To open a meditation circle, stand holding hands in a circle, each with left hand palm up, right hand palm down. Surround everyone in the Light of the Divine and expand the Light to fill the room. Have everyone in the circle send Love and Light to the person to the right. Now direct the energy to flow to the person on the left. As the energy flows, invite the Angels, Masters and guides to add their energy to the circle. These Divine beings love to have their names called out so the more the merrier I always say. Can you have enough highly evolved beings helping you in a light circle? NOPE! I bring them all in. I am not proud, and since I honor all religions, I call to Sathya Sai Baba, Buddha, Mohammed, Krishna, Mother Mary, Kwan yin, Jesus, and many, many more. I figure the more High Beings I call in to a Light circle the higher the energy will be and the more Light I can produce.

As the energy flows from person to person around the circle, the circle becomes closed to anything but Divine Light and Love. Then you can say, "We call to the Divine Mother/Father God asking direction and guidance for the circle tonight. Thank you for bringing us together and giving us this opportunity to serve. Guide us into doing thy will and may each person here receive whatever healing he/she needs tonight. So be it."

Fifteen minute meditation

If you are just learning meditation, you may want to start with a guided meditation. By guided, I mean taking everyone through step by step. Relax everyone by having them breathe deeply. Have everyone imagine a light coming down the top of their heads as warmth flowing downward. As it flows down the body feel the body become relaxed and begin to feel lighter. Keep breathing deeply. As the light finally flows down through the feet, see imaginary clouds begin to float by. Have a fluffy cloud stop by each person (in their mind's eye) imagine themselves on the cloud. Now see the cloud drift upward.

Now imagine the cloud drifting over mountains, streams and lakes. As the clouds are drifting, guide everyone to find their special place. When they see their special spot allow the cloud to gently drift to the ground. See yourself getting off the cloud and going toward your special place; now gently go in peace with the Creator.

You now will be silent and allow everyone to meditate for 15 minutes. You have the choice of whether to play music or not. This is the time when everyone will experience something different. This is a time for receiving and not to send healing out to people. This is a time of preparation. To allow for the Divine energy to enter and help center oneself, so the Light of the Divine may be channeled later. There is no talking going on while everyone is meditating. After 15 minutes, call everyone gently back to the circle.

Sharing

After you have discerned that everyone is “back” (if you have any doubts ask: “John, are you back?”). When everyone has answered “yes” take turns and briefly share what has happened to you. This will help everyone grow quicker. If you hear someone’s experience, it will help you understand when it happens to you and the unknown will become clearer and less confusing.

BREAK for 5 minutes...

Channeling Light of Divine for Healing

Sit upright with feet flat on the floor, hands, palms up, directed toward the center of the room. Breathe deeply, from the top of your head send upward a silver antenna. In your mind’s eye see it go through the roof, past the clouds, up into the universe until it connects with the Creator. As your antenna connects with the Divine, feel the Divine Energy travel down the silver antenna through your Crown chakra and direct the Light out of your brow, throat, heart Chakra, and hands - into the center of the room forming a bubble of White Light. Spirit will direct you as to what to place inside these Bubbles of Divine Light.

Here are a few suggestions:

- Form a bubble of pure energy to be released for the Angels to direct it where they need extra energy.
- Place the Mother Earth in the center as it gently rotates, see the light begin to penetrate the Earth’s surface and flow toward the center. As the energy flows towards the center, every atom and molecule of the Earth radiates in perfect balance and harmony. As the Light reaches the center of the Earth and begins to flow back outward, the Light begins to radiate brighter. When the Divine Light comes back to the surface, every man, woman, child, plant and animal radiate with Light. Now we see the Light expand into the universe.
- Place family, friends, leaders of countries, decision makers, military, and any other situations that need healing, in the Light. Before you put anyone in the healing circle call to their Higher Self and ask for permission to do this. By asking for permission you are not manipulating them by giving them something you feel they need and perhaps not ready for. When you ask for permission to place them in the Light, their God Self will do the directing as to where and what level the healing will be given.

- Place the Children on the Earth in the Bubble.
- Expand the Circle to include the group and let everyone recharge in the Light.

Again, God will direct you, as to whom or what you will place in the Bubble. You may find yourself sending healing energy to the Light workers in China, Hawaii, and Palestine ... You must remain flexible and allow the Divine to always guide you. There are many “power Prayers” to choose from in later chapters in the book.

When you are done doing “service” work, place a chair in the middle of the room and take turns sitting in it. This is playtime. This is a time of developing, sharing and accelerating spiritual growth. Whoever sits in the center stays calm, relaxed and open. The people on the outside bring in the Divine Light and instead of forming a bubble of Light you direct it to the person in the center. This is a time to share spiritual messages. Pay attention to your thoughts and feelings. What thoughts come to your mind? It doesn’t matter if they make sense to you or not. The messages are not for you, but the person in the middle.

What are you feeling? Are your hands hot? Can you feel the person drawing energy from you or are they sending it back? Does their energy feel smooth, rough, electric or cold? Can you feel pressures or tingles in your body? This is the person in the middle, and you can feel their blocks or centers where they are open ... or closed.

By sitting in a circle, you are putting into practical application - the Creators energy to work. The more you do light circles the quicker you grow and develop. It’s all about group work in this life time.

Closing the circle

To close the circle, stand holding hands, and thank the Creator for the opportunity to share and serve. May everyone’s lesson for the coming week be gentle, and may joy fill our hearts. SO BE IT!

HUGS FOR EVERYONE!

What I have given you, are guidelines on how to do a simple meditation circle. Allow your Higher Self to guide you and be flexible. You can make it interesting if you allow the Divine to flow through you, by stepping aside and channeling His Divine thoughts. And to help you, there are a lot of “power prayers” to choose from in the next chapters to come.

After each meditation circle (or private meditation) you will be calmer and happier. Don’t forget to ground everyone before they leave. To do this, have everyone hold a piece of hematite until they are not light headed. OR If you have a tree handy, have them hug the tree sending all the excess energy into the tree for a few minutes ... then ask the tree to send you grounding energy back. Do this until you no longer feel light headed. You can also ground by eating a light snack after circle.

How to Work with the Violet Flame

The Violet Flame is one of the most powerful tools you can use for growth. The Violet flame spectrum vibration is one that can help anyone who has a drug or alcohol addiction, or just wanting spiritual growth.

The Violet Flame is also called the singing flame. As you picture yourself in the Violet Flame, it is the cleansing energy. When in action it will erase cause effect record and memory of Karma, enabling a person to prepare for Illumination.

Also, when we are in any negative state (jealous, angry, resentful, etc.), we tar our bodies' atoms and molecules with a dark gooey like substance. The more we express darkness the more we gunk up our bodies. When enough tar has accumulated, our bodies begin to break down and we manifest dis-ease.

When the flame is used, it is like scrubbing bubbles that clean and release this negative energy so more Light may enter the body. The more Light that enters our bodies, the closer we grow toward Illumination. When the flame is called forth on a daily basis, your body will feel "lighter" and more refined. If you listen with your inner ear, you will hear your bodies energy hum. Hence, the singing flame.

To use the flame, first protect yourself in the Light of the Creator. Visualize yourself in Violet Flame (purple) and speak in loud repetition, "I AM a being of Violet fire", "I AM the purity God desires". If you can devote one half- hour a day (15 minutes in the morning and 15 minutes at night) - for one week, you will see fantastic results.

When I did my invocations to the Violet Flame I actually devoted one hour in the morning and one-half hour at night. That following weekend I found a quiet spot and did nothing but devote my energy to the flame.

My experience with it was very profound. I received a mental clarity I never had before. I knew where I was going on my spiritual path and joyfully was able to pursue it. My vibration changed as I used the cleansing flame, and I could feel myself becoming filled with Light.

The flame is good for helping people release their addictions. Pot smokers that find their short term memory going, and begin to stutter to the point where their sentences are intangible, will find that the flame will re-stimulate the brain and help repair the damage due to over-smoking.

However, I must warn you that one of the side effects of working with this energy will be spiritual growth. Someone asked me once “What kind of spiritual growth will you have once you start invoking the Violet Flame?” It really depends on the student. If you have a pure heart and your intentions are for your enlightenment and call forth the Flame daily, you will have more growth than the person who sets aside 1 hour a week. Yet the person who only evokes the flame once a week will have more growth than the person who never evokes the flame.

You will begin to cleanse yourself of negative energy that is trapped in your body. When the negative is transmuted - changed into Light, you are allowing more Light to come into your body. You will begin to radiate and glow. Some of this negativity is the result of many past lives we have had, that are affecting us in this life time. The Flame will release this old energy, and the cause-effect-record and memory will also be transmuted into Light. This will create a change in your current thought patterns (whether on a subconscious level or not), you will be able to look at situations and people in a different spin.

If you devote time to the Violet Flame, your spiritual path will open up to you. You will see changes for the better in yourself - becoming healthier; Body, Mind, and Spirit. You will have a more open communication with the Angelic and Elemental Kingdoms, for you become more sensitive to all energies.

You can also use the Violet Flame to release souls who are trapped on the astral plane. Have you ever gone into a house and the energy just didn't feel right? Have you ever noticed personal items in your home mysteriously disappear then re-appear somewhere else with no logical explanation?

If you feel a stuck entity is responsible, call forth the Violet Flame and in your mind's eye, “see” the flame flow through all the rooms. Tell the trapped spirit it now should go toward the Light, and that their friends are waiting to help guide them through at the end of the tunnel. See the Angels taking this entity by the hand and guiding them through the tunnel. Then send this entity Love. Fill that space up with an Angel of Love; Healing and Protection. You will notice a positive change in the house's energy.

And as you believe, it is done.

“Not my will but thy will be done.”
SO BE IT!

Simple Way to Develop your Concentration

Find yourself a ten-minute timer and put it in a room where you can hear the bell ring, but not the ticking. Sit quietly in front of a mirror. Put yourself in a bubble of Light (begin with the timer set for 5 minutes). Sit comfortably and gaze into the mirror, focus on the center of your forehead and think nothing but forehead. If your mind starts to wander, gently bring your attention back to the middle of your forehead. If your eyes start to wander, gently bring them back to focusing on your forehead.

What you may see is the energy field around your head. It may appear white, and as you gaze, then turn into other colors. That energy field around you that you will see is also called your Aura.

You may also see faces appear over yours. These faces you are seeing could be from your past lives. Or one of your guides or teachers is showing themselves to you.

Whatever you experience, keep your focus on your forehead. Do this exercise for five minutes every day for one week, then increase it to ten minutes thereafter.

You will find yourself becoming much calmer. Your patience will increase. Your body will become calmer with controlled reactions. It will become easier to meditate, for you now can sit still and clear your mind to receive information from the Creator.

How to Bring to you That Which You Need (To Manifest), or the Ten Most Wanted List

This exercise is to show you how to manifest (create and bring things to you that you need).

On a piece of paper, list down from one to ten items (wants, desires, goals, etc.), that you would like to see happen in your life. List with as much description as you can.

Read the list three times a day and in your mind's eye see yourself having it.

Do not tell anyone what is on your list until after you have it. People can put negative energy on your wishes without meaning to, which could take it longer to appear in your life. Once you have brought the wish into your life, you can share what happened with whomever you desire. Then revise your list.

An example list may be:

- To become a happier person.
- New pair of red track shoes.
- Small portable short wave radio.
- Greater communication with the Angels.
- New engine (350–V8) for ford Chevy.
- Greater harmony at work.
- Work Raise $1.50 or more)
- New white refrigerator that is propane and has all the attachments to go with.
- A 2 bedroom apt that has a big back yard, close to an elementary school, with a water fall for $250 a month.
- An energy teacher that will trade out for something you have for knowledge.
- New Tires - 13" radial white walls.

The more descriptive you get, that is what you will draw to you. You also will eliminate any "spiritual loopholes". A "spiritual loophole" is when you do not get specific enough and spirit fills it in for you. If I just write down red shoes I could get a pair of red fake alligator high heels instead of the track shoes I really wanted. Or if I asked for tires I could get bike tires instead of car tires. (Spiritual humor).

Pay attention when you go anywhere because our wishes often appear where you least expect it. You may find yourself going a new way to work and see what you wanted on sale. Possibly, and this does happen often, someone will have what you need and just give it to you.

I know when the Creator sends something my way because I will find it there for free, or at such a bargain - I know it's mine.

The more you realize you are already a Creator, the more you will follow your spiritual path: doing God's will, the more pure of heart you can be ... the less you will need a ten most wanted list. You will magnetize what you need to you by simply expressing it in thought forms.

The Creator does provide for those who sincerely follow and pursue their path back to Him.

REMEMBER: Nothing is a coincidence, and everything does happen for a reason. In time, all is revealed.

How To Be Happy

To be happy is a matter of choice. Remember, wherever you are, happy or sad; you are adding energy to that emotion. You also are “joining” in energy with everyone else who also is feeling and experiencing that emotion on the planet earth. If you are happy, you are “unconsciously” connecting with everyone who is happy and you are raising the energy level on the Earth.

To be happy, really happy, all you have to do is choose to be in that state of mind. If you are positive, you will draw situations and people who are positive to you. If you are negative you will magnetize to you negative situations and people. If you find you are presently in a negative frame of mind and want to change your attitude, simply choose to be positive. It's that simple! Start monitoring your thoughts on a conscious level, and whenever a negative thought or feeling is placed before you, choose not to accept it, and think good thoughts. Stop listening to the little voice in the head that is taking you down a dark road.

When I find myself “slipping” into a negative state, I will say over and over again: “The Creator loves me. The Creator takes care of me and is giving me all good things. I think His thoughts and do what He wants me to do.” I will consciously choose to be happy! Or say the invocation to the Violet Flame. “I am a being of Violet fire; I am the Purity God desires.” By saying these verses, you are not letting any negative emotions enter your mind. Positive situations and people will begin to be drawn to you, for that is the energy you are putting out! If you say the verses (or make up a positive, happy chant to say on your own), your life will change for the better. Your life will become easier.

Start asking yourself, “What can I learn from this experience? What is my lesson?” Instead of “OH no, it's happening to me again.”

Look for the gift from the Creator in every lesson -- because there is one. Start looking and placing your attention on the positive in every situation. Again ... It's a matter of choice.

Personally, I find it much easier to be positive. When I have found myself in a negative frame of mind, more negative situations will find their way to me and soon I feel “dumped on” with negativity.

This is not what I consider fun and good for my growth. So I start chanting ... the negative energy dissipates, and the positive returns. Now I feel better. I'm nice to be around and others benefit, for happy can be “catchy”.

Practice being happy...!

Practice not allowing negativity into your life. Do this for one day in the beginning, and see the change, not only in you but also in others around you. If you are happy, loving, kind and joyous, you are expressing The Creator to His fullest.

Illumination

In this lifetime, many people will have a chance to “Illuminate”. What Is Illumination? This is the initiation that Jesus and many other Masters (Buddha and Confucius) have experienced. A Master is a person who has lived a life (or many lives) on earth. Who has gone through life’s initiations (tests), over and over again until they “pass”, learning what Universal Laws are and practically applying them in their everyday lives. A master understands and applies the Law of Service and unconditional Love. I look at Jesus, Buddha, Mohammed, Krishna, and Confucius as “Masters”. They are the spiritual college professors who have “earned” their doctorate on how to evolve into the Light.

They are Master Scientists who are so evolved, that they know how to work with the Elemental and Angelic Kingdoms; how to work with atoms, molecules, and Light to create whatever they wish. This is what Jesus did when he kept manifesting loaves of bread and fish for the crowds.

That is what I call Far Advanced 101. I’m still at Basic 101 +++. These “Highly Evolved” Beings had to go through life’s lessons and temptations just like you and I. They had to learn to control their emotions, to work with the weather, to express love for their fellow man. They went through all the tests and initiations everyone goes through. These beings mastered being pure of heart and remembered what God is really about- what Life should be. However, if we look at what these Masters have shown us (by different methods) we will once again learn how to become a Light Energy, which is God Energy.

Jesus showed us the way. He did not die on the cross. It’s time to take Jesus down from the cross and go beyond. After Jesus was taken down from the cross he was taken to the tomb. This is where Jesus did his transformation from the level of earth to one of self-mastery. While he was in the tomb His body began to change in atomic structure as his atoms and molecules were reconstructed in Light. Not until His body was restructured in Light did He apply His new level of mastery by appearing to the women, to the apostles, and to various other people. To demonstrate visually what can be done through Illumination and to prove that the soul self does not die but goes on.

When the woman on the road wanted to touch Him, He gently told her no, for His “new body” was not quite complete and was still being restructured. Wow, what an initiation to pass! Not only did Jesus have to teach this new knowledge, but had to physically demonstrate to God, the final exam professor, that He had the skill, knowledge and ability to work with Divine Light to change His own body’s atoms and molecules to one of radiant Light. Jesus radiated the energy of Love (which is the energy of God) to others. If you are sending the energy of Love to someone then you are working with Divine energy, Divine Light, God.

These Teachers are Masters in Enlightenment and Illumination. They changed their bodies thus elevating them to a higher energy level, a frequency of Light and a different dimension.

We can choose to allow our bodies to die in this lifetime or we can choose to apply our energy toward raising our awareness to the consciousness of God Self Mastery.

Why does the physical body die? Perhaps too much negativity in one's life and not remembering why we are on the physical Earth Plane, which is to pursue our path back to God and become the Beings of Light that we once were.

Many people call death - making transition. This is to go from one plane to another. In this instance, it means to leave the physical plane to become part of a freer plane (the plane of spirit). To what level in the world of spirit you evolve to, will depend on how you treated others here on Earth.

Self Mastery is the Mastery of the Self. Some of the tests you will find yourself having to complete are related to:

1. Seeking out the Universal Laws and apply them.
2. Practicing Unconditional Love.
3. Healing our own bodies.
4. Working with nature and the Angels.
5. Applying the energy of Love on all levels.
6. Being joyful, kind, compassionate, and loving.
7. Practicing and applying faith.
8. It means nothing to have lots of knowledge and never take a step to apply any of it. You must practice, experiment, do try, go for it, and jump into the void. Take action! Try! God is understanding and does see the effort we make as we grow spiritually. You are never alone in anything you do, for your guardian Angel is always with you, ready to give you a helping hand with whatever you do. If you are having any kind of trouble, ask God and your Angels for help, and then pay attention to what comes your way.
9. REMEMBER; Ask and Ye shall receive. We always get what we ask for ... but when we get it, it never looks like what we thought it was going to look like, nor does it come from the direction we thought it would come from.

Seek and Ye shall find.

Again, it never comes from the direction we thought it would come from. It's how the Creator keeps us on our toes. Ever find something that you were looking for ... after you got lost? Or walked a different path, drove a different route? Let life be magical and have some adventures. Do something different and see what gifts await.

Knock and the Door will open.

Jesus showed us what to do by doing the first recorded initiation of the Illumination. We achieve Illumination by practicing, applying unconditional Love, doing good deeds, helping other people, and being happy. This is God in full expression on the Earth.

A Simple Way to Heal Yourself Using Your Heart

A healing for you ...

I ask your heart to communicate with those body parts that are out of balance. See your heart sending healing energy to those areas, and communicate to that part of you that it is now receiving so much love that it is going through a healing transformation. Remind that body part that it is loved, and imagine this healing love energy flowing back and forth from your heart to that body part, always strengthening and regenerating. Now ask your heart to activate your Divine blueprint for perfect health. As you ask, it is done. Now see this body part working in perfect harmony with the rest of your body. Imagine this 2 times a day.

Elemental Kingdoms

When the earth was ready for habitation, God allowed four evolutionary intelligences the chance to develop and mature. They are the Angelic, the Elemental, Human and Reptilian. Each one very different from the other and three of the four kingdoms would work through mutual cooperation toward the same goals. Man in this case is the most dependent, for it is from the Elemental Kingdom that he gets his mental equipment, while from the Angelic kingdom he gets his feelings. The reptilians do everything in their power to turn humans and life forms into slaves.

I will focus on the Elemental kingdom. There are four groups of Elementals:

1. The Fire Elementals, called Salamanders
2. The Water Elementals, called Undines
3. The Air Elementals, called Sylphs
4. The Earth Elementals, also known as fairies, elves, or nature spirits. Each one is very different yet similar in their pattern of growth.

They start as very small microscopic intelligences, so small that millions of them could fit on a pin head. Starting out as small specks, as they grow, and this takes time, they become Builders of Form, who help create bodies of man. Then they become Nature Divas who build rivers, mountains, forests, etc.; reaching eventually the status of Mighty Elohim (cosmic builders of form) and a silent Watcher of a planet or a galaxy.

1. Fire Elementals.

You will work with a fire Elemental when you cook, heat, use light, or evoke the sacred Fire (Violet flame). The fire Elementals have been misused causing the loss of lives and property. Many people have a terrific fear of fire (often buried deep in the Etheric Aura). Many individuals (in particular, those who have been burned at the stake, or otherwise tortured by fire) have been deeply scarred etherically. Using the Violet Flame will cleanse and release these thoughts from those who have these fears. When there is a fire in an area, this could mean that there was so much negativity in that place that the Elementals could no longer hold the energy, which resulted in having to burn it off through physical fire.

2. Water Elemental.

The Water Elemental not only is responsible for the bodies of water on earth, but our physical and emotional bodies as well. They are responsible for the rise and fall of tides, as well as your local rain fall. Are you having a drought in your area? Call to the Water Elemental to bring a gentle rain to your area. Please be very specific – ask for gentle, loving, and kind rain to happen over 4 to 5 hours. The excessive droughts, flash floods, and heavy rains in various places, are due to the abuse of the Water Elemental in the past and present. And the H.A.A.R.P. manipulating weather program.

H.A.A.R.P.: Alaskan project created by ARCO, scientists and Navy. (The mirror Force)
The military can lift part of the upper atmosphere making it move and do things like:

- Distorting the ionosphere to disrupt global communication.
- Beams of electromagnetic power can lift portions of the upper atmosphere and redirect the jet stream to alter global weather patterns.
- Hard-kill weapon.
- Soft-Kill ... by directing enormous amounts of radio frequency energy at a specific area, H.A.A.R.P. could overload electrical power distribution of the grids.
- Scramble missile guidance.
- Upset our brain chemistry.
- Weather modification: Heating the upper atmosphere over specific areas can change weather patterns, creating torrential floods, hurricanes, earth quakes, etc.
- Communication -- satellite jamming, satellite communication with subs and detection of stealth aircraft.

Pray to the Creator for the purification of the water Elemental in our physical bodies, and all waters on the planet, so greater balance may be achieved in the World.

3. Air Elementals.

The Air Elementals are responsible for keeping the air purified so mankind can breathe. (Boy none of those Elementals has an easy job – do they?) They are responsible for moving great air masses where needed most. Sending clouds where rain is needed, to cooling you with a breeze on a hot day. Mankind needs to monitor their careless and thoughtless pollution of the Air Elemental through their power plants and manufacturing factories. When you hear or read about vortices of air currents of a destructive nature (hurricanes, tornadoes, etc.), call to the Creator and ask that these storms dissipate in Light and Love. The results may surprise you. You will see the storm turn into a gentle rain. If the storm is man manufactured from the H.A.A.R.P., you can still calm the Elemental down. We have included in this book many ways on how to work with all the Elementals. You are not powerless.

4. Earth Elementals.

The Earth Elementals, also called fairies, gnomes, elves, etc., are responsible for the beings of nature - the rocks, stones, trees, and plants. Working with this special group helps everything growing on the planet. They can help your garden grow more lush or your house plants bloom. They are responsible for the constant energy that emits from a rock, crystal or stone. If you have a garden, set aside a spot where you let your garden grow wild just for the Earth Elementals. Charge that area with Love – let the Elementals know that this is a Sacred Space created just for them, to recharge in the Divine Light so they may continue their Divine jobs. They will feel this wonderful effort from mankind (which man has not done for eons of time) – and for how many centuries has man even denied their existence – as they have also denied any Angelic presence. When the Elementals feel love from mankind – you often have “perfect weather” – the gentle rains, resulting in healthy plants and gardens, trees, etc.

As long as Mother Nature isn't manipulated by the H.A.R.R.P.

As you begin to work with the Elementals, sending Divine Love, you bring mankind, the Elemental Kingdom, and the Angelic Kingdom closer together, achieving their purpose of World Enlightenment and Illumination, as all evolve upward into the Light.

Some evening when you sit very quietly by yourself, you may see a brief flash of light out of the corner of your eye. This could be a visiting Elemental trying to catch your attention when you send it the Divine Love from your heart.

With all three kingdoms working together love will abound on the planet. Peace will manifest. Illumination can happen – In our lifetime.

Again ... I will state, everything that is in this book is from my learned truth – what I have found works for me. I applied spiritual knowledge I was given by my “Master Teachers” and received results that have helped me grow spiritually.

Again, I ask you to become an unlimited being by keeping an open mind, and “going within” for your own guidance and answers. Be aware of anyone who wants you to follow them and tries to turn you away from going “within”. Question everything! Keep yourself and your family in the Light!

May you have many enlightened adventures!!!

Prayers
By Catherine M. Bilsky
& Dr. James Wing Ho Wong

James and I wrote our first prayer in November of 2011 and this is the activation prayer to quantum leap. I must say, I was amazed at the ease with which we worked together, and how quick James was to understand my power prayers taking them to new dimensions. It's very rare for me to find someone who can help me expand on a power prayer, and I consider James' insights a "gift from the Divine"

a. Prayer to Activate Quantum Leaping the World into the Golden Age of Enlightenment

This is not a Test ... we are moving forward!

The 'just in time' program is here and it is time to put 'Quantum Leaping the World into the Golden Age' into action!

It is in action NOW and snowballing worldwide as we speak.

Please say this prayer out loud once a day using the power of the spoken word. The louder, more feeling and intent you put into it will help us manifest this Divine Age quicker. Hold a crystal in your hand when you speak this prayer, and the crystal will amplify your energy even more. Say this at the end of your Prayer/meditation circles when the energy is at its highest. Group energy is what this is all about and we need the energy of as many people as we can.

Send this prayer out to your friends and ask them to pass it on. See this message going around the world and touching everyone

Let's Make Quantum Leaping the World into the Golden Age popular ... talk it up.

Let's rock and roll.

It's time.

Blessings to you all!

May the Divine send you all your hearts desires.

Prayer to Activate Quantum Leaping the World into the Golden Age of Enlightenment

Let there be light: In the name of the presence of God, which I Am, through the magnetic power of the sacred fire vested in me, I COMMAND.

I call to Lord Ganesha, the remover of obstacles, to go forth and remove all obstacles in our path to Divine Creation. I call to Lord Shiva and Michael the Archangel to go forth and destroy all evil in our path or in the path of our creation.

We call to the Divine Creator to allow us to activate Quantum Leaping the World into the Golden Age. We call to the Higher Selves of all the light workers on the planet and ask for permission to allow and activate Quantum Leaping the world into the Golden Age. We ask that their integration be gentle, loving, kind, and joyful, going all the way down into everyone's DNA.

We call to all life forms on earth, and the Mother Earth herself, to awaken and allow the activation and forward movement of Quantum Leaping the world into the Golden Age. We call to the Higher Selves of all light workers, past, present and future lives, to allow us to activate and put into forward motion, Quantum Leaping the world into the Golden Age. I ask their Higher Selves to help them remember all the joyful lifetimes they lived in Divine peace, being connected and in harmony with all life forms and the Creator. Becoming fully awakened spiritual beings.

We call to all rocks; stones; Angelite; crystals and all the earth keeper crystals above and below the earth, to now awaken, reconnect themselves back to the Divine, and start to vibrate to the higher frequency of the Divine; raising the energy and vibration of everything that is connected to the earth, to the frequency of the Divine Creator. Let this shift and integration be gentle, loving and kind for all forms of life, human and Elemental.

We call upon the Creator of the Universe and ask for the permission to raise and activate the frequencies of all zodiac planetary systems with the Earth's Golden Leap; ask for the permission to raise and activate the frequencies of all life forms, seen and unseen, in those zodiac planetary systems, in order for them to focus back into their Higher Selves and over souls; terminate all galactic battles and leave the galaxy in forever peace and bliss; ask for the permission to raise and activate the frequencies of all stars and planets, seen and unseen, known and unknown, existed in the past, existing at present and to exist in the future, in our milky way and all other galaxies to evolve in a peace, harmonious and blissful way. Let all lives, seen and unseen, known and unknown, evolve with the Creator's blessing and without consumption of materials and feelings of lack; without fear or ignorance, let knowingness and mindfulness be with each and every consciousness, personality fragments, Higher Selves, over souls, avatars, masters, guides and Angels, all return to the Light now!

We give the Angels permission to help all souls and life forms become more connected to the Divine. See humans, Elementals and Angels working together taking care of the Mother Earth and all life forms.

We call to the Creator who have all the data, past, present and future of our personal blueprint, for healing of all thoughts and memories that are blocking and holding us back at this time.

We call upon the Creator and ask for the permission to release all personality fragments, which have become our fathers, mothers, sons, daughters, spouses, relatives, friends, colleagues, customers, politicians, government officials and all ancestors, animals, insects, Higher Selves, over souls, avatars, masters, guides and Angels; all other life forms and consciousness in Earth, in other stars and planets, in other galaxies, seen and unseen, known and unknown, who may have offended other personality fragments and consciousness, their family relatives, and ancestors, seen and unseen, known and unknown, in thoughts, words, deeds, and actions from the beginning of the Creation to the present, and all future potentials; we ask the Creator for unconditional full forgiveness, and untangle all vibration and frequencies; ask for the permission and activate the knowingness in all personality fragments and consciousness: ask for the permission and activate the cleansing of all personality fragments and consciousness, purify, release, dissolve, cut, and erase all the unpleasant and negative memories, blocks, energies, information, vibrations and frequencies, and transmute these unwanted energies and information back to the pure Light, Now! And it is done.

With the blessings of the Divine we COMMAND this activation NOW!

Never-the-less ... not our will but thy will be done.

Prayer for Quantum Leaping the World into The Golden Age, Divine Infinity & Beyond

Let there be light! In the name of the presence of God, which "I AM", through the magnetic power of the sacred fire vested in me, I COMMAND!

I call to the Architect of The Universes, Divine Creators, and ask for permission to Quantum Leap the World, and all life forms on all planes and dimensions, seen and unseen, connected with planet earth. To let us go beyond our known potential into the greatest unknown Golden Age the universes and worlds, and all planets have ever experienced. Let us take the best of all lifetimes, all golden ages, all worlds, galaxies, and create such a Divine and enlightened planet that is even beyond the Creator's imagination. Imagine the Creators laughing with joyful glee on this action we have put into motion with every breath we now breathe. And it is snowballing, quantum leaping forward every moment. Every time someone reads this prayer, see the energy amplifying 100,000,000 fold, creating a higher resonance with the Creators, and the Architect of The Universes.

See the blissful information and energy of heaven surrounding earth like a golden shimmering rainbow of colors. See this energy anchoring now to the planet; all life forms; Elemental kingdom; Angels; from the lowest of consciousness life forms, any trapped and stuck entities, any aliens from other worlds; the Reptilian king and queen, all their seeds including all hybrids; any one practicing any kind of black magic, voodoo, and black witch craft. All the way up to the most enlightened beings on the planet none excluded, all included. As this energy settles in, seeing everyone's integration gentle, loving, and kind, going into everyone's DNA, soul memory and dreams.

As all life forms dream and create, let them dream of all the times they lived in the Golden Age where there was plenty of everything, everyone was using their Spiritual psychic abilities for many different forms of Divine Creation, no one lacked for anything, functional families where men and women lived side by side in Divine harmony; lots of laughter, with everyone practicing compassion, joy, kindness, and love in action. See these dreams being brought into physical, present form.

Anyone who chooses not to go forward into the Golden age, and tries to stop this prayer from forward movement, I ask their Higher Self, spiritual teachers and Guardian Angels to step in and put them in positions of harmlessness. We ask the Creators to give them special grace and unlock the doors in their minds that are keeping them from connecting to the higher frequency of light. Release all that which is holding them back. I ask all the Creators to close down the reptilian part of the brain and open up the Divine God brain, filling them with whatever high vibration is needed to shift them, so everyone gets to go into the Golden Age - leaving no one behind. Send these beings and entity's whatever vibration, sound, color, and memories of being connected to the Creator they need, so they gently evolve into the light. The Creator, their Higher Selves and Angels know exactly what each one needs and are sending it to them as we speak.

See us propelling ourselves far into the Divine Golden Age way beyond the Creators wildest dreams of a Golden Age planet.

Angels, humans, Elementals, and extraterrestrials working together, all veils removed so everyone's psychic potential is being developed and put into practical practice. Families putting love into action and becoming Divinely functional, having everything they need when they need it. The elderly are honored for their wisdom. People becoming awakened spiritual beings, practicing religious tolerance and the positive aspects of their religion.

See us working at one with beings from other galaxies and planets, who are just delighted we are quantum growing into enlightened beings, and giving us all the new tools, ideas and technologies on how we can make this a more joyful, functional, enlightened planet - taking us beyond our Divine potential.

The earth is being treated with much respect. The old ancient cultures, responsible for taking care of the planet, sharing their secrets and beliefs as everyone listens with open minds, and hungers for their knowledge - using that knowledge with wisdom.

All sacred knowledge of all natural healing methods are put into practice including all tools made out of stone, light, sound, energy, and vibration; Enlightened beings growing healing herbal gardens.

Everyone is being taught the sacred teachings, paths of enlightenment, and truths. All knowledge flows freely, gifts in music, the arts, sports, and intuition ... are encouraged and allowed to be developed.

Enlightened politicians and elected officials that tell the truth, acting for the benefit of humanity - with limited terms of service.

The earth is a healed, being at one with all life forms on her. Everyone so in tuned to the Mother Earth that they can hear her sing; her sighs; where she needs extra light; becoming aware of every move and grove she needs to do. Allowing her to do so and move out of her way with grace and understanding, like people do for the Fire Goddess Pele in Hawaii when she needs to flow. The interaction with the earth and all life forms is gentle, loving, kind, and conscious.

Organic food abounds. Chemical free clean pristine water, earth and sky. The sun and wind are harnessed in true solar fashion. Tesla's ideas and inventions of free energy being created with all walks of life benefiting.

People living in joy for hundreds of years if they choose, and when it is time to make transition, it is done with much joy and understanding of light evolution. Everyone...all life forms going beyond their Highest Divine potential.

We ask the Creator to fill in whatever we have left out to take manifesting Quantum Leaping the World into the Golden Age far beyond our dreams and imaginations into the Creators thoughts, wishes and dreams.

We ask that all who are manifesting the Quantum Leap be given all they need on all levels. Complete protection, and be put in bubbles of invisibility so they are hidden from the dark side. As this Divine idea flows outward, see all walks of life coming together in harmony and of one accord. Each person and group remembering their Divine Missions. What their parts are in Quantum Leaping the World into the Golden Age, and putting it now into action. Let all the Divine sleepers awaken to their Divine missions and Divine Purposes NOW.

As always, we put this in your hands - our Architect of The Universes and Divine Creators. Propel us into what your concept of the Golden Age is. We offer this work in service to the Creator, all life forms, the Earth, all Elementals, Cosmic Beings, my family and friends.

Inspire us, guide us into doing ... "Not our will but thy will be done."

May the Creator bring you all your hearts desires.

SO BE IT!

c. Prayer for Calming the Nuclear Accident of Fukushima, Japan

Let there be light! In the name of the presence of God, which I AM, through the magnetic power of the sacred fire vested in me, I COMMAND:

O my God, this enslavement upon me, I order to be removed. Enough of my sadness, of my pain, of my sorrow, that have weakened me so in fear. Open my mind. Let me know truth and let it be experienced; for I, that have been lost, desire to be found. From the Lord God of my being within, that which I am, unto this hour - be not flesh-weakened, be not Spirit-faint, be not mortal-humbled, I am, this hour, the lord God of my being.

I call to Michael the Archangel to cut all ties and binds, all nuclear Elementals have, with anyone who is trying to misuse them in any way. We send a very Divine, calm, peaceful, healing energy through all the Elementals that are out of balance. I order the very furious Elementals that have come from the earth, been battered and forced to become what they are now, nuclear reactors, to be shut down safely forever. I ask the Divine to guide this into manifestation.

In the mean time ... See these Elementals reconnect to the Creator, letting them know they are still loved. See them going back to their proper geometric shape that made them function as one unit.

Imagine arctic snow and air around the cooling containers as I bring down Divine, love, peace, calm, and the correct cooling energy that is needed to bring down the temperature.

I also ask that these nuclear plants and all Elementals that create a nuclear plant/reactor (machines, computers, everything electrical), start working together in Divine harmony, becoming very efficient, and running at perfect performance level.

I am also asking that the Violet Flame blaze (100,000,000 fold) through all nuclear fallout, letting that energy burn out through the flame, healing with Angelite, and now we reconnect every cell atom molecule in the radiation to God, filling them up with that High Divine energy. Now we COMMAND them to become neutral and totally harmless. I call to the Lord God and Goddess of the winds to keep the breezes to a very gentle breeze, flowing in a direction where no people will be hurt or harmed. Please keep all sea life away from this energy.

For those that have radiation sickness, I ask the Divine to give these beings special Divine grace ... Please Cancel and Clear whatever Karma they did to create this out of balance in them, and bless them for taking on this Karma for the earth. We call the Violet Flame through them on all levels - body, mind, and soul - to help them release all past, present and future Karma; cleansing and purifying every cell atom and molecule in the bodies, down to their DNA, and cleansing all radiation to light. I now surround them in the energy of the Angelite to heal them, and fill these beings up with the Creators Light. See this energy touching every cell, atom, and molecule in their bodies, going into their DNA, and reconnecting them to the Divine. As they fill up with this very high healing Divine energy, I see them becoming healthy again. I send this energy to those that need to be healed 24/7 until they are healed.

I ask Michael the Archangel to go and help those souls who have passed on in this disaster. As I cut their ties from anything on earth, I send them through the Violet Flame to clean up their energies and refill them up with Divine love. See the Angels escorting all these beings back to heaven, and see them becoming very peaceful. I send O Divine loving, calm, and peaceful, healing energy that will also Divinely inspire all those that are survivors, to help them stay reconnected to God, and be able to move forward.

To those lost souls that have created this disaster through the H.A.A.R.P., using any Tesla information, or have anything to do with nuclear ... I ask the Creator to awaken you and forgive you. I ask that you are now removed from all and positions of authority you now have ... And replaced with a Light worker. O my beloved Divine, help these lost souls, NOW! I also ask the karmic board and the Creator to send you your Karma back NOW! And multiply that return 10,000 fold. I ask that all your money ties and resources are now cut from you and your families, and redirected to all the light workers on the planet. I ask again that you are now removed from all positions of authority you now have ... And replaced with a light worker. I stand out of the way as your Karma is returned to you NOW!

I ask O Divine that this is a big wake up call for everyone the planet. See all humanity now rejecting anything nuclear. See all Tesla inventions, for FREE energy, now come to the surface as well as all new technology about wind, solar, and whatever else we need to use, to make us a real green planet. Implementing them NOW.

(This prayer can also be used to calm down the nuclear reactors all over the planet)

“Not my will but thy will be done.”

d. Prayer to Help the U.S. Awaken

Let there be light! In the name of the presence of God, which I am, through the magnetic power of the sacred fire vested in me, I COMMAND:

Let, there be a golden light energy descending down, into, and around all Domes, Obelisks, Pyramids, Kivas, Heiaus, temples, chapels, churches, and all sacred mountains and waters in the United States. Anchoring that energy down to the grids and lay lines. See this High Divine energy clearing the air in the wind, lay lines and grids, and reconnecting all this to the Creator.

See this energy descending down around and through the White house, Pentagon, and where the shadow government resides.

I, call to the Higher Selves of everyone, known and unknown, seen and unseen, in and related to the United States Government, to step forward into the Light, Now! We call the Goddess of truth into your lives, bringing all that you are doing up to the surface, in a way that the masses see it, and are Divinely inspired on how to correct it in a non-violent way.

I do decree that the Higher Selves of all politicians now be filled with a Divine Holy Spirit that will glorify and reflect the power, the beauty, and the Grace of God, for the good of all the people in the United States, and the Rest of the Worlds, so they start making Divine decisions now! If they choose not to, which is their free will, I ask their Higher Selves, spiritual teachers, and Guardian Angels, to put them in positions of total harmlessness, letting Light Workers take over their workplaces and duties. I ask that they are given lots of inspiration, information, and thoughts that they now want to retire from the Government positions and spend time in spiritual developments, with new understandings, environmental issues and their families.

I send grace, peace, and harmonious life energy to all the politicians that are involved with stopping war, everything nuclear, and standing up for the benefit of earth and all life forms. See them being Divinely inspired with new skills and paths, that will strengthen their wills and focus, to get positive action moving forward. I COMMAND all the Angels to enable this and give them and their families' complete protection.

I ask that all veils of darkness including the veils of war, greed, chaos, hatred, jealousy, fear, ignorance, gladiator mentality, and world dominance that is around anyone in the United states or anywhere in the planet Earth, that is keeping people from becoming conscious beings, be removed; and open their Divine brain, replacing it with a connection to their spiritual selves, becoming super conscious beings.

See the United States pull ALL militaries out of all foreign countries, NOW. See this being done with much happiness and joy for all people. I call to the Higher Selves of the members of the National Guard and military personnel, asking all overlays be removed from you so you too become reconnected to your Higher Selves, the super consciousness, and that you become awakened spiritual beings. As you awaken you see your family, friends, and relatives as people that you harmonize with, and start doing many acts of love and kindness for humanity. You start seeing people in your illusion in foreign countries as parts of your mind, your body and your family. The more acts of love and kindness you do, the more you fill up with this intense Divine Joy ... which places you in a space of humility and wanting to do more acts of consideration, love, and kindness.

Bring down all walls and veils allowing the power and truth to be lived. See Divine Light, Love, Peace, and A Divine Balanced Spiritual awakening descending down through the United States, NOW!

Extra Quantum Leap Power Prayers:

The power prayers in this chapter will help you take your creative energies and be very effective. These will quantum leap you from a beginner to an adept. We have tried to create a variety of power prayers that touch on many relevant challenges on the earth facing us today. You are not powerless, for these power prayers are giving you some great examples on how you can be very effective on the earth and with your families.

Please share any of these prayers with your groups, and know that you have our permission to reprint anything in this book.

Some of the material you may find being repeated, for a few prayers are whole manuals and I tried to be as complete as I could.

Weather and Earth Elemental Power Prayers

1. Manual for Working with Weather Using Creative Energy; Basic 101

Much of our weather is man controlled through many inventions that came from the inventor Tesla. However, machines are Elementals that can be broken down and put in a position of harmlessness. It is said "whoever controls the Elemental kingdom will control the world." I don't want to control the world. I am setting all these Elementals free from being abused which results in very harmful weather patterns. We are releasing these Elementals from being misused by their handlers. There is a little dictionary of words at the end.

Working with weather Elementals is easy.

I lived in Michigan, where in Feb., The radio stations had contests to see if you can guess how many minutes the sun will come out. Yes I said minutes ... sigh ... I had lots of practice doing these simple techniques.

a. How to Create Sunshine ...

All I did was imagine me picking up a big piece of cloud, putting it behind me, and seeing the sun shine through the hole. As you see the sun shine through, then imagine the clouds breaking up again creating clear blue sky. That's all you do and it works.

If you have a raging angry storm coming your way, imagine a big wedge in front of the storm. As the storm hits the wedge it breaks up and goes around you. Or put one big wedge in front, then off to the side, smaller wedges, so the storm will bust up into even smaller clouds and then see the sun shining through.

Before I do this I always ask for permission from the Creator to do this. Always adding at the end "Not my will but thy will be done" and "thank you for giving me this opportunity to serve".

SO BE IT!

b. Tired of Chemical Trails in the Sky? Try this creative prayer by Cathy Bilsky and anon.

We call to Michael the Archangel to take your sword of blue flame and cut all ties to all Elementals that create a plane/helicopter/jet anything that flies that create Chem. Trails in the sky anywhere on earth, and all the pilots that fly them. We call the Violet Flame to clean them up, the Angelite energy to heal them. As we reconnect all these Elementals to the Creator, we COMMAND them to break down, choosing not to hurt nor harm.

If they are in the air, we see all the planes having something not working correctly so the pilots must return to their point of origin safely. May the planes break down in ways where the pilots are not harmed.

We see all the chemical barrels leaking inside the planes (that are not commercial planes) and because the pilots are breathing the fumes they must return to point of origin, becoming so sick that they can no longer fly and must find other work.

We call to the Higher Selves of all repair techs to become dyslexic as they try to repair the planes. We COMMAND the Angels to move wires so they are disconnected, see metals bending and all engines not working properly.

We call to the Higher Selves of all the pilots to become conscious beings as we reconnect them to the Creator, awakening to the damage they are doing to the planet and all life forms. They begin to have thoughts of their families and friends being hurt by their actions and start refusing to fly. We ask their Guardian Angels to bring them better jobs that will put their skills to a Divinely constructive use.

See all these planes/ helicopters/jets/drones now being permanently grounded. As this is done, we have our blue skies with fluffy clouds back.

“Not my will but thy will be done.”

SO BE IT!

c. How to Create Rain.

I always ask for permission from the Creator to do this before I do the work.

I ask that whatever is the reason that drought is created (whether man made or magic made) it is cut from those sources. As the ties are cut I call the Violet Flame into the area to clean it up and the Angelite energy to heal, reconnecting all back to the Creator. I ask that there is a big drop in barometric pressure, pulling all clouds into the area. I call to any water Elemental in the area to now release moisture into the air. See clouds begin to form, getting darker and heavier as it fills with moisture. Imagine the clouds growing in size, getting darker, and now see it gently rain until there is enough rain to put the area back in balance. We want GENTLE, LOVING, KIND rain.

Always end with - Not my will but thy will be done.”

SO BE IT!

We are going to do more advanced work now.

I have written 2 power prayers to break down the H.A.A.R.P. Elementals. Use whichever works the best for you. The first is about how to do this work in a group and the second prayer is shorter and one you can say quickly.

d. Action Prayer to Cut Elementals Free from H.A.A.R.P. (Group Prayer)

I form a circle and in the middle of the circle I will put a crystal to amplify the groups' energy work. Whatever size you have will work fine. And the bigger the crystal the more amplification you will have. You can also put a picture of my big 1,000 pound earth keeper in the center and she will amplify your work.

However you normally open up a group meditation circle will work. I like to call to all the ancestors, Angels, Elemental Kingdom and Divine deities, Gods and Goddesses, to also join ... like Jesus and the rest of the Gang (Buddha, Kwan Yin, and Mother Mary etc.) He hangs out with. I also will close the opening circle so only that which is light may enter. Then I do a short meditation on Love so it fills us up completely, so everyone can raise their energy as high as they can.

I bring down God's Divine healing energy through the top of my head (crown Chakra), let flow through my body down my arms and out my hands, and I imagine I am forming a bubble of white light in the center of the circle above the crystal.

Whoever is speaking will speak while the others are pouring this energy into the bubble, amplifying their words. Whoever will speak should use the power of the spoken word (which is the basis of creation) ,` and the more feeling and intent and force you put behind your words, the quicker they will manifest.

In this bubble I place this action prayer.

I call to Michael the Archangel to come forward with your sword of blue flame to cut ties to all H.A.A.R.P. programs on the planet, wherever they are located, and cut all ties to every piece of equipment of the H.A.A.R.P program from whomever or whatever created you. No matter what material you are made off, rock, mineral, plant, animal or extraterrestrial based, anything.

As the ties are cut I call the Violet Flame through all the Elementals in the H.A.A.R.P. programs to cleanse and purify their energies of all negative vibrations they have taken on. See the Violet Flame transmuting and re-purifying this energy back to light. We fill them up with the energy of the Angelite to heal them. We now reconnect these Elementals to the Creator seeing them fill up again with God's pure Divine love.

Now we COMMAND them to be neutral, to not work, to break down, and to keep breaking down.

We ask the Angels to go forth and direct some of this energy to all the weak spots in the H.A.A.R.P. machinery and have permission to bend metal or move any loose wire that helps break the machines down. Doing so in a way where no one or anything will be either hurt or harmed. We ask that all computers connected to the H.A.A.R.P program start breaking down and all the information on them goes invisible as well with all the backup systems.

Surround all the electrical equipment with such high energy that anyone who goes around them can't function and goes dyslexic (just around the equipment.). Putting in wrong information and/or just being very forgetful. Unconsciously making mistakes in the H.A.A.R.P. program with every action. We also call to the Higher Selves of all people working on the H.A.A.R.P. in anyway, and ask that they now also become confused, forgetful, and dysfunctional, as soon as they enter the gates.

Imagine everyone starting to think all the H.A.A.R.P locations are haunted, finding reasons to transfer out of the program to programs that are beneficial to humanity or go into the private sector. Being replaced with a light worker or no one at all.

We again call to Michael the Archangel to take his sword of blue flame and cut the ties to all cars, trucks, company buses, helicopters or planes, to get to work. We call the Violet Flame through them to clean their energies up, and the Angelite energy to heal them and reconnect them to God. Now COMMAND all the vehicles to be neutral and keep breaking down till their owners decide to get another job that is not harmful to any life forms.

I ask it be also done for all the H.A.A.R.P. locations all over the world.

Never the less – “Not our will but thy will be done” ... Amen

SO BE IT!

Take a deep breath and release it to God and the Angels to take and put into use.

The more anyone says this action prayer and says it out loud, the quicker things will happen. Group energy really is the best, for now your energies are amplified x 10,000 by each person in the circle. The crystal will amplify it even more.

It is great if you all will make this part of your daily prayers, then when you meet as a group, say it and have everyone that is there really give it a lot of energy.

Then start paying attention to the news about the H.A.A.R.P. God will find a way to let you know you are being effective.

Violet Flame ... comes from within our hearts and is a very high vibration to use. (Violet color) When you call it forth it erases cause effect memory of Karma. It also transmutes dark energy to light, helping people, places, and Elementals to raise their energy and vibration.

I also use it when I am removing evil spirits from the planet. To help clean up their energies before I send them back to God.

If you have any questions please feel free to ask.

In service!

e. Blocking and Breaking Down the H.A.A.R.P. (Individual Prayer)

I call to Michael the Archangel, Ganesha the remover of obstacles, all the Cosmic Beings, and the Creator, to cut all ties to all artificial plasma in the atmosphere that was H.A.A.R.P./reptilian created, that creates a mirror. As we cut the ties to their masters, we call the Violet Flame through all the cells, atoms, molecules, and DNA of this plasma to clean it up, now we reconnect it all to the Creator filling it all up with Divine Love. We COMMAND it to be neutral and no longer function. See the plasma breaking up and neutralizing itself. Let it not be able to form any square or ring frequency patterns.

We place a mirror in front of this mirror to return all signals and frequencies back to the H.A.A.R.P. stations. As this is done we see all the H.A.A.R.P. equipment imploding on itself. All computers connected with the H.A.A.R.P. overloading with this energy that was sent back causing many overloads.

We also cut the ties to military buoys connected to the H.A.A.R.P. stations and their dark masters.

We COMMAND that all these buoys be contained in a circle of cement with a lead overlay to jam all frequencies, placing all these buoys in a position of harmlessness.

We COMMAND the goddess of truth to bring all knowledge up to the people that can put these H.A.A.R.P. facilities in a position of harmlessness.

As anyone enters these facilities we ask their higher selves let them become dyslexic and not be able to function.

Imagine all machines made out of any Tesla knowledge, that are being misused anywhere on the planet to change any weather pattern, breaking down NOW. We call to Michael the Archangel to cut them free with his sword of blue flame, cleanse them in Violet Ray, and reconnect them to Creator. Now we COMMAND them to be neutral and keep breaking down. Lets include all jets ,planes and helicopters creating chem. trails. See the sky returning to natural weather patterns.

We call to the Elemental Kingdom for help ... the rats, mice, red ants, spiders, snakes, centipedes, termites, wasps, bees , flies and any other small insects to go and reside in all the H.A.A.R.P. facilities, and create nests in all their electrical equipment including all computers, hard drives, water pipes, floors, ceilings and all walls.

As these H.A.A.R.P. facilities break down, we see everyone reconnecting to the creator, becoming awakened spiritual Divine happy beings - And the earth recovering.

f. How to Calm Hurricanes and Cyclones

The H.A.A.R.P stations are responsible for a lot of very harsh weather.

Let there be light! I call to Michael the Archangel and COMMAND you take your sword of blue flame and cut free the hurricane/cyclone energy that is manmade or created with any Tesla (H.A.A.R.P) information. As these Elementals are cut free from their masters, I send the Violet Flame through the wind/rain, cloud energy to clean them up, COMMANDING them to let their out of balance energy burn out through the flame turning into a harmless gentle rain, I send the Angelite energy to heal them, I now reconnect them to the Divine and now COMMAND them to be neutral. I ask Michael to take his sword and chop up these storm fronts and see them dissipating in love allowing a very gentle rain to come on land.

I call to Michael the Archangel, Ganesha the remover of obstacles, all the Cosmic Beings, and the Creator, to cut all ties to all artificial plasma in the atmosphere that was H.A.A.R.P./reptilian created, that creates a mirror. As we cut the ties to their masters, we call the Violet Flame through all the cells, atoms, molecules, and DNA of this plasma to clean it up, now we reconnect it all to the Creator filling it all up with Divine Love. We COMMAND it to be neutral and no longer function. See the plasma breaking up and neutralizing itself. Let it not be able to form any square or ring frequency patterns.

We place a mirror in front of this mirror to return all signals and frequencies back to the H.A.A.R.P. stations. As this is done we see all the H.A.A.R.P. equipment imploding on itself. All computers connected with the H.A.A.R.P. overloading with this energy that was sent back causing many overloads.

We also cut the ties to military buoys connected to the H.A.A.R.P. stations and their dark masters.

We COMMAND that all these buoys be contained in a circle of cement with a lead overlay to jam all frequencies, placing all these buoys in a position of harmlessness.

We COMMAND the goddess of truth to bring all knowledge up to the people that can put these H.A.A.R.P. facilities in a position of harmlessness.

As anyone enters these facilities we ask their higher selves let them become dyslexic and not be able to function.

Imagine all machines made out of any Tesla knowledge, that are being misused anywhere on the planet to change any weather pattern, breaking down NOW. We call to Michael the Archangel to cut them free with his sword of blue flame, cleanse them in Violet Ray, and reconnect them to Creator. Now we COMMAND them to be neutral and keep breaking down. Lets include all jets ,planes and helicopters creating chem. trails. See the sky returning to natural weather patterns.

We call to the Elemental Kingdom for help ... the rats, mice, red ants, spiders, snakes, centipedes, termites, wasps, bees , flies and any other small insects to go and reside in all the H.A.A.R.P. facilities, and create nests in all their electrical equipment including all computers, hard drives, water pipes, floors, ceilings and all walls.

As these H.A.A.R.P. facilities break down, we see everyone reconnecting to the creator, becoming awakened spiritual Divine happy beings - And the earth recovering.

“Not my will but thy will be done.”

SO BE IT!

g. Molecules that Eat Acid Rain & Radiation

Let's create molecules that eat radiation too!

I am asking the Creator to tweak and amplify some of these new molecules so they not only eat acid rain, but now they split and create a new molecule that eats all radiation too, turning it into something beneficial for us, all life forms, and the planet.

That's the new prayer ... short and to the point.

“Not my will but thy will be done.”

SO BE IT!

Since we are living in high radiation from Japan I am adding this prayer.

2. Prayer to Keep our DNA Healthy:

We call to the Higher Selves of everyone on planet earth, all life forms and ask for permission to do this light work for you.

I call to everyone's Higher Selves and ask that the Higher Self now allow all strands of everyone's DNA to reconnect and realign with the Divine with such a high healing energy that it will keep anything from affecting the DNA and mutating it for any reason. See all strands of everyone's DNA reconnect to the Creator allowing the DNA to keep its proper Divine shape, healthy and functioning. See all dark veils that are around our strands being cleansed by the Violet Flame and everyone reawakening to their Divinity and spiritual connection to the Divine.

As our DNA strands are being healed, we become healthier, and all our spiritual psychic abilities are opened and are enhanced with everyone integrating their abilities in a gentle kind way. Everyone is excited at their new found gifts using them joyfully in service for the planet and all living on her. People also using their new gifts to heal themselves and the Elementals, taking Divine creation to new heights.

See anyone and everyone in Japan (and anywhere else on the planet) who is now being affected by any kind of un-natural excessive radiation, being sent an extra veil of light to protect their bodies. See their DNA reconnecting to the Creator and send mass doses of healing energy that will help correct any possible DNA altering. Let this be a gentle, kind experience.

As everyone awakens, they realize that they can create heaven on earth, being given answers for all challenges on the planet. From neutralizing radiation on the planet, for God does not give us a challenge without giving us the answers to solve it, to healing the waters, air, ozone ... You name it, Divine creation working through us will heal it.

As our DNA is reconnected to the Divine, it also cuts all ties to anyone who has tried to genetically alter any life forms in any way, including all genetically modified food. See all our food supply whose DNA has been altered in any way also reconnecting back to the Divine, and being filled with such a high healing Divine energy, that all life forms are allowed to go back to their God created shape and function.

We ask that all other life forms, including all sea life, reconnect their DNA to the Creator and as all life forms reconnect, see them becoming healthier. We also see all other life forms being filled with an extra light energy to help protect them whether they are on land or sea.

I COMMAND that the Angels go forth to anywhere there are any Tesla/Vril machine that are being used to alter humanity in anyway, and cut them from their masters, filling them with the Violet Flame to clean them up, and Angelite energy to heal them. Now we COMMAND those machines to break down, miss-function, stop working, and to keep breaking down. I call to the Higher Self of anyone running the machines and ask that they become dyslexic around them. See all programs that have our genetic codes being scrambled and going invisible as we put lots of magnets on all the hard drives connected to these machines. See all these machines breaking down NOW!

"Not my will but thy will be done."

SO BE IT!

DEFINITIONS:

A group of black Tibetan magicians showed Hitler how to misuse the Vril energy and the sacred symbols. As well as a bunch of rich industrialists who were satanic practitioners. Satanic ... what does that mean??

Satanic: These are people who call in demons through the use of ritual black magic, chanting, sacred symbols and human - animal sacrifices and blood drinking. Let's put our attention on what they call in ... demons ... this is no joke!

Through ritual they have learned how to make rents and tears between inter dimensions allowing these demons to come onto the earth and yes we even have human demon possession. Some also call them the Reptilian factor. George Bush is such a good example. This is one man who operates from his Reptilian brain only. Demons/Reptilians feed off of fear energy.

VRIL energy: Energy that can be used to control the physical world, including minds and bodies of others, as well as to enhance the telepathic and telekinetic potentials of the mind. (You see many mind altering modalities being directed at us daily through microwave towers, ELF, H.A.A.R.P., Montauk Program, psychotronics, chemical trails, fluoridated water and genetics).

H.A.A.R.P.: Alaskan project created by ARCO, scientists, and Navy. (The mirror Force)

- The military can lift part of the upper atmosphere making it move and do things like:

- Distorting the ionosphere to disrupt global communication.
- Beams of electromagnetic power can lift portions of the upper atmosphere and redirect the jet stream to alter global weather patterns.
- Hard-kill weapon.
- Soft-Kill ... by directing enormous amounts of radio frequency energy at a specific area, H.A.A.R.P. could overload electrical power distribution of the grids.
- Scramble missile guidance.
- Upset our brain chemistry.
- Weather modification: Heating the upper atmosphere over specific areas can change weather patterns, creating torrential floods, Hurricanes, earth quakes, etc.
- Communication -- satellite jamming, satellite communication with subs and detection of stealth aircraft.

ELF: Navy program using extremely low frequencies to communicate with submerged subs and subliminal broadcasting. Works with H.A.A.R.P. and helicopter mounted high tech psychotronic equipment. This technology has been used to clone our emotions, returning them to us, the public, to effect and manipulate.

Montauk: Secret experiments done on Long Island including:

- Mind control
- Weather control
- Time manipulation ... tearing holes in the fabric of space-time that separates dimensions.
- Nazi and Alistair Crowley (satanic magician) created. [T? – should this be here?]

Tesla: Oct. 7th, 1865 to Jan. 1943. World renowned Serb-American inventor, physicist, mechanical engineer, and electrical engineer.

Regarded as the most important inventor in history; Inventor of the radio; Inventions have contributed to robotics, ballistics, computer science, nuclear physics and theoretical physics. Created the Directed - energy weapons, (this allows mad and crazy governments to create earthquakes and tidal waves ... The super weapon. Inventions also used at Montauk to change space and time.

Tesla coil - a category of disruptive discharge coils; Thought photography machine. After his death the FBI considered his papers to be Top Secret.

Now if you can make it through all of the above, we need to address this next issue which is the Reptilian Part of our brain.

We as a human race need to awaken to the fact that people have a reptilian heritage of the human body and its influence on our behavior. Scientist say that an R-Complex represents a core of the nervous system and originates from a "mammal-like reptile" that was once found all over the world in the Triassic period (205-240 million years ago). Evolutionary link between dinosaurs and the mammals. ALL mammals have this reptilian part of the brain ... and that includes us folks.

It is through the Reptilian part of the brain that Humanity is most controlled and directed.

At least 5 human behaviors originate in the reptilian brain ... In human activities they find expression in:

* Obsessive-compulsive behavior, * Personal day to day rituals and superstitious acts, * slavish conformance to old ways of doing things, * Ceremonial re-enactment, * All matters of deception, * and other traits of the R-Complex ... Territoriality (this is mine, get out), * Aggression, * the idea that might is right, winner takes all mentality, * Racism, * Aggressive, Violent sex, * Cold blooded.

WHEN WE AWAKEN SPIRITUALLY WE CONNECT WITH OUR DIVINE INTELLECT AND REFUSE TO ACT FROM OUR REPTILIAN SIDE.

So, what I gave you in the 'Prayer to keep our DNA healthy', is one way to counter their magic and help the earth evolve.

3. Healing the Water Elemental and All Sea Life

Dedicated to my dolphin and whale friends. This is a prayer I say every week in group.

Let there be Light! In the name of the presence of God, which I AM through the magnetic power of the sacred fire vested in me I COMMAND!

I call to Michael the Archangel and ask that all negative ties that the water Elemental has taken on be cut from them, transmuted by the Violet Flame and filled with so much love that the water Elemental reconnects to the Creator.

Now let's imagine this beautiful Divine healing energy coming up through the earth and flowing into all waters on the planet. As we focus on the ocean we see this healing energy recharging all plankton, then flowing into the coral reefs. As we send this healing energy into the coral reefs we ask the Creator to put the spark of life back into all the coral reefs on the planet. We now see all reefs coming back to life and flourishing.

As we send this healing energy through the waters we see it neutralizing all radiation, poisons, toxins and all pharmaceutical drugs that are in it. This healing energy is also helping the water circulate so it is at its perfect Divine temperature.

We see this healing energy neutralizing all out of balance sound including all sonar. We trace this sonar energy back to its source and cut the ties to all machines used. Violet flame them to clean them up, Angelite energy to heal, fill them up with love. As we reconnect them to the Creator we COMMAND them to be neutral by breaking down regularly or just stop functioning.

We now send a peaceful white noise through the oceans and all waters on the planet.

Let's imagine now all this healing energy surrounding all sea life and we see them all reconnecting to the Creator so they may fulfill their Divine missions and be healthy. We send out special telepathic thoughts to all sea life, dolphins, whales, sharks, mantas, etc. to be guided where the water sanctuaries are, to heal and be safe. We see the Violet Flame blazing through all sea life to help them transmute all chemicals they may have ingested all the way down to the DNA. As all sea life is reconnected to the Creator we ask the Creator to awaken all sea life's blue print for perfect health and put it into effect NOW!

Let's put our attention on the gulf of Florida or any water that has had oil and chemicals spilled in it. We ask the Mother Earth to release lots of micro-organisms that are needed to eat up the oil and chemicals that were dumped there. We see people being Divinely inspired with new thoughts on how to clean up the oil spills, that is very easy to do with no cost involved, using Mother Natures' gifts to clean up the mess. We ask that all who live there are filled with lots of strength, courage and Divine inspiration on all the natural ways they need to heal. May they receive all needed medicines for free, along with all the legal means to take the government and the companies responsible for this pollution to court, and win.

We again call the Violet Flame through these water areas to transmute all dark energy the water Elemental must mirror.

See lots of energy going through the north Atlantic current to keep it flowing so it will help our planet keep its perfect temperature.

I want you to now see thousands and thousands of huge bottles of clean pristine mineral water that are 10 miles high x 10 miles long x 10 miles wide and are inches apart from each other all over the oceans. Inside these bottles of pristine oxygenated water let's place all the minerals, plankton, kelp and whatever else the sea life needs to have to survive. See these bottles becoming sanctuaries for all sea life to go to.

WE NOW COMMAND THE WATER ELEMENTAL TO MIRROR THE BOTTLES OF WATER. WE SEE THE OCEAN CLEARING UP AND BECOMING HEALTHY AND VIBRANT AGAIN WITH AN ABUNDANCE OF FLOURISHING HEALTHY SEA LIFE.

We ask the Angels, divas, and all cosmic beings to keep all the radiation junk that is floating in the ocean (from Fukushima) off of all shores, and send it into a newly created black hole that will take it off our planet. NOW!

Placing an intention for Mantle Energy to be produced and used all over the world to heal and clean the issues of both human and earthy repairs, including all radiation challenges.

I call to the goddess of justice to wield your sword and to send those that created this mess, all the karmic return they deserve. NOW! I ask that their karmic return is amplified 100,000,000 fold. I ask that all their income is taken from them and sent to all the people they have harmed, for their health care, and to replace all lost incomes.

I see all government officials responsible for all cover ups receiving their just karmic dues NOW! Losing their jobs and going to prison. Replaced by a light worker that will be of service to all, compassionate with high integrity.

I see all magic keeping those responsible from being brought to justice being dissolved along with all energy veils of invisibility and protection. POOF! GONE!

“Not my will but thy will be done.”

SO BE IT!

4. Calming the Fire Elemental

We call to Michael the Archangel to come forth and cut all ties to whatever/whoever started this fire. We cut all ties that the Elementals have taken on and could not hold the energy of, so that they must burn it off through fire. As we cut the ties we call the Violet Flame through this fire and COMMAND the fire Elemental to now burn off its anger through the Violet Flame. We send the energy of the Angelite to heal the fire Elemental, now we reconnect the fire Elemental to the Creator and COMMAND it to now allow itself to become calm and neutralized. We also ask that there is a drop in barometric pressure that will draw rain into this area, see rain clouds forming and it gently raining.

We call to the water Elemental in this area (streams, lakes, ponds) to now release moisture into the air so rain clouds may form. We call to the Higher Selves of all that are trying to calm the fire down and ask that they are Divinely guided on what to do and where to put the water so the fire calms down. We see the water Elemental guiding them and the fire fighters having perfect accuracy.

We also call to the wind Elemental to now become calm.....

As the fire Elemental reconnects to the Creator, it now allows itself to become calm and neutral.

“Not my will but thy will be done.”

SO BE IT!

6. Prayer to Set All Elementals of War Free

In the name of the presence of God, which I AM, through the magnetic power of the sacred fire vested in me, I COMMAND:

That all Elementals of war such as guns, ammo, explosives, knives, bombs, land mines, trigger mechanisms, planes, drones, rockets, weapons, computers, gases, germs, satellites, electrical towers, microwave towers, bio genetics, sound waves, and voodoo effigies; Including all Elementals that are or will be used to manipulate into doing wrong (dolls, pictures, any personal item used with misintent), or any Elementals that are being asked to hurt or destroy any life (human or Elemental) on any level, be COMMANDED through the Sacred Triangle of Humans, Angels and Elementals to misfire, disintegrate, choose to malfunction, go off course towards inert objects, or generally be harmless and take the path of Love. Let Heaven reward greatly all Elementals that choose this path. (God Bless).

I call to Michael the Archangel to cut all ties to any black magician, secret societies, ET's, Bormann group, Jesuit's, the Illuminati, governments, militaries, and scientists that are trying to manipulate the Morphogenetic Grid or any grid or lay line on the planet, whether it is inside, on, or around the earth. We ask them to stop manipulating the Morphogenetic Grid by satanic ritual or any energy misuse of any kind, if they choose to continue, I ask their Higher Self and Guardian Angel to put them in positions of harmlessness, NOW!

We call to Michael to cut all ties to any machines and computers that are being used to do this including any Vril machines, Tesla related machines, the H.A.A.R.P./ELF machines, and any machine used at Montauk or any related facility. As we cut the ties we call the Violet Flame through these machines to clean them up and fill them up with Divine Love. As they recharge in God's energy we COMMAND them to break down and keep breaking down so they no longer function.

I also place many magnets on all computers connected to war. However, all nuclear computers will function perfectly until they are called on to fire, then let there be malfunctions so nothing will happen.

I call to Michael the Archangel to use his Sword of Blue Flame to cleanse these Elementals of war continuously from now on, so that when the time comes to endanger life, they will be cleansed and ready to make the right action. I direct the Angels to intercede and help these Elementals to take this path of love so they can release their energy harmlessly.

I call to the Higher Selves of all drone operators and I ask that they become conscious beings. As they reconnect to the Creator they see the results of their actions and now they refuse to hurt or harm. For those that choose to keep manning the drones, I ask their Higher Self to help them be dyslexic and short out as soon as they enter the work building.

I call to the Higher Selves of anyone responsible for de-activating landmines and bombs and I COMMAND that you are guided to be very efficient and accurate at what you do, that you will achieve perfection in your job. I COMMAND the Angels to oversee your safety. I call to all landmines and ask that you breakdown and become totally nonfunctional, allow yourself to be disarmed, hurting no one, and giving guidance to all that try to defuse you. May you Rust in Peace.

7. Mother Earth Regaining Dominance Over monsanto

NOTE: You will notice here and throughout this book, that ‘monsanto’ is not capitalized – this is intentional in order to help diminish the power of the corporation.

Mother Earth IS DOMINANT over anything created by monsanto and companies!
Mother Earth IS DOMINANT over anything created by monsanto and companies!
Mother Earth IS DOMINANT over anything created by monsanto and companies!

I call to Michael the Archangel to cut ties to all who created any kind of genetically modified anything on the planet, including all black magicians giving GMO life and energy to everyone working at any kind of monsanto facility, including all ETs, Reptilians, Reptilian hybrids, or humans. Cut ties from the thought of their GMO lab created inventions being dominant over all God created Elementals (including our food supply). This also includes whoever first thought of the idea - from the money backers, lab scientists, all helpers, techs, and secretaries, all the way down to the clean-up crew. See all oaths, vows, wishes, dreams, and any overlays connecting all of the above to each other being removed from each other NOW! See this energy between them being dissolved by the Violet Flame and replaced with the human traits of love, compassion, kindness, and a love for the earth. We ask that all who are trying to take GMO forward, to step forward in the light of God and choose to stop. Realizing, as they reconnect to the Creator, what they have done, and doing all they can to reverse the damage to the earth. If they choose to continue to do harm to the planet, which is their free will, I ask the Creator and their Guardian Angel to put them all in positions of harmlessness. We cut ties to all their money sources and funding redirecting it to all that are trying to save and help the earth heal.

I see everything connected to monsanto falling apart. EVERYTHING ON ALL LEVELS. Cars, planes, all farm and lab equipment, computers, GMO seeds and animals, all communication devices, all world domination plans, all law suits against any organic farmer ... Crumbling as we speak. See monsanto also being forced out of all government positions and blocked from phoning, lobbying or donating money to any elected official. See monsanto being removed from the FDA. See monsanto not only losing all military government contracts with their private army but also having to disband it. See all countries removing monsanto from their territories and making them accountable for what they have done.

SEE ALL COUNTRIES MAKING monsanto ACCOUNTABLE NOW!
SEE ALL COUNTRIES MAKING monsanto ACCOUNTABLE NOW!
SEE ALL COUNTRIES MAKING monsanto ACCOUNTABLE NOW!

I now call to the Creator, Cosmic Beings, Divas, Angels, and all life forms to join as one group to help us recharge all the Elementals - air, earth, fire and water that create our Mother Planet. I call to all crystals on the planet and ask that they now amplify the DMT (see note below for definition) of all plants and animal life forms allowing everything to reconnect to the Creator. As this happens, see all plants, animals, and all life forms remembering their Divine blueprint to perfect health. See Mother Nature remembering that SHE has dominance on the planet. See all plants becoming stronger as they reconnect to the Creator so NO GMO alteration can affect it. See Mother Nature regaining her strength as we also release her from all traumas she has taken on. Now see Mother Nature taking back the planet in a gentle kind loving way. See her natural God seed blowing on to all GMO crops and changing the GMO back to its natural state. We see all GMO seed dying out and refusing to grow. We call to the Goddess of truth to bring up to the surface where all the GMO crops are so they may be burned down and replanted with God made seed.

We now see everything GMO lose its resistance to Mother Nature and being overjoyed that it now can go back to its natural state.

We also send the planet healing energy to all fault lines that are in stress. We send the Violet Flame through those areas transmuting all built up energy in a gentle kind way or we see the earth gently ratcheting herself in many small movements. We ask that all earth quake prophecies are neutralized with stronger positive thought forms of calm and peace.

Mother Earth IS DOMINANT over anything created by monsanto and companies.
Mother Earth IS DOMINANT over anything created by monsanto and companies.
Mother Earth IS DOMINANT over anything created by monsanto and companies.

We give energy to all organic farmers ... May the Creator fill all their hearts desires ... Including attorneys who are Divinely inspired on how to win against monsanto. We see organic farmers being protected, and winning against monsanto becoming prosperous.

“Not my will but thy will be done.”

Power Prayers for Humanity

1. Prayer to Help our Children Awaken and Evolve

I call to the Higher Selves of all children worldwide and ask for permission to do this work for them.

In the name of the presence of God, which I AM, through the magnetic power of the sacred fire vested in me, I COMMAND:

I call to the Higher Selves of doctors, nurses and all those who help with the birthing of babies, and I COMMAND that you allow more love to come in at the time of birth. I ask that the doctors allow the baby and the mother time to bond in a positive way. I call to the Higher Selves of everyone who was born in a hospital or in an unloving environment and COMMAND that, as we speak, a bond of Divine Love flow between you and your birth mother. Let this flow of love send special healing, bringing your family and all families on earth closer. See Divine Love flow with all past, present and future birthings. That Cesarean sections be avoided whenever possible, preferring women to have gentle, loving, sacred and natural births. Let doctors become more conscious when cutting the umbilical cord, waiting until it stops pulsing, again letting the baby and mother have bonding time. If the baby is adopted let love bonding be done with the adopted parent.

We ask the Creator that all children be put under protective Light to prevent abuse, neglect and innocent harm, including war, alien abduction, terrorism, pornography, prostitution, satanism, hatred, and slavery. I now call on the Higher Selves of everyone who is thinking of acting on harming a child and I COMMAND that your Higher Selves take you into the Light and if you choose not to (your free will), that you be placed in a position of harmlessness before you can fulfill your deeds. I ask Meta of the Healing Ray to minister to these misguided Light beings and their victims. I call the Goddess of Truth to expose all pedophile, satanic, pornography, child soldiers and children slavery groups as well as protect the people that are bringing this knowledge to the surface. As these children are set free, see them being given all the love, mental, emotional, healing support that they need as they are integrated back into society. See villages and good loving homes open their hearts and homes to these children. I COMMAND that the adoption process be speeded up so parents of Light (good, caring people), can adopt quickly.

We ask the Divine to Clear all dark blocks and veils placed over all these children and replace with joy and self worth as they awaken to their Divine Mission and purposes. Let those around them see their gifts of music, art, song and be able to guide them down that path. We call to the Higher Selves of all children and ask that they be filled with lots of creativity and imagination as well as many joyful ways to express these gifts and talents. See all children hugging and being kind to each other.

We call to the Higher Selves of all teenagers and ask Michael the Archangel to come and cut ties to all military/satanic video games. We ask that the teens are reconnected to the Creator becoming awakened spiritual beings and stop playing the games of war. Let this be replaced with sports, music, art, reading, college, etc.

We call to the Higher Selves of all parents to also awaken and reconnect to the Creator with a greater understanding of how important it is to give their children “quality time”. See functional families forming.

We call to the Higher Selves of all military recruiters to leave our children alone and not be able to lie to them about military life. See all these recruiters and their work places along with all recruitment written propaganda material become invisible so they are no longer seen by anyone. See all military recruitment offices empty and no longer allowed on ANY middle or high school campuses. Let these teens be inspired on other paths other than military.

We ask that teachers and educational systems focus on the development of character traits, which are needed to bring in the Golden Age and that these traits are taught by way of example and practice. Imagine schools being used to promote and nurture all children’s self-esteem and creative expression and that all children realize that happiness and joy are their birthright. I ask that all students are encouraged in their studies of all subjects regardless of their gender, race, learning or physical disabilities. I COMMAND that all teachers who challenge or destroy a child’s Belief-in-Self be immediately shown the error of their ways and that their Higher Selves bring them forward into the Light. If they choose not to step forward they are put in a position of harmlessness.

I call for a change in the make-up of the faculty and staff of all schools so that all persons employed are Light workers. I call for a change in the curriculums of schools to include the development of each child’s natural abilities as a primary focus, and that right brain, intuitive abilities and skills be given equal coverage. I call for the activation of the Law of Divine Abundance to provide all schools with enough funds to hire and maintain the most qualified and compassionate teachers, nurses, psychologists, social workers and guidance counselors, as well as enough money for classes in art, music, theater, poetry, extracurricular activities and sports. I COMMAND that the most current textbooks and other learning materials be provided to all students and that a college education is provided for all who desire a higher education. That all children be provided a nutritious/balanced breakfast and lunch at no charge to the student or the family.

That when it is for their highest good, that all children who are homeless or runaways without shelter, be provided with a safe and clean one NOW. I call to the Higher Selves of all these homeless children and I ask that your Higher Self gently open and balance all your Chakras, leaving you open to the abundance and generosity that is inherent in the universe. Then instill in you the desire to stand up, be productive, and find your path.

I call for the immediate emancipation of all children that are in prison who are not being held for society’s or their own highest good; including anyone who has been imprisoned for speaking or living the Truth, or trying to awaken humankind to injustices. Also, those imprisoned to fulfill the self-serving plans of others, those whose sentences far outweigh the magnitude of their crime, and those falsely imprisoned or convicted for crimes they did not commit and all victimless marijuana crimes.

We ask that all prison officials (guards, wardens, police, probation officers, juvenile authorities, judges, lawyers, prison for profit corporations), to now step forward in the Light; allowing compassion, kindness, Divine service to come to the surface. If not, I COMMAND their Higher Selves and the Angels to put them in a position of harmlessness, letting a Light worker come forward and take control.

I ask that everyone be Divinely inspired to alternative, positive methods on how to help children in prison become productive, society members before and after they are released.

I call the Goddess of Truth into vaccinations and how harmful they really are. I call to the Higher Selves of all scientists, doctors and all healthcare providers to come forward in the Light of God, be truthful about vaccinations and their effects; if you choose not to, that you are put into a position of harmlessness. We send healing to all children who have been harmed by vaccinations. Let alternatives to vaccines be brought out immediately. We ask that the parents have courage to not give their child a vaccine and become aware of shot waiver forms at school and use them.

Let's fill our children's hearts with Divine Inspiration, Wisdom, Hope, Creativity and the Strength to go forward in positive enlightened quantum leaps.

"Not my will but thy will be done."

SO BE IT!

2. Prayer for Women

In the name of the presence of God, which I AM, through the magnetic power of the sacred fire vested in me, I COMMAND:

I call to the Higher Selves of all women on the planet, young, old, babies, and female babies in the womb. I call to Michael the Archangel and Shiva to cut all ties to patriarchy, slavery, prostitution, sexism, and women not respecting each other, cut the ties to fear of men and not being equal. Remove all soul memory of rape, incest, slavery, racism, and circumcision. Cleanse this energy by the Violet Fire into Light, and then fill the new space with Divine Inspiration, Wisdom, Hope, Creativity and the Strength to go forward in positive quantum ways. O Ganesha, remove the blocks that are keeping women from fulfilling their Divine Missions.

As this unwanted energy is removed see women hugging and supporting each other. See them receiving their Divine Missions and receiving all the abundance they need to be successful in all aspects of life. See women being respected, honored and supported in everything they do. See female babies being wanted, treasured and respected. See them receiving a full spectrum education that will allow them to fully pursue their interests and Divine Missions in life. See them as Presidents, Queens, and Goddesses and in full control of their countries. See Divine Matriarchy in action showing the very best of a society run by women and men together filled with love, honor, peace and the nurturing nature of the Mother for everyone on the planet including the planet herself being cared for. See women filling up with Divine Hope, Courage, Abundance, Family, Joy, Flexibility, Divine Mission and Divine Protection, Drawing their twin flames/Divine mate to their door. When they see each other, recognizing each other as the most precious of relationships – the twin flame/Divine mate. See them magnetize to each other now. See Ganesha removing all blocks that are in their way.

As they come together, see Earth raising up higher into the light, solidifying Divine Light, Peace, Family, Divine equality and togetherness on the planet.

“Not my will but thy will be done.”

SO BE IT!

3. Prayer for Men

A Prayer to Help Men Reconnect to the Creator.

We call to the Higher Selves of all men on the planet and ask for permission to do this work. In the name of the presence of God, which I AM, through the magnetic power of the sacred fire vested in me, I COMMAND:

I call to the Higher Selves of all men to open up a sacred space so they may step forward into the light allowing themselves to be reconnected to the Creator. Cut all the ties Michael the Archangel & Shiva to unbalance, fear of women, patriarchy, genocide, rape, pillage, plunder, incest, greed, power, gladiator mentality, military, war, might is right mentality, from their energy field, cells, atoms, molecules, all the way down to their DNA. Going backwards and forwards through all their incarnations. As this energy is released, I call the Violet Flame through them and all their works that are misdirected. Cut all ties to all dark satanic art and negative ceremonies that are being done to keep men in a stuck, patriarchal consciousness that allows them to manipulate humanity and the earth for greed and profit. As it is released, I call Divine Male/Female balanced consciousness to be enhanced in their hearts and God part of their brain, flowing through their bodies, touching every cell, atom, molecule, all the internal organs, including their DNA. May this integration be gentle, loving and kind.

I call to the Higher Selves of men to guide them to releasing all women slaves or anyone being used as slave labor (man, woman or child). Let us fill them up with Divine Respect for women, life, the planet and all life forms, organic or inorganic. See men's Higher Selves guiding them to accepting Divine Matriarchy and opening their heart, throat and crown chakras as they release all the old patriarchal thought forms that no longer serve ANYONE. As these centers open, see them being very balanced, loving, kind, generous, peaceful, supporting women and groups that are in the “Light”. Let men awaken to their Divine Missions, bringing a lot of fulfillment and comfort that they are doing their hearts callings which bring about feelings of peace and contentment.

Let men dream of all the past life times they had lived where men and women respected each other, treating each other with much compassion and kindness. Living together in harmony and bringing that loving energy into the physical, putting it all into practice in this current lifetime.

I call to the Higher Selves of all male groups that are suppressing women to step forward into the light, – if they choose not to step forward into the light, may the Angels and their Higher Selves put them into a position of harmlessness. I call to all the balanced men on the planet to speak out against this repression. Defend all women and come to women's aid on all levels. See all men, respecting the Goddess within, giving freedom and honor to all women. See men allowing women to be equal, Divinely conscious beings. We ask that the reptilian part of men's brains are closed down and the God brain is activated.– May the Goddess soften them to be gentle kind beings.

We ask that all ties and energy overlays to war and the glory of war be cut and removed from all men going backwards and forwards in time 100,000 generations. We cut ties to the military and its blood sucking energy on all men. As men (boys, young adults) awaken, let them see how wars are a waste of time, energy, resources, their lives, and refuse to co-operate, becoming peaceful objectors. See men unwilling to fight, go to any wars, or hurt or harm ANY person no matter the race, color or country. Let the Divine replace these thoughts with how they can earn their livings in other ways that bring them much joy. Let men now be divinely inspired to be entrepreneurs starting their successful innovating businesses.

We ask men's Higher Selves to help men get in touch with their hearts, their feelings, and their emotions, becoming a nurturing, kind, loving, caring, helpful, understanding and intuitive man.

We ask their Higher Selves to step in and help men find Quality Family Time with their kids and their spouses (male or female). We ask that men be guided to their twin flames or Divine mates, and when they meet, they recognize each other as twin flames/Divine mates (whatever their true partner is – male or female).

For all the balanced men, we ask that they be given much strength to be living, loving examples of men connected with the Creator. As we fill them up with extra Divine energy we ask the Creator to reward those caring men by sending them all their hearts desires.

If men choose not to come forward into the Light, we ask the Angels and their Higher Selves to put them in a position of harmlessness.

We send Divine positive movement and much gratitude for those who choose to keep evolving and growing in the Light of the Creator.

4. Clearing Hate, Racism and Fear from Our Planet

Let there be Light! In the name of the presence of God, which I AM, through the magnetic power of the sacred fire vested in me, I COMMAND:

I call to the Higher Selves of all men, woman and children whether reptilian, human or reptilian-human hybrid, to step forward into the light. I call to Michael the Archangel and Shiva to cut all the ties to unbalance, fear of anyone different, patriarchy, genocide, rape, pillage, plunder, incest, greed, power, gladiator mentality, military, war, might is right mentality, from their energy field, cells, atoms, molecules, all the way down to their DNA. Going backwards and forwards through all their incarnations affecting all ancestors past present and future. As this energy is released I call the Violet Flame through them and all their works that are misdirected. Cut all ties to all black art and negative ceremonies that are being done, and any will to manipulate humanity and the earth for greed and profit. As it is released I call Divine Male/Female consciousness into the reptilian part of their brain.

I ask the Creator to send down the energy of Love from the Pink Ray to be beamed down to all living things on earth and charge that the Angels and Goddess of Love instill in all reptilians – humans, the inner knowledge that we are all God and all one. Then with much Divine Love, transform all humanity to become loving, tolerant, nonjudgmental and non-racist. We ask that all persons with negative feelings or emotions towards others step into the Violet flame and then into the Light. Let all humanity embrace diversity and move into a future of Love and faith in God, themselves and each other. We send Divine Light to everyone's brains and hearts, extraterrestrial, reptilian and human.

I ask that the energy of racism be removed by Michael the Archangel, cutting the ties with His sword of Blue Flame, since the creation of the planet until now. Let this be trailed by the Violet Fire to transmute all back to Light. Let those thought-forms be replaced with Divine Love. I ask the Goddess of Truth into everything on the planet that is trying to hide racism and bring it up to the surface and protect those that are bringing the truth forward. That she brings forward all secrets and hidden agendas that the, Illuminati, Aryan nation, Antioch Baptist Church, KKK, Nazi Party, all Dark Politicians, skinheads, etc., are hiding or disguising regarding their practices. Let all energy veils be removed from humankind so the Divine may again come through. I COMMAND that all persons with negative feelings or emotions towards others, step into the Violet Flame and then into the Light.

I call Divine Light, Divine Wisdom and Divine Caring/Compassion to everyone's heart now, and direct that energy toward the reptilian part of the brain. I COMMAND Archangel Michael to cut all ties and soul memory to reptile/dinosaur energy. As the Light enters, changing all cells and atoms to Divine balancing, both male and female. See the Violet Flame blaze through the reptilian part of the brain, cleansing and purifying. Fill the brain up with Divine thoughts, raising all consciousness to Divine, letting kindness, caring and love come through now.

For those “stuck” beings, I ask the Creator to shut their reptilian brain down and activate the Divine God brain. We see these beings become an awakened spiritual being that now knows better than to hurt or harm any life form.

I call to the Higher Selves of all life forms and ask that they now see everyone as brothers, sisters, aunts, uncles, mothers, fathers, all one family.

Let the love flow.

“Not my will but thy will be done.”

5. Helping Veterans - from all Wars - Heal Body, Mind & Soul as we Help Them Reconnect to the Creator

I call to the Higher Selves of all war veterans, past present and future, who have been in a domestic or foreign war, and ask for permission to do this work for you. In the name of the presence of God, which I AM, through the magnetic power of the sacred fire vested in me, I COMMAND:

I call to Michael the Archangel and ask that you take your sword of blue flame and cut all ties to any energy these men and women may have taken on that is not theirs. Whether from family, friends, relatives, acquaintances, strangers, people they have worked with, fought with or fought against, any officer in COMMAND or any church official of any kind. This includes all world military's domestic and foreign. As this energy is removed from them like an onion skin we send it back to God. They fill up with their Divine essence.

I ask Michael to cut all ties to any reptilian dinosaur energy, secret societies, and organized religion. Cutting all ties to any oaths, vows, curse, hexes and rituals that may have been done to them or their family's going backwards and forwards hundreds of thousands of generations. Or anything they may have done consciously or unconsciously. Let this unwanted energy be peeled from them like an onion skin, sending it back to the Creator and these beings will fill up with more of their Divine essence.

I COMMAND Michael to cut all ties to any effigies that may have been misused against them in any war, foreign or domestic. Including anything they own, clothes, hair, picture, their name spoken, written or just thought of; or anything they have their energy on. As we cut the ties to these Elementals, I call the Violet Flame through them to clean them up, the Angelite energy to heal them and we seal them in the pink flame of love. COMMANDING them to be neutral or only emitting love.

I COMMAND Michael now remove all energy implants done to these men and woman due to black magic, black witch craft or Voodoo that could have carried over from any life time, past, present and future. See all this unneeded energy now being removed from all their Chakras or anywhere in their bodies that is out of balance. We now peel this energy off of them like an onion skin and send that energy back to the Creator. They fill up with more of their Divine healing essence.

I ask Michael to now come forth and cut all ties to patriarchy, genocide, rape, incest, slavery, prostitution, persecution, circumcision, removing any overlays that are trying to manipulate them keeping them from being connected to the Creator, healing themselves, being successful in all their Divine missions and being filled with Joy. As all this unwanted energy is removed from them that is keeping all these wonderful things from coming to them we send that energy back to the Creator and they fill up with more of their Divine essence. We see this Divine energy giving them all the Divine strength, will and inspiration they need to move their lives forward in Divine joy. See these veterans draw to themselves everything they now need to heal for free. Along with people, money, pro bono attorneys for any law suits they have wrongfully against them, or to help with rightful Government claims that are being withheld from them. We see them getting lots of good press in all Medias.

I call to the Higher Self of all veterans everywhere to reawaken to the knowledge and soul remembrance, of what it is like to be in perfect balance and harmony with your balanced masculine and feminine side, and of what it feels like to be connected with Divine Energy. In your mind's eye, see Light being added to all veterans DNA structures. See this change become a new/old soul memory changing inside Mother Earth's DNA structure as well. See this Divine Light being directed to everyone's heart and brains, especially the part of the brain that is reptilian, adding emotions and feelings to that part of all reptilian and human brains (Cosmos Wide); replacing the reptilian war/gladiator mentality with one that is reconnected spiritually.

I call to the Higher Selves of everyone on this planet and ask that, as a group, we petition to Helios and Vista that the Violet Flame blaze through earth and all humanity to erase the past, present and future karma created from the off balanced patriarchal warring energy. I call to Michael the Archangel to cut all ties and binds from all life forms, the Earth, Angels, Elementals and the unbalanced masculine energy. As all ties and binds are cut, see them being transmuted by the Violet Flame and see those empty spaces being filled with Divine Inspiration, Wisdom, and Divine Heart to function from. Replace this energy with balanced harmonious Divine female/male energy.

I COMMAND that this integration with all war veterans be gentle, loving and kind and let all apply this new energy in very practical ways. In your mind's eye, see this balance affecting all generations backwards and forwards, as a ripple of water flowing in harmony with nature. See a burst of Balanced Divine Energy affecting all incarnations on earth at once. See everyone's DNA cells, atoms and molecules raised to a higher vibration of Divine Light. Let each atom, cell and molecule in humanity and the earth be connected with the Divine Energy source creating Divine Balance

I call to the Higher Selves of all war veterans (past, present and future) to step forward into the light. I call to Michael the Archangel and Shiva to cut all the ties to unbalance, patriarchy, genocide, incest, greed, power, gladiator mentality, war, violence, rape pillage and plunder of earth and all life forms including women. Cut ties to all reptilian energy, any connection to the God and Goddess of war, chaos and destruction. Cut all ties to all oaths, vows, they have taken with each other. As all this energy is cut and removed from them we also ask that their reptilian brain is shut down and the Divine God brain re-activated. See this unwanted energy released from their energy field, cells, atoms, molecules, all the way down to their DNA going backwards and forwards through all their incarnations. As this energy is released I call the Violet Flame through them and all their works that are misdirected. Cut all ties to all black art and negative ceremonies that are being done to keep veterans weak and confused. As all this unwanted energy is removed, all war veterans are now reconnecting to their Higher Selves and becoming awakened spiritual beings. See them very excited as they are being given their Divine missions and purpose.

Let them fill up with Divine Respect for all walks of life.

I call the Goddess of Truth to step into everything that the military does and into any secrets that are harmful to a veteran in any way or on any level. I COMMAND that all experiments that they are trying to hide, and those being experimented on, be brought to the surface in a way that NO person will be harmed. Let the truth come forward and let those being experimented on be cared for and justly compensated. I call to the Higher Selves of doctors and all health care providers or workers caring for these war veterans and I COMMAND that you be Divinely inspired to the cures, the proper medicine and treatment that can be given to body, mind and soul to help them heal. Let the Divine treatments and all the sources needed come to the surface now. I ask that everyone who has been mistreated or experimented on be guided to the medicines or treatment they need to get well for free. I call to Ganesha and ask that you remove all blocks and energy overlays and bring the Divine treatments, and all the sources needed, to the surface now, permitting people to discover the cures and that the people needing treatments receive them for free, not having to wait to be seen by any kind of doctor that they need.

I ask that all war veterans who have taken on radiation or any other harmful chemical agent that they now carry in their bodies be surrounded in the energy of Angelite, which helps release all aches and pains. I ask that Michael cut the ties to all karma they took on and is now making them sick. I call the Violet Flame through them to clean up their cells, atoms, and molecules, going down to their DNA. We COMMAND all the sick cells to mirror the healthy cells with the rest gently eliminated through the natural waste release of the body fluids. We also ask this of any family member they may have unconsciously been contaminated, including all wives, husbands, partners, and children. We surround all their unborn children with extra healing and everything they need to be healthy while being carried in the wombs creating healthy births and children.

We call to the Higher Self of all vets who are contemplating suicide for what they have witnessed and/or participated in willingly or not. Or have come back from war to not be able to function within their family unit, creating much hardship for all. We ask Michael the Archangel to cut the ties to these war thoughts and we call the Violet Flame to transmute all out of balance energy you are holding in your minds and bodies, reconnecting you to the Creator. As that Divine energy flows back into your body, you are filled with a loving forgiving Creator energy that releases you from what you have done. This now allows you to start looking forward at all the new possibilities you have in your life to be of service to others. This brings you much joy that you can help someone by passing on a kindness to someone near and dear to your heart ... Or a stranger.

As all war veterans reconnect to the Creator, their child within is given the Divine spark of life to bring it back to their conscious mind, creating such a great joy that flows outward from them to all their families and friends. This creates a new functional family and life.

You now see all people as your family, friends, aunts, uncles, sons and daughters and lay down your weapons, choosing not to hurt or harm anyone or yourself. We ask the Divine to awaken your spiritual being allowing love, compassion, kindness, caring, peace and Divine love to flow through your body, mind and spirit; again, being given your Divine missions and purposes.

We call to the Higher Selves of all war veterans and their families. I ask that their Higher Selves get together for a little group meeting on the Etheric Plane with everyone putting their egos aside so everyone can communicate with much love, compassion and understanding. Let this be brought down into daily conversations that use words that are gentle loving and kind. From the hearts of all war veterans, see a light flow from the heart to each one of their family members, allowing for a reconnection through love. Creating a peaceful functional family life that is full of joy and service to others.

See more veteran's mental health groups forming with full funding from the government or outside donations from caring funders.

It is good to give our current military force some attention now too. Working with the all military's to help them reconnect to the Divine Creator.

I call to the Higher Selves of everyone in all military's foreign or domestic to help you step forward in the Light, reconnect with the Creator, and become conscious beings. See all protesters as your family, friends, aunts, uncles, sons and daughters and lay down your weapons, choosing not to hurt or harm anyone.

I call to the Higher Selves of everyone in military's worldwide and I COMMAND that you be Divinely Inspired in ways of stopping and preventing war and to put your energies toward more humanitarian efforts. That all research and manufacturing of all nuclear, electromagnetic, laser, microwave, star-war type, chemical, biological, germ, sound or other scientific warfare is immediately halted and dismantled. I call to the decision-makers of the military worldwide and everyone in the military and COMMAND that you come forward into the Light. If you choose not to work for humankind that you're Higher Selves and the Angels put you in a position of total harmlessness and that a Light worker take your place ... Or no one at all.

We ask the Divine to awaken your spiritual being allowing love, compassion, kindness, caring, peace and Divine love to flow through your body, mind and spirit.

We ask your Higher Selves to help you become conscious beings able to see clearly all military commands that are given, with the courage to refuse - bullets, not kill, or hurt or harm any living being. Refusing to go on kill missions, for you now see everyone as family. Refusing shots. We send all of you lots of Divine courage to refuse to be redeployed. You are all supported by your family and friends for these conscious decisions. If you choose to go AWOL and not go back and fight, may you all be invisible to all military and police authorities, able to hide in plain sight.

We call to all the Elementals of war you use, cutting them free from your misuse, cleansing them with the Violet Flame, and reconnecting to the Creator. And COMMAND the Elementals to be neutral. To misfire, not work, go off course and choose not to hurt or harm any life form.

May Divine-peace-calm-brotherhood-enlightened inspiration, for putting together a balanced government, descend around every one NOW ... and continue to flow 24/7 365 days a year.

7. Short Prayer to Zero Out the Bank Accounts of Corporations and Utility Companies that are Stealing Money from the 99%

Imagine the bank accounts of all energy companies, phone companies, cable companies zeroing out. See zeros when you look at their balances.

Imagine all large real estate companies, companies who exploit the land, as also having bank accounts at zero. Lots of zeros. They are now too broke to build.

Imagine the IRS as going broke. All zeros in their accounts. Imagine bankers, people who manipulate the stock market, people who play with imaginary money every day - imagine their bank accounts at zero - all zeros. Anyone who is now stealing from the poor faces bank accounts of all zeros.

Empty accounts ... All of them.
See the money going to all Light workers.

Manual to Calm Down the Radiation Leak in Japan Using Divine Energy

This is a Manual that can be applied to any nuclear accident. I tried to be very thorough and complete in putting together the most complete power prayers so when you make the effort, you can be very effective using your creative energies.

The radiation from the nuclear reactors in Japan has not stopped putting radiation into the air and sea. The radiation has gone around the world a few times resulting in the fact that we are all being affected as you read. Some more than others. It breaks down to the reality that we have all been radiated. So many people have asked me what they should do. How can they have any possible positive effect on Japan? So they just stopped thinking about it. Sigh ... out of sight out of mind. Whether you give the radiation accident any attention or none at all, it is still happening.

You really need to give this some of your attention. Why? Look at your family ... your friends ... that's why. We are all family living on this island earth.

I have compiled all my writings that I have been Divinely guided to share with everyone throughout the past months, to create a short manual so you can stop doing the OMG (Oh My God) there is nothing we can do thoughts and put your creative energies to great use.

I would suggest that you read through the whole manual to see which power prayers resonate with you the most, put them on a separate sheet of paper, than read them once a day ... OR ... Read a prayer a day ... OR ... Make up your own prayers to calm down the reactors, from Fukushima.

Just give it some attention. Don't ignore it thinking it will just go away. Through group energy, putting our minds to creative use as one, we can make a change.

This will happen through the use of group energy. There are many prayers here which address many levels of the accident. If it resonates, please share and pass this info on to others. If you don't have time for it all, just pick one prayer to say daily. The radiation leak has not stopped, so until it has, please give Fukushima attention. All our lives, along with our planet, depend on it.

This manual can be used anywhere in the world by anyone that is dealing with a nuclear accident. I offer it to everyone to give you a new possibility of what you can do with your creative minds. I have tried to make this as easy as possible.

1. A Dear God Prayer to Help Calm the Nuclear Challenge in Japan. A Prayer for the Elementals that Create the Nuclear Reactors

In the name of the presence of God, which I AM, through the magnetic power of the sacred fire vested in me; I COMMAND:

I call to all the Elementals that are creating this nuclear challenge, air, earth, fire, water, wind, all metals, all misshapen Elementals, to feel our love for you. We know you did not choose to become what you are now. Because of our love for you, we call to Michael the Archangel to come forth and cut all ties to that which created you and anything that is trying to amplify this challenge, making it worse. As the ties are cut, we now call the Violet Flame to blaze through you 100,000,000 fold. We COMMAND all these Elementals to now let their anger burn out through the Violet Flame. As the Violet Flame blazes through every cell, atom, and molecule transmuting all negative energy you had to take on and become; see the Violet Flame cleanse and purify helping the Elementals release all their anger through the flame.

As the Violet Flame is helping the Elementals transmute their energy from dark to light/love let us now put our attention on ...

I call to the Higher Selves of everyone on earth that is sending any energy to help calm the nuclear challenge in Japan asking permission to work with all their energy and create one huge group energy.

Imagine a beautiful bubble of healing energy forming now over all of Japan and the nuclear reactors.

See everyone's energies join together creating this mass group energy of light that is now being directed into this bubble that is holding the energies in, which amplifies the healing even more. This energy is such a high healing vibration that is sending the Elementals what they need to calm down and work in harmony with each other again.

As all our energies are combined we now call to all the living Masters and all Light Magicians on the planet ... The Angels and the Creator know who they are for there are too many for me to name. As a group, I ask that they add their Divine energy to the healing bubble over Japan. Let their energy now also be amplified 100,000,000 fold.

We call to all the Diva's and highly evolved Elementals to step in and help these Elementals remember the shape they should now be in.

We now call to the Creator and whatever God, Goddess, Highly evolved being that you work with, to please step in. Help us calm the nuclear reactors down. If humanity has any Divine graces coming, let us draw on that karma now and ask it be applied to calming and stopping all that is nuclear.

See all this High Divine healing love energy now combine and flow into the bubble. Imagine the Elementals feeling all this love, remembering that they are on the planet to mirror beauty.

We ask the Elementals to now work and guide anyone who is trying to repair all the reactors allowing themselves to be repaired. See all these people becoming Divinely inspired on how to solve any problem that arises quickly, efficiently and safely. See humans, Angels, and deities working together in harmony to calm the reactors down.

Any life form that has been affected by any kind of radiation, we ask that their DNA strands are now reconnected to the Creator filling them up with so much light that their DNA becomes and stays healthy.

GOD ... We are asking for a big miracle here. We are united in Love. You see the planet becoming a free awakened planet and we would love to continue to grow in that light. The planet is asking for Divine intervention. Give us a chance to keep growing and evolving into the Higher consciousness you dream for us to become ... We are evolving ... send us your grace and wisdom we need to clean up the nuclear mess. We are open to receiving your guidance. We ask that you also fill this bubble of light over Japan with your healing grace anchoring the energy of heaven to earth.

Really God we are all open to any suggestions you want to give us ... we are all open to receiving your Divine words and willing to put them into Divine action. Bring us all we need to overcome this challenge. Didn't you say that for every challenge there is a solution? Please bring it on.

As always ... "Not our will but thy will be done."
SO BE IT!

2. Cutting Ties to Armageddon And Anyone Trying to Manifest Armageddon on the Planet

I call to Michael the Archangel to come and cut ALL ties to anyone trying to manifest Armageddon, WW3, or any dark energy that is amplifying doom and gloom or the end of days. Cut all ties to all prophecies that are of this nature. As those ties are cut, we Violet Flame through this energy from now to the very beginning of its beginning creative thoughts; starting From before the time of Atlantis through the burning of the great library in Alexandria to creating any and all religions that want to control the masses using religion as a weapon. As the Violet Flame blazes through this energy see this energy being released from all it has attached itself to, being replaced with balanced enlightened thoughts that turn toward joy as they have this glorious reconnection to the Divine.

See this Divine High energy now being stronger than dark and everyone on the planet feeling this light, making decisions that an awakened spiritual being would make. See the masses quantum leap with Divine knowledge and act now in harmonious love. As all the masses reconnect to the Creator, see them being given all their Divine missions and purposes on how we are now going to save the planet. See people getting excited for all the Divine answers they need to stop the nuclear challenge in Japan and anywhere else on the planet. This is joyful for everyone. The Divine is manifesting on the planet NOW! Heaven on earth is manifesting on the planet NOW!

See Divine high energy thoughts now flow telepathically out to the masses and all life forms. See this energy being passed to each other like a torch, as we do acts of kindness for each other. See the prophecy of light being amplified and the planet Quantum leaping far into the golden age.

We call down the light of the Creator to descend down to the planet and all life forms

NOW!!!

We call down the light of the Creator to descend down to the planet and all life forms NOW!!

We call down the light of the Creator to descend down to the planet and all life forms NOW!!

“Not my will but thy will be done.”

3. Neutralize Israeli Computer Virus that can Shut Down any Backup Systems to any Nuclear Plants

The Israelis invented a computer virus that will shut down all emergency backup systems to all nuclear power plants - It's called "Stuxnex". See this virus being cut free from their masters, cleansed by the Violet Flame, and reconnected to the Creator. Now we COMMAND it to be neutral and to not function when called to. See all pin drives that activate this virus not working and constantly malfunctioning. See this virus not ever working.

“Not my will but thy will be done.”

SO BE IT!

4. Calling Down Dirt Over Leaking Reactors

Calling down the energy of dirt around all the reactors in Japan using the power of the spoken word.

Using the Power of the spoken word, go outside and shout out this prayer to the universe as loud as you can and put lots of feeling in it.

EMERGENCY LIGHT WORK! We call down from the Creator, very heavy dirt energy to descend down and entomb all the nuclear reactors in Japan. See them completely buried in this very heavy dirt energy. See this manifesting in the physical NOW. We cut all ties to all greed that is keeping this from happening.

Heavy dirt descends down NOW!

Heavy dirt descends down NOW!

Heavy dirt descends down NOW!

We now send a cooling energy through the dirt to keep everything cool. We thank the dirt for allowing us to use it in this Divine service. Blessings to the dirt Elemental. Blessings ... Blessings ... Blessings!

On top of the dirt, see a layer of cement 5' thick. Then a 5' layer of lead on top of the cement with another 5' layer of cement on top of that encapsulating it all in another 5' layer of lead.

We call the Violet Flame through all the nuclear radiation asking that it burn out all the angry energy through this flame neutralizing itself.

“Not my will but thy will be done.”

SO BE IT!

5. To Help Calm the Earth Around Japan

Start sending the Violet Flame through where ever any earth quake energy build up will be ... God knows ... and ask that the negative trapped energy now burn itself out through the Violet Flame. Then send the healing energy of Angelite through that area. Now fill it up with Gods Divine love and see this space reconnecting to the Creator becoming one with the Creator. Now we COMMAND that area to be neutral ... Seeing all the energies gently dissipate. Calming down ... Calming down ... Calming down ...

“Not my will but thy will be done.”

SO BE IT!

6. Prayer for Those Who Are Repairing Japans Nuclear Reactors

Let there be light; In the name of the presence of God, which I AM, through the magnetic power of the sacred fire vested in me. I COMMAND:

I call to the Creator and all Divine Beings of light and I ask that special grace be given the people that are doing the repair work on the nuclear reactors. I ask that any negative karma they have lingering around them be transmuted by the Violet Flame. I ask that the grace they are earning by doing this dangerous job be enough to earn them good health now and in the future. See this good karma coming back to them NOW. We COMMAND the Angels to give them extra shielding from any radiation that can harm them. We ask that all these beings be given all the energy they need to complete their jobs safely and very efficiently.

We ask that all the nuclear Elementals now work with these people and help them do their jobs quickly and safely. See Angels, humans and Elementals working together in Divine harmony to get the nuclear reactors working in Divine harmony until we can shut them down safely. As we send Violet Flame and love to the radioactive material, we ask the radioactive material to become non-lethal to any people while they are doing the repair work and afterwards.

We imagine them being completely surrounded in the energy of Angelite which gently releases all their aches and discomforts. Any place in their bodies that may be exposed to radiation we ask that a very high healing energy come down from the Creator to touch every cell, atom, and molecule in their bodies, going all the way down to their DNA, correcting anything that is becoming out of balance and healing it - from now on and for the rest of their lives.

These people are all Angels doing Gods' work, giving the world a miracle we were all praying for. May they be given everything they and their families need to live their lives in much comfort for taking on this mission. See all countries honoring these people for their bravery and acts of selfless courage.

We send the Violet Flame through any air borne radiation coming from Japan asking it transmute all energy that is harmful to light. We reconnect every atom and particle back to the Creator filling it up with so much love that it changes to something now beneficial to life. See the winds calming down and the radiation going in a direction that will harm no life form

As people awaken to the dangers of nuclear, they refuse to allow any more nuclear plants of any kind be built, all other working plants be safely deactivated and closed down. See every politician who still wants nuclear, being removed from all positions of authority, and replaced with a person who wants green energy through solar, wind, or water.

We ask the Creator to fill the entire crew of repair people up with so much Divine loving energy that they are put in a place of bliss; functioning at a high super awareness, completing their jobs safely.

But never-the-less, O Divine ones, Not my will but thy will be done.

“Not my will but thy will be done.”

SO BE IT!

7. Helping the Nuclear Misshapen Elemental Calm Down and Reconnect to the Earth

Now the challenge is how to calm these very angry misshaped Elementals that are forced to become nuclear and very harmful. I ask Michael the Archangel to cut ties to whatever/whoever created them and fill them up with the energy of Angelite to heal. Now we reconnect them to God and let them fill up with that Divine Creator energy. We ask that they also reconnect to the earth herself, and as they reconnect to the earth let them fulfill their missions with her. Example: the Uranium is used by the earth to help receive information ... and now is Commanded to be pretty dark. See the uranium in its new form being able to feed the earth information as before, and still do their new jobs. As these Elementals become happy they start to calm down, working in harmony with each other. See a very cold cooling energy descend down into the core and rods. See this energy bring the temperature back down to levels that can be worked with.

We ask all these Elementals to now let us work with them and help them function in harmony. We ask that the Elementals and Angels to guide all humans working on the nuclear reactors so they are Divinely guided as to what to do to correct all the problems efficiently and safely.

We call to the water Elemental to now help us cool the reactor down. See all pipes being very solid with no holes, so the water will stay inside the cooling system.

Again we ask the Angels to guide the winds so any radiation blows in a direction where no one will be hurt or harmed. We see the radiation going into a black hole and the Cosmic Beings neutralizing it, creating fresh clean un-radiated unpolluted air. We COMMAND the Angels to get the wild life out of any contaminated ocean area. See invisible walls going up keeping the dolphins, whales, and all sea life out of this contaminated area and in safe zones.

SO BE IT!

8. Imagining Lots of Miracles, Miracles, Miracles

Imagining lots of Miracles happening ... See miracles happening ... Miracles abound ... Focus on Light.

Don't stop doing the light work and prayers ... Keep focusing on the light. Keep sending the Violet Flame through the nuclear reactors and the radiation. Send Arctic cold air energy to surround the nuclear plants, the rods and cooling system.

Keep sending those nuclear reactors lots of love. I call to Sai Baba, Prem Baba, Kwan Yin, Buddha, Jesus, Mother Mary, Ammachi, Karunami all the Gods and Goddess of light past, present and future, and all high energy beings to help us calm the nuclear plants down now. Give planet earth some grace and a miracle. NOW See the planet receiving this grace and lots of miracles NOW!

I send Divine peace, calm, cold healing energies around the nuclear plants 100,000,000 fold.

See miracles happening ... See the Heavens and all Divine beings working on this challenge we have helping us in all ways.

We call to the Creator, and all masters, guides, Gods and Goddesses, extraterrestrials, Jesus, Mother Mary, Buddha, Mohammad, Whoever you pray to, to help us manifest lots of miracles NOW stopping the nuclear reactors from exploding NOW.

Miracles are happening, see miracles happening, get excited over all the miracles happening.

Miracles in your life, your families' life, for the planet ...
Miracles are real ... See them all around you.

MIRACLES, MIRACLES, MIRACLES, MIRACLES ... NOW! NOW! NOW!

9. Prayer for Calming the Nuclear Accident by Cathy Bilsky & Dr. James Wong
Let there be light! In the name of the presence of God, which I AM, through the magnetic power of the sacred fire vested in me I COMMAND:

O my God, this enslavement upon me, I order to be removed. Enough of my sadness, of my pain, of my sorrow, that have weakened me so in fear. Open my mind. Let me know truth and let it be experienced; for I, that have been lost, desire to be found. From the Lord God of my being within, that which I am, unto this hour - be not flesh-weakened, be not Spirit-faint, be not mortal-humbled, I am, this hour, the lord God of my being.

I call to Michael the Archangel to cut all ties and binds, all nuclear Elementals have, with anyone who is trying to misuse them in any way. We send a very Divine, calm, peaceful, healing energy through all the Elementals that are out of balance. I order the very furious Elementals that have come from the earth, been battered and forced to become what they are now, nuclear reactors, to be shut down safely forever. I ask the Divine to guide this into manifestation.

In the mean time ... See these Elementals reconnect to the Creator, letting them know they are still loved. See them going back to their proper geometric shape that made them function as one unit.

Imagine arctic snow and air around the cooling containers as I bring down Divine, love, peace, calm, and the correct cooling energy that is needed to bring down the temperature.

I also ask that these nuclear plants and all Elementals that create a nuclear plant/reactor (machines, computers, everything electrical), start working together in Divine harmony, becoming very efficient, and running at perfect performance level.

I am also asking that the Violet Flame blaze (100,000,000 fold) through all nuclear fallout, letting that energy burn out through the flame, healing with Angelite, and now we reconnect every cell atom molecule in the radiation to God, filling them up with that High Divine energy. Now we COMMAND them to become neutral and totally harmless. I call to the Lord God and Goddess of the winds to keep the breezes to a very gentle breeze, flowing in a direction where no people will be hurt or harmed. Please keep all sea life away from this energy.

For those that have radiation sickness, I ask the Divine to give these beings special Divine grace ... Please Cancel and Clear whatever Karma they did to create this out of balance in them, and bless them for taking on this Karma for the earth. We call the Violet Flame through them on all levels - body, mind, and soul - to help them release all past, present and future Karma; cleansing and purifying every cell atom and molecule in the bodies, down to their DNA, and cleansing all radiation to light. I now surround them in the energy of the Angelite to heal them, and fill these beings up with the Creators Light. See this energy touching every cell, atom, and molecule in their bodies, going into their DNA, and reconnecting them to the Divine. As they fill up with this very high healing Divine energy, I see them becoming healthy again. I send this energy to those that need to be healed 24/7 until they are healed.

I ask Michael the Archangel to go and help those souls who have passed on in this disaster. As I cut their ties from anything on earth, I send them through the Violet Flame to clean up their energies and refill them up with Divine love. See the Angels escorting all these beings back to heaven, and see them becoming very peaceful. I send O Divine loving, calm, peaceful, healing energy that will also Divinely inspire all those that are survivors, to help them stay reconnected to God, and be able to move forward.

To those lost souls that have created this disaster through the H.A.A.R.P., using any Tesla information, or have anything to do with nuclear ... I ask the Creator to awaken you and forgive you. I ask that you are now removed from all and positions of authority you now have ... And replaced with a Light worker. O my beloved Divine, help these lost souls, NOW! I also ask the karmic board and the Creator to send you your Karma back NOW! And multiply that return 10,000 fold. I ask that all your money ties and resources are now cut from you and your families, and redirected to all the light workers on the planet. I ask again that you are now removed from all positions of authority you now have ... And replaced with a light worker. I stand out of the way as your Karma is returned to you NOW!

I ask O Divine that this is a big wake up call for everyone the planet. See all humanity now rejecting anything nuclear. See all Tesla inventions, for FREE energy, now come to the surface as well as all new technology about wind, solar, and whatever else we need to use, to make us a real green planet. Implementing them NOW.

(This prayer can also be used to calm down the nuclear reactors all over the planet)
I ask the Angels to help everyone that suffered in this nuclear threat to be awakened, and cut all trauma the earth is going through. As this is done we call the Violet Flame through the Mother Earth to help her gently transmute all dark energy. We send lots of Divine calming, peaceful, healing energy into the Mother Earth, filling her up with lots of Divine love as she reconnects to the Creator.

We also see all H.A.A.R.P programs breaking down NOW. We place magnets in the shape of tiny pyramids all over their computer hard drives ... All of them, including the backup systems, thus erasing all stored information.

But as always, O Divine Creator ... "Not our will but thy will be done."
So Be It!

10. How to Cleanse from Radiation Poisoning

Everyone can use these few suggestions. I have gotten some liquid iodine for the thyroid. This can help you not absorb the radiation (some). Vitamin D-3 really helps your immune system and I have had this reverse a very bad cold in days. Add Miso soup and Kelp into your family's diet. Stock up on plain salt, hydrogen peroxide, and baking soda for a great bath cleanse. HP puts oxygen back into your body, the salt and soda help you pull out toxins. Stock up on vitamins your body needs. If you can put in a reverse osmosis water purifier, this will take the radiation out of the water. Let that ole love energy flow through your body, and see it flowing through your family and friends, for as you give to others you shall receive the same. I have had the stone Angelite heal burns and bruises overnight, cancers, tumors in a few weeks, broken bones healed in less than a month. Headaches in minutes and if you put Angelite in water it will slowly dissolve and you are now drinking mineral water. You will find your bones getting stronger, your hair getting thicker and growing again. Pray over your water and food. This will raise the vibration of what you are eating.

Cancers have been known to be healed by drinking one tablespoon of baking soda mixed with 8 oz water every day. This balances out your system making it harder for the cancer cells to grow.

Be safe and prepared!
“Not my will but thy will be done.”
SO BE IT!

11. Prayer to Keep our DNA Healthy

I would say this prayer for you and your family and friends once a week.

We call to the Higher Selves of everyone on planet earth, all life forms and ask for permission to do this light work for you.

I call to everyone's Higher Selves and ask that the Higher Self now allow all strands of everyone's DNA to reconnect and realign with the Divine with such a high healing energy, that it will keep anything from affecting the DNA and mutating it for any reason. See all strands of everyone's DNA reconnect to the Creator allowing the DNA to keep its proper Divine shape, healthy and functioning. See all dark veils that are around our strands being cleansed by the Violet Flame and everyone reawakening to their Divinity and spiritual connection to the Divine.

As our DNA strands are being healed, we become healthier and all our spiritual psychic abilities are opened and are enhanced with everyone integrating their abilities in a gentle kind way. Everyone is excited at their new found gifts using them joyfully in service for the planet and all living on her. People are also using their new gifts to heal themselves and the Elementals taking Divine creation to new heights.

See anyone and everyone in Japan (and anywhere else on the planet) who is now being affected by any kind of un-natural excessive radiation, being sent an extra veil of light to protect their bodies. See their DNA reconnecting to the Creator and send mass doses of healing energy that will help correct any possible DNA altering. Let this be a gentle, kind experience.

As everyone awakens, they realize that they can create heaven on earth, being given answers for all challenges on the planet. From neutralizing radiation on the planet, for God does not give us a challenge without giving us the answers to solve it; to healing the waters, air, ozone ... You name it and Divine creation working through us will heal it.

As our DNA is reconnected to the Divine, it also cuts all ties to anyone who has tried to genetically alter any life forms in any way, including all genetically modified food. See all our food supply whose DNA has been altered in anyway also reconnecting back to the Divine, and being filled with such a high healing Divine energy, that all life forms are allowed to go back to their God created shape and function.

We ask that all other life forms, including all sea life, reconnect their DNA to the Creator and as all life forms reconnect, see them becoming healthier. We also see all other life forms being filled with an extra light energy to help protect them whether they are on land or sea.

I COMMAND that the Angels go forth to anywhere there are any Tesla/Vril machine that are being used to alter humanity in anyway, and cut them from their masters, filling them with the Violet Flame to clean them up, and Angelite energy to heal them. Now we COMMAND those machines to break down, miss-function, stop working and to keep breaking down. I call to the Higher Self of anyone running the machines and ask that they become dyslexic around them. See all programs that have our genetic codes being scrambled and going invisible as we put lots of magnets on all the hard drives connected to these machines. See all these machines breaking down NOW!

“Not my will but thy will be done.”

SO BE IT!

Prayer for Quantum Leaping the World into The Golden Age, Divine Infinity & Beyond

Let there be light! In the name of the presence of God, which "I AM", through the magnetic power of the sacred fire vested in me, I COMMAND!

I call to the Architect of The Universes, Divine Creators, and ask for permission to Quantum Leap the World, and all life forms on all planes and dimensions, seen and unseen, connected with planet earth. To let us go beyond our known potential into the greatest unknown Golden Age the universes and worlds, and all planets have ever experienced. Let us take the best of all lifetimes, all golden ages, all worlds, galaxies, and create such a Divine and enlightened planet that is even beyond the Creator's imagination. Imagine the Creators laughing with joyful glee on this action we have put into motion with every breath we now breathe. And it is snowballing, quantum leaping forward every moment. Every time someone reads this prayer, see the energy amplifying 100,000,000 fold, creating a higher resonance with the Creators, and the Architect of The Universes.

See the blissful information and energy of heaven surrounding earth like a golden shimmering rainbow of colors. See this energy anchoring now to the planet; all life forms; Elemental kingdom; Angels; from the lowest of consciousness life forms, any trapped and stuck entities, any aliens from other worlds; the Reptilian king and queen, all their seeds including all hybrids; any one practicing any kind of black magic, voodoo, and black witch craft. All the way up to the most enlightened beings on the planet none excluded, all included. As this energy settles in, seeing everyone's integration gentle, loving, and kind, going into everyone's DNA, soul memory and dreams.

As all life forms dream and create, let them dream of all the times they lived in the Golden Age where there was plenty of everything, everyone was using their Spiritual psychic abilities for many different forms of Divine Creation, no one lacked for anything, functional families where men and women lived side by side in Divine harmony; lots of laughter, with everyone practicing compassion, joy, kindness, and love in action. See these dreams being brought into physical, present form.

Anyone who chooses not to go forward into the Golden age, and tries to stop this prayer from forward movement, I ask their Higher Self, spiritual teachers and Guardian Angels to step in and put them in positions of harmlessness. We ask the Creators to give them special grace and unlock the doors in their minds that are keeping them from connecting to the higher frequency of light. Release all that which is holding them back. I ask all the Creators to close down the reptilian part of the brain and open up the Divine God brain, filling them with whatever high vibration is needed to shift them, so everyone gets to go into the Golden Age - leaving no one behind. Send these beings and entity's whatever vibration, sound, color, and memories of being connected to the Creator they need, so they gently evolve into the light. The Creator, their Higher Selves and Angels know exactly what each one needs and are sending it to them as we speak.

See us propelling ourselves far into the Divine Golden Age way beyond the Creators wildest dreams of a Golden Age planet.

Angels, humans, Elementals, and extraterrestrials working together, all veils removed so everyone's psychic potential is being developed and put into practical practice. Families putting love into action and becoming Divinely functional, having everything they need when they need it. The elderly are honored for their wisdom. People becoming awakened spiritual beings, practicing religious tolerance and the positive aspects of their religion.

See us working at one with beings from other galaxies and planets, who are just delighted we are quantum growing into enlightened beings, and giving us all the new tools, ideas and technologies on how we can make this a more joyful, functional, enlightened planet - taking us beyond our Divine potential.

The earth is being treated with much respect. The old ancient cultures, responsible for taking care of the planet, sharing their secrets and beliefs as everyone listens with open minds, and hungers for their knowledge - using that knowledge with wisdom.

All sacred knowledge of all natural healing methods are put into practice including all tools made out of stone, light, sound, energy, and vibration; Enlightened beings growing healing herbal gardens.

Everyone is being taught the sacred teachings, paths of enlightenment, and truths. All knowledge flows freely, gifts in music, the arts, sports, and intuition ... are encouraged and allowed to be developed.

Enlightened politicians and elected officials that tell the truth, acting for the benefit of humanity - with limited terms of service.

The earth is a healed, being at one with all life forms on her. Everyone so in tuned to the Mother Earth that they can hear her sing; her sighs; where she needs extra light; becoming aware of every move and grove she needs to do. Allowing her to do so and move out of her way with grace and understanding, like people do for the Fire Goddess Pele in Hawaii when she needs to flow. The interaction with the earth and all life forms is gentle, loving, kind, and conscious.

Organic food abounds. Chemical free clean pristine water, earth and sky. The sun and wind are harnessed in true solar fashion. Tesla's ideas and inventions of free energy being created with all walks of life benefiting.

People living in joy for hundreds of years if they choose, and when it is time to make transition, it is done with much joy and understanding of light evolution. Everyone...all life forms going beyond their Highest Divine potential.

We ask the Creator to fill in whatever we have left out to take manifesting Quantum Leaping the World into the Golden Age far beyond our dreams and imaginations into the Creators thoughts, wishes and dreams.

We ask that all who are manifesting the Quantum Leap be given all they need on all levels. Complete protection, and be put in bubbles of invisibility so they are hidden from the dark side. As this Divine idea flows outward, see all walks of life coming together in harmony and of one accord. Each person and group remembering their Divine Missions. What their parts are in Quantum Leaping the World into the Golden Age, and putting it now into action. Let all the Divine sleepers awaken to their Divine missions and Divine Purposes NOW.

As always, we put this in your hands - our Architect of The Universes and Divine Creators. Propel us into what your concept of the Golden Age is. We offer this work in service to the Creator, all life forms, the Earth, all Elementals, Cosmic Beings, my family and friends.

Inspire us, guide us into doing ... "Not our will but thy will be done."

May the Creator bring you all your hearts desires.

SO BE IT!

Manual to Help the 1% Upper Class Quantum Leap into Enlightenment or be put in a Position of Harmlessness (Reptilian, Human or Hybrid)

By Cathy Bilsky

I alone take full responsibility for writing this manual.

If this resonates with you please pass this around, for this is a universal problem that all countries need to address. Please read it once a day to give this a lot of life force.

Nothing is simple, so I have addressed many issues of the 1% in charge of running the planet. I started writing just one prayer and realized that this is a bit more complex than just one prayer. Say one prayer or say them all. Either way you will be giving this energy and helping us shift these stuck insane socio-path beings. Many of these 1% elites are the result of many centuries of inter-breeding between these ruling class families. And what did this social program reproduce? A cold sociopath bloodline that has managed, through the years, to keep human DNA from contaminating their bloodline. I have tried to be as complete as I can. Please remember that these families are satanic in nature and this black magic must be neutralized for our planet to move forward into the Golden Age of Enlightenment. Their magic is holding us back ... and now is being cancelled and cleared as you read.

This manual includes.....

1. Prayer to Cut Dark Magicians From Their Full Moon/Equinox Energy Work
2. Cutting Bloodlines From Each Other and People That Work For Them
3. Prayer to Put Banks in a Position of Harmlessness
4. Cutting Ties to Skull & Bones or Any Secret Society
5. How to Recognize and Short Circuit Reptilians
6. How to Short Circuit a Reptilian
7. Visiting Reptilians in Their Dreams (Short)
8. I Declare War Against the Global Elite and All Reptilians. The King, Queen, Their Seed, and All Who Work With Them - I will see you in your dreams (Long)
9. Cut All Ties to Anyone Trying to Manifest Armageddon on the Planet
10. Prayer to Put Mercenaries in Positions of Harmlessness NOW!

As you read, may this work be amplified 100,000,000 fold.

1. Prayer to Cut Dark Magicians From Their Full Moon/Equinox Energy Work
Let there be Light! In the name of the presence of God, which I AM, through the magnetic power of the sacred fire vested in me. I COMMAND:

I call to the Divine and ask that all ties that the Annunaki have to the top 13 bloodlines of the Illuminati - including, the Saxe-Coburg-Gotha (royal family house of Windsor); the Astors; the Bundys; the Collins; the Duponts; the Freemans; the Kennedys; The Onasis; the Reynolds; The Rockefellers; the Rothschilds ;the Russells; the Van Duyns; the Li's; any group, human or non human, including any ET's, Reptilians, hybrids, demons or any satanic magician that is connected to the 3rd/4th Reich/Black order/Nazi's, are cut from each other or any group that is just practicing working with evil ... I want all satanic magicians trying to keep these groups in power to be cut from all the Elementals and human's that they are misusing.

Cleanse these Elementals and humans up with the Violet Flame, send them the Angelite energy to heal, now fill them up with Divine Love. As they reconnect with love, we COMMAND them to be neutral, only emitting love and for the humans to become Divinely conscious.

See all ties, binds, blood oaths and bee/swarm mentality being cut between these individuals, groups and anyone trying to create a New World Order, including ET's, Reptilians, Nordic-reptilian hybrids, Satan, Lucifer and all their seed, the Nefillim, Grey's, Illuminati, and their seed, any satanic magician and their secret societies they have created to keep them in power. As ties are cut, see their energy coming off of each other and any of the projects and programs binding them.

Let all the energies from any and all ceremonies being done from now through the full moon and equinox be automatically neutralized gaining no strength or power. Let any energy being put out to create any kind of "natural "disasters through the use of any Tesla information, be neutralized through the Violet Flame, healed with Angelite, filled up with God's love and now we COMMAND the energy to be neutral and completely harmless.

We ask the Divine to send the correct amount of Divine energy, color, light and sound into the Reptilian/demon brain reconnecting their brain to Divine intelligence. See the Divine sending love into their hearts, brains, water molecules, cells, atoms, and integrating with their DNA. Let them fill up with so much light that they have a spiritual reawakening, Quantum leaping them into the Golden age.

We cut the ties to any black/satanic magician that is using any ritual or symbol to rent the veils to other dimensions, open any star gates, time portals, including the Montauk program and H.A.A.R.P.. We call the Violet Flame through these portals to clean them up. Fill the portals up with Divine energy, close and seal them foreverNOW.

Any machines or nuclear devices used to rent veils between dimensions are rendered harmless.

See any dark energy/spirits that are wandering around the planet in or out of body to be cut from the earth plane and anything they have bonded too. We tie and bind them, putting them through the Violet Flame to clean them up, and send them back to the Divine, filling those empty spaces up with an Angel of Peace.

We again remove all reptilian overlays over any appearing human form.

Cut the ties to anyone who helped hide the Nazis or was responsible for hiding their Nazi loot during and after WW2, including: anyone from the I.G. Farbin, Bormann group, Jesuits, the Bush family, Central bank and associates, wall street, Industrialists, chemical and drug manufacturers, weapons manufacturers, Militaries, universities, research scientists, police, CIA, FBI, spies, all governments, and secret societies. We call the Goddess of truth into your lives ... Let nothing remain hidden from humanity. Remove all veils of invisibility that were put in place to protect them.

As humanity is becoming conscious and aware, see them being given their Divine Missions and Divine purposes. As they reconnect, quantum leaping all life, no matter what dimension they're on, into the Golden Age.

Imagine all spiritually stuck beings having all the blocks removed, so they can have a Divine Spiritual awakening. Let them reconnect to their feelings and emotions allowing them to have a Divine conscious again; including anyone who was genetically altered through breeding or DNA tampering.

I ask Michael the Archangel to cut all ties to the wealth all these dark people have accumulated, and redirect that abundance energy to all light workers in need.

Let everything good on this planet gain strength and have forward movement NOW! Love all, serve all.

Never the less, "Not our will but thy will be done."
SO BE IT!

2. Cutting Bloodlines From Each Other and People That Work For Them

In the name of the presence of God, which I AM, through the magnetic power of the sacred fire vested in me, I COMMAND:

A call to the Higher Selves of Kissinger, the top 13 bloodlines of the Illuminati; the Saxe-Coburg-Gotha (royal family house of Windsor); the Astors; the Bundys; the Collins; the Duponts; the Freemans; the Kennedys; The Onasis; the Reynolds; The Rockefellers; the Rothschilds; the Russells; the Van Duyns; the Li's; the Bush family, the rest of the Royal families, all members of the Illuminati who are in the congress and senate; businessmen and women connected to these people that are working in the Black Arts or are trying to keep the Golden Age from coming forward. I COMMAND that you now walk in the Light of God and if you choose not to, that your Higher Selves and the Angels step in and put you in a position of harmlessness, letting a Light worker come forward. I call on the Goddess of Illusion to remove all illusion and protective energy overlays that are not letting their true selves be known. We now ask the Creator to remove all these protective veils NOW!

We now COMMAND that universe/earth-wide, all groups and individuals dealing in darkness or working with any energy source coming from darkness including: Satanists; covens; black magicians; voodoo masters; all governments; subversive military groups; government groups controlling funds or dealing with mass manipulation, mind control, climate control; the Grays; Illuminati; FBI; CIA; Police; everyone and everything connected to Wall Street; the Aryan nation; the Antioch Baptist Church; the order of the Quest; the Jason Society; the Roshaniya; the Jesuits; the Masons; the Ancient and Mystical order of Rosaecrucis; the Cosa Nostra; the KKK; the Royal families; all reptilians; the Nazi party; the Communist party; the Executive members of the Council of Foreign Relations; the Brotherhood of the Dragon; the Royal Institute of International Affairs; I.M.F, The Black Cell, NAFTA, WTO {world trade organization}, Monsanto, Dupont, Cargill, Farm Bureau, Asgrow Seed Co., Calgene, Delta, USDA, Archer Daniels Midland, Holden Seeds, Dekalb, Monsanto-Mahyo, Novartis {Sandoz&Ciba-Geigy&Aventis}, Astra/Zeneca, Pioneer Hi Bred, Ricetec, DagHammaraskjold foundation, World Bank, Aquaculture, US Soybean Association, Unilever's {Euro wheat}, MPEDA, Louis Dreyfus, Burge, Mitsui Cook, Andre&Co., Jack Kennedy, Scott Baucum, The Federalists, Dan Glickman, All Dark Politicians, Biotechnology/Hoechst; Clive James, Bollgard, Rowett Institute; the Trilateral Commission, the Bilderberg Group, the open and friendly Secret Society (Vatican); the Russell Trust; the Skull and Bones and the Scroll and Key, all credit card companies, banks and loan institutions as well as all groups with plans that go against the highest good of mankind or the plans of the Hierarchy of Light, to stop the manifestation of the Golden age of enlightenment. As these group's hierarchical leaders work toward a new world order, including everyone helping any of these groups on any level, that choose to work with darkness or that try to misuse energy (Elementals, extraterrestrials or humans), be cut off completely from their energy supplies including money. I send Divine Light and Divine male/female balance to all obelisks, domes and pyramids, meridians, grids, all lay lines and all the power spots on the planet that were being misused.

I call for Michael the Archangel to use his Sword of Blue Flame to daily cut all ties and binds between these misguided Light beings and all dark entities, dark or out of balance energy sources, and all energies they are trying to manipulate and control. For the Goddesses of Love, Truth, Mercy, Compassion, Righteousness and Justice, step into their lives and show them the error of their misbalanced ways. For Lord Zadkiel and his heavenly hosts to step into these misguided Light beings' lives continuously, to amplify the Violet Flame around them and transmute the evil thought-forms, words, ceremonies, deeds and rituals into love, or totally neutralize useless energies that burn out of their own account. We then call on Meta of the Healing Ray to minister to these misguided light beings daily. We send Divine Light to their hearts and brains. I Ask that all of the above, who chooses not to step forward into the light, be placed in a bubble of mirror, facing them 2 inches from their nose. This mirror stays in place as long as they do their will –sending the energy back to them. We place the Violet Flame inside this bubble so any negative energy immediately burns out, so no energy momentum can be achieved. It will disappear when they do God's Divine will. Let these shields of energy be in place on all darkness from this time through the Golden Age.

“Not my will but thy will be done.”

3. Prayer to Put Banks in a Position of Harmlessness

In the name of the presence of God, which I AM, through the magnetic power of the sacred fire vested in me, I COMMAND:

I ask that our monetary system and all energy coming from or created by greedy paper aristocrats, the top 13 bloodlines of the Illuminati; the Saxe-Coburg-Gotha (royal family house of Windsor); the Astors; the Bundys; the Collins; the Duponts; the Freemans; the Kennedys; The Onassis; the Reynolds; The Rockefellers; the Rothschilds; the Russells; the Van Duyns; the Jesuits or anyone from the Bormann Group, be cut and released from humanity. Going back to the goldsmiths who laid the foundation for our current banking system to cutting the ties to the Medici Family and their banks; the Federal Reserve Board; the Bormann Group; the Jesuits; the Roman Catholic pope; and any mason oaths that are keeping the illusion of paper money going. Cancel-clear any agreements that the legal loan sharks have with governments that were created to keep consumers in debt.

See all the power from all banks removed from them so they can no longer make their own paper money. See the ties and agreements being cut from the Federal Reserve Bank, the Central Banking System, the Jesuits, the Bormann Group and all governments so they can no longer use each other to perpetuate war by inflating and devaluing paper money.

I call the Goddess of truth into all secret societies, brotherhoods, aristocracy of paper money, the banking fraternity, the Jesuits and the Bormann group. Let nothing be hidden from humanity revealing all. We ask these beings to step forward into the light and if they choose not to that their Higher Selves and Guardian Angels put them in a position of harmlessness, letting a light worker come forward to replace them. See any sacred knowledge or truths being kept from humanity pouring back into the minds and hearts of everyone on the planet.

Cut the ties to anyone who helped hide the Nazis or was responsible for hiding their Nazi loot during and after WW2, including: anyone from the I.G. Farbin, Bormann group, Jesuits, the Bush family, Central bank and associates, wall street, Industrialists, chemical and drug manufacturers, weapons manufacturers, Militaries, universities, research scientists, police, CIA, FBI, spies, all governments, and secret societies. We call the Goddess of truth into your lives ... Let nothing remain hidden from humanity. Remove all veils of invisibility that were put in place to protect them.

See humanity along side of governments, end bank-created money, and set up a system whereby money is issued by national governments in proportion to their gross national products, and dispersed without engendering debt. See banks being the conduit for the release and circulation of money yet no longer able to create paper money on their own.

Imagine governments no longer taxing anyone or having to borrow money. Instead, allocating to themselves the money they need to operate within limits imposed by their gross national products.

No more government sponsored military black operations. See the money being used to clean up the planet, grow organic food, shelter for the poor, and raise up the quality of life for everyone on the planet.

See all debts owed to banks and credit card debts being instantly forgiven. Let banks be paid by the governments for their services in dispensing and circulating the money and by consumers for services rendered.

No more banks in government politics.

“Not my will but thy will be done.”

SO BE IT!

4. Cutting Ties to Skull & Bones or Any Secret Society

Let there be light! In the name of the presence of God, which I AM, through the magnetic power of the sacred fire vested in me, I COMMAND:

I call to the Divine and ask that all ties to all secret societies including all members in the Skull & Bones group, human or non human, including any ET's, Reptilians, hybrids, demons or any satanic magician, that is connected to the 3rd/4th Reich/Black order/Nazi's are cut from each other. I want all satanic magicians trying to keep this group in power to be cut from all the Elementals and human's that they are misusing, including all and any stolen artifacts taken from any graves anywhere in the world, including bones or skulls like Geronimo's skull.

Cleanse these Elementals and humans up with the Violet Flame, send them the Angelite energy to heal, now fill them up with Divine Love. As they reconnect with love, we COMMAND them to be neutral, only emitting love, and for the humans to become Divinely conscious. We see all these artifacts being returned to their place of rest.

See all ties, binds, blood oaths and bee/swarm mentality being cut between these individuals, groups and anyone trying to create a New World Order, including ET's, Reptilians, Nordic-reptilian hybrids, Satan, Lucifer and all their seed, the Nefillim, Grey's, Illuminati, and their seed, any satanic magician and their secret societies they have created to keep them in power. As ties are cut, see their energy coming off of each other and any of the projects and programs binding them.

We ask the Divine to send the correct amount of Divine energy, color, light and sound into the Reptilian/demon brain, reconnecting their brain to Divine intelligence. See the Divine sending love into their hearts, brains, water molecules, cells, atoms, and integrating with their DNA. Let them fill up with so much light that they have a spiritual reawakening, Quantum leaping them into the Golden age.

We cut the ties to any black/satanic magician that is using any ritual or symbol to rent the veils to other dimensions, open any star gates, time portals including the Montauk portal. We call the Violet Flame through these portals to clean them up. Fill the portals up with Divine energy, close and seal them forever ... NOW.

We see all machines or nuclear devices used to rent veils between dimensions, being rendered harmless.

See any dark energy/spirit that are wandering around the planet in or out of body, being cut from the earth plane and anything they have bonded too. We tie and bind them putting them through the Violet Flame to clean them up and send them back to the Divine filling those empty spaces up with an Angel of Peace.

As humanity is becoming conscious and aware, see them being given their Divine Missions and Divine purposes. As they reconnect, quantum leaping all life, no matter what dimension on, into the Golden Age.

Imagine all spiritually stuck beings having all the blocks removed so they can have a Divine Spiritual awakening. Let them reconnect to their feelings and emotions allowing them to have a Divine conscious again, including anyone who was genetically altered through breeding or DNA tampering.

I call to Michael the Archangel to cut all ties to any black magician, secret societies, ET's, Bormann group, Jesuit's, the Illuminati, the Pope, governments, militaries, and scientists that are trying to manipulate the Morphogenetic Grid or any grid or lay line on the planet, whether it is inside, on, or around the earth. We ask them to stop manipulating the Morphogenetic Grid by satanic ritual or any energy misuse of any kind, if they choose to continue, I ask their Higher Self and Guardian Angel to put them in positions of harmlessness, NOW! We send a golden energy of the highest form of love through the morphogenetic grid to raise the energy back to where people are awakening again on the planet and living joyful lives of plenty.

See the Morphogenetic grid fill up with so much Divine Energy that it remembers the Divine Blueprint for the Golden Age. See the grid affecting everyone and everything on the planet, no matter what species they are (ET's Grey's Draco's, Reptilians, and hybrids) or dimension they are on, allowing everything to Quantum leap into the Golden Age.

We call to Michael to cut all ties to any machines and computers that are being used to do this including any Vril machines, Tesla - related machines, the H.A.A.R.P./ELF machines, and any machine used at Montauk or any related facility. As we cut the ties, we call the Violet Flame through these machines to clean them up, and fill them up with Divine Love. As they recharge in God's energy, we COMMAND them to break down and keep breaking down so they no longer function.

We send the Violet Flame through the Mother Earth to clean her up, neutralizing any darkness, fill her up with Angelite energy to heal her, and reconnect her to the Divine. See the Mother Earth radiating Divine energy and remembrance of the Golden Age to everything on the planet.

We cut the ties to any dark image the water Elemental must mirror. Cleanse the water Elemental with the Violet Flame to clean it up; the Angelite energy to heal and now fill the water Elemental up with Divine Love. We call to the water Elemental everywhere on the planet to mirror Peace, beauty and Divine Golden Age energy.

"Not my will but thy will be done."

5. How to Recognize and Short Circuit Reptilians

If you are in a warm room and it suddenly gets cold, you have just been visited by a reptilian shape shifter that is not only spying on you but sucking your life force. When you feel this, immediately call to Michael the Archangel to come with his sword of blue flame and cut the ties this creature has to anything in the room. Now we tie and bind this reptilian in a rope of blue flame, send the reptilian through the Violet Flame to clean up its energy. Now send it back to the Creator filling up that empty space with an Angel of your choice (healing, peace, compassion, protection, etc.). The room will become warm again. Don't get upset if it happens again, remember that they do have an army. You are doing a service by sending the reptilians back to God and bringing in an Angel of light. It does raise the energy of the planet.

You can create sacred space by peeing in a spray bottle (females do NOT do this on your moon cycle), then walk around the property and spray. As you walk you can say “This is now sacred space and only that which is light may enter”. I would also put a few drops at the front and back doors, windowsills and in the corner of each room in the house. Reptilians cannot stand the scent of human urine.

You may find people come into your house and just have to leave in a hurry ... and may not come back. Also, you will be visited much less by any reptilians whether they are in human form or the astral.

I have gone to activist meetings and put one drop of urine on my wrists and ankles. I have had reptilians short out and not be able to function around me also saying that they will not come back. They will find a reason to leave quickly. It is the best!

“Not my will but thy will be done.”

SO BE IT!

6. Another Technique to Short Circuit a Reptilian

If you have any doubts in the person you are dealing with, close your eyes, and connect with the Creator. Take 3 deep breaths of this very high Love energy. Take one more deep breath, and as you exhale, direct that Divine sacred breathe at them and say the name of YAHWEH. Do it as many times as you like. Now simply watch what happens. The reptilian will begin to short out, get nervous, may leave the room ... OR, and this is the best, they may not be able to hold their human form, shape shifting to reptilian.

Take a small group to see your favorite (?) politician speak. Let the entire group do this exercise and then observe what happens to the politicians and all those around him.

“Not my will but thy will be done.”

SO BE IT!

7. Visiting Reptilians in Their Dreams (Short)

Oh reptilians - I have not gone anywhere - just busy. So here is a reminder. Be afraid.

Oh dear Reptilians, it's me Medusa of light. When you see me in your dreams I will shape shift into a Medusa of light. When you look at my long hair I want you to see many cobras and asps. They are deadly and their venom is pure Divine light. One drop of this injected into your AURA and it will turn you into a HUMAN. One look at me and you will turn HUMAN. When you dream you will see me, it will affect your DNA. Be afraid. Be very afraid. Oh yes. Sweet dreams. Not.

“Not my will but thy will be done.”

SO BE IT!

8. I Declare War Against the Global Elite and All Reptilians. The King, Queen, Their Seed, and All Who Work With Them - I will see you in your dreams (Long)

To the Global elite, Skull & Bones, all secret societies; the top 13 bloodlines of the Illuminati; the Saxe-Coburg-Gotha (royal family house of Windsor); the Astors; the Bundys; the Collins; the Duponts; the Freemans; the Kennedys; The Onassis; the Reynolds; The Rockefellers; the Rothschilds; the Russells; the Van Duyns; any satanic worshipers and all your followers that do your bidding. You created this world war against humanity and our planet. I will take you up on your challenge of battle. Be afraid of the Goddess born in the year of the snake, for she is coming for you and she knows Divine magic ... Be afraid. It's on boys. I will not become your slave, do your bidding, and I will fight you till my last breath. I will do battle every day of my life against you and in my dream state too. This should make you shake in your shoes for I have NO limitations in dream state. You cannot run nor hide from me, I will find you and yours wherever you go, destroying all your machines and plans as I go forward in light. Let it be also known that I AM in perfect health, with no heart troubles, and in good physical shape. I do not do any hard drugs ... Ever ... nor drink alcohol ... Ever. I don't like it. I am not, nor ever have been suicidal and I love my family and would not ever do them intentional harm. So boys don't try and send any energy or anything negative at me. That would be a real bad call for I AM one of God's many favorites. Mess with me you mess with the Big Guy ... and Jesus, Sai Baba, Prem Baba, Shirdi Baba and the rest of the Gang like Mother Mary, All the Goddess and Gods. Phift ... all You have is Satan ... I think the odds are really more in my favor. Direct anything evil or dark at my family, friends or any light worker on the planet and your karma will immediately come back to you 100,000,000 fold. Look at me as your Moses and you are all Pharisees. What you direct at us will manifest in your own lives 100,000,000 fold. Karma can be a bitch. Take a good look at my face, boys of reptilian DNA, for from now on I am the face of Medusa. Except when you look at me, your reptilian brain will short out and your hearts will open as you reconnect to the Creator. Then you will have feelings, emotions; have consciousness, become loving kind and generous. Becoming generous donors to all groups standing up for light. The more you give, the happier you shall become. My reality is stronger than yours. I am a better Dreamer than you are. In my reality you are NOTHING, falling apart and repairing the damage you have created. My reality is we are in the Divine age of Enlightenment. You have lost and humanity/Mother Earth wins. Your choices are only 2. One - you will come over to the light or ... Two - God will take you out and put you on the new planet, formed just for you, to keep you spiritually evolving - called Wormwood. Like I said, it's already a done deal ... You lost ... Be afraid ... be very afraid, shake in your shoes, feel that chill that comes over you when your plans fall apart. You have lots of infighting and disagreements with each other. We send light to your children that are more human than reptilian, giving them courage to stand up to you and work on the side of light ... Now how does that feel? You will now worry about who your friends are and who is not ... you spend many sleepless nights on this. All your machines breaking down, it's like you are living perpetual mercury in retrograde. Got the picture? It's on dudes! Sweet dreams ... Not.

“Not my will but thy will be done.”
SO BE IT!

9. Cut All Ties to Anyone Trying to Manifest Armageddon on the Planet

I call to Michael the Archangel to come and cut ALL ties to anyone trying to manifest Armageddon, WW3, or any dark energy that is amplifying doom and gloom, or the end of days. Cut all ties to all prophecies that are of this nature. As those ties are cut we Violet Flame this energy from now to the very beginning of its beginning creative thoughts. Starting from before the time of Atlantis, through the burning of the great library in Alexandria, to the creation of any and all religions that want to control the masses using religion as a weapon. As the Violet Flame blazes through this energy, see this energy being released from all it has attached itself to, being replaced with balanced enlightened thoughts that turn toward joy, as they have this glorious reconnection to the Divine.

See this Divine High energy now being stronger than dark and everyone on the planet feeling this light, making decisions that an awakened spiritual being would make. See the masses quantum leap with Divine knowledge and act now in harmonious love. As all the masses reconnect to the Creator, see them being given all their Divine missions and purposes on how we are now going to save the planet. See people getting excited for all the Divine answers they need to stop the nuclear challenge in Japan and anywhere else on the planet. This is joyful for everyone. The Divine is manifesting on the planet NOW! Heaven on earth is manifesting on the planet NOW!

See high energy Divine thoughts now flowing telepathically out to the masses and all life forms. See this energy being passed to each other like a torch as we do acts of kindness for each other. See the prophecy of light being amplified and the planet Quantum leaping far into the Golden Age.

We call down the light of the Creator to descend down to the planet and all life forms NOW! ... We call down the light of the Creator to descend down to earth and all life forms NOW! ... We call down the light of the Creator to descend down to earth and all life forms NOW!

SO BE IT!

10. Prayer to Put Mercenaries in Positions of Harmlessness NOW!

We call to Michael the Archangel to cut all ties that all mercenaries have with war, violence, gladiator mentality, rape, pillage and plunder of earth and all life forms. Cut ties to all reptilian energy, any connection to the God and Goddess of war, chaos and destruction. Cut all ties to all oaths, vows, curses they have taken with each other, to secret societies, to the illuminati and to the pope, or any symbol. As all this energy is cut and removed from them, we also ask that their reptilian brain is shut down and the Divine God brain re-activated. As all this unwanted energy is removed from them see them reconnecting to their Higher Selves and becoming awakened spiritual beings that are being given their Divine missions and purposes. As they become awakened beings, let them see all protesters and civilians as people to be protecting and be Divinely guided to put their energies to works of good. If they choose not to step forward in the light, we ask the Higher Selves and Guardian Angels to put them in positions of total and complete harmlessness. Allowing a light worker to replace them ... Or no one at all.

As they reconnect to the Creator we see them laying down their weapons and not choosing to fight. Let them be Divinely inspired to spend more time with their families or just doing works of good.

“Not my will but thy will be done.”

To the Popes and Hierarchy of the Roman Catholic Church ... You're FIRED! Cancel-Clearing All Your Magic

By Cathy Bilsky

I and I alone take full responsibility for this prayer.

My Dear friends: If this new power prayer resonates, please give it lots of energy read it every day for one week.

To the Pope (black and white) and the Hierarchy of the Roman Catholic Church ... YOU'RE FIRED!!!!

This is to the black and white Pope, the Alumbrados, the Jesuits, Opus Dei, the Illuminati, all your organizations that work with you or support you, all the way down to the simple lay person. God the Creator is putting you on notice that all your works are now going to crumble and dissolve to dust. You do not own anything on this planet ... NOTHING! We release, cancel-clear and dissolve all from your black magic you have woven with Satan to keep this planet and all life forms in slavery.

We call to Michael the Archangel to take his sword of blue flame and cut ties to all your magic, including all skins it is written on no matter where you keep it hidden. Nothing can hide from God, so be afraid ... be very afraid. As ties to all your black magic are cut from you and pacts you made with Satan. We call the Violet Flame to clean up all your dark energy, and then we send the Angelite energy to heal it, and fill it up with the Creators Divine love. We COMMAND the skins and parchments to now be neutral only emitting love. I call upon the fire Elemental to blaze and burn in all your vaults and everywhere you keep these skins and parchments of magic. Let the flame do the final cleansing. I now see all your vaults in flame and burning till all skins and parchments are in ashes. All trusts are hereby dissolved though the sacred trust that God has with humans to set us free.

We cut all black magic satanic ties and binds you have placed on all life forms, souls, and the planet earth, going back to the time of Pope Boniface and any Papal Bulls he created, cutting ties to an express trust called Unim Sanctum that claims the Pope owns all souls. The ties and binds to this energy and all souls are now cut free from your bondage. You own no one. The people of this planet all have their very own direct link to God the Creator thus in charge of all dominion on the planet. You do not own the world, humans, or any souls on this planet or anywhere. We can manage our own sacred trusts with the Creator ourselves. You're FIRED! We now reconnect all these souls to the Creator, helping them become awakened conscious spiritual beings.

We cut the ties to all of Pope Nicholas V, in 1435, trusts he set up claiming all real-estate as his, then binding that in magic. We again cut the ties with this "trust", call the Violet Flame to clean it up; the Angelite energy to heal then we reconnect it to God. Now we COMMAND it to be neutral and only emit love. We call forth the fire Elemental to burn this magic and all it is written on to ashes. This trust is hereby dissolved by the light of God the Creator and everything that is Holy.

We cut all ties to Pope VI and the trust that makes people slaves. We again cut the ties to this magic and the bonding of it with Satan. We call the Violet Flame through it to clean up the energy, Angelite to heal it, then we reconnect it to the Creator, COMMANDING it to be neutral. We again call to the fire Elemental to blaze though this magic till it's cleansed by fire to ashes and dust. I see the storage vaults in physical flame NOW. We now see all veils and overlays over all souls being removed, allowing everyone to reconnect to their Higher Selves becoming awakened spiritual beings fully aware of their Divine missions and purposes.

We cut all ties with the trust called Cestui Que Vie claiming all souls to Satan and the Catholic Church. As these ties are cut we call the Violet Flame to clean it up the Angelite energy to heal, fill it up with the Creators love, now we COMMAND it to be neutral ... To only emit love. I call the fire Elemental to burn the skin it's written on 'till in ashes. See all souls being set free again becoming awakened spiritual beings.

We cut all ties and magical contracts the Roman Vatican church-Empire had with Hitler, all concordats are now dissolved by the Violet Flame, healed in Angelite and reconnected to the Creator now becoming neutral or only emitting love. The energy of the 1st through the 4th Reich is now dissolved.

We call to the Higher Selves of all popes (black and white) past, present, future, all Nazi's, Alumbrados, Jesuits, Opus Dei, Illuminati, and all fraternal organizations connected to the Roman catholic church, to step forward in the light of God and renounce Satan, all lies, deceptions and wars you create. If you choose not to, which is your free will, I call to your Higher Self and Guardian Angel to put you all in positions of harmlessness NOW. We remove all veils, overlays you have placed on each other, cut the oaths you have taken together binding you to each other and your projects ... Now removed!

For those who choose to stay with Satan ... again your free will, we place you all in a bubble of mirror, the mirror facing you so any dark energy you try and send out will stay contained, and we add the Violet Flame to cleanse this energy so it does not gain any strength. This bubble of mirror will stay up 24/7, 365 days a year from here through eternity. It will dissolve when you choose to work in the light of the Creator and not Satan. Until then this bubble keeps you powerless.

Let all veils and overlays of magical protection be removed as the Goddess of Truth brings everything that you are trying to hide up to the surface - In a way where the masses see it and are given the Divine inspiration on how to correct what you have done. The Goddess of Justice is after you now.

I call for your karmic return for all your works, which shall be amplified 100,000,000 fold. I step aside as it's returned to you NOW!

As your magic is dissolved and neutralized, all life forms can now reconnect to the Creator, becoming awakened enlightened joyful beings Quantum leaping us into the Golden Age of Divine Enlightenment.

Cutting Corporations, Illuminati & Secret Societies from their Symbols

Symbols have meanings. These dark entities are taking all our rights away. It's time to give them a big energy hit where it hurts them the most ... their bank accounts and power structures. Let's take back the symbols for good.

Logos are used not only for control and for sucking energies, but they are also used as a kind of protection for these guys to hide behind.

May the energies they use to protect their dark magic, through these sigils (past, present, future) - now be reversed ... After they have been reversed back to their positive energy directions, we now cut these symbols free from all past, present and future misuse, also the elements they are controlling with these sigils are now freed ...

"Not my will but thy will be done."

SO BE IT!

WE MADE IT EASY FOR YOU! You can do this every time you are out on errands ... Driving anywhere.

Here are some corporate symbols that will pour money back on to the people:

The octagon ... a symbol of control, is seen at the white house and in the capitol. It is also a symbol for chase/jp morgan bank ... It flows clockwise in their logo ... it is like a portal, sucking money in and controlling the people ... Let's all imagine the octagon's opening up and pouring money out to the people ... or imagine it going counter clockwise to short circuit things ... Every time you see chase/jp morgan or the white house just imagine the octagon reversing and giving money and social programs back to the 99%.

Verizon ... the word with the z - as a sideways lightning bolt is their sigil ... I imagine the z going either like a backwards z or a 2 or a vertical lightning bolt ... Taking the money that's being stolen from the people and returning it so we have free communications.

At&t - their sigil is the globe ... I imagine it spinning in the opposite direction and spinning money back to the people they've robbed.

Anything with a pyramid or a triangle ... Let's all imagine it upside down so the people at the base are empowered and the few at the top lose their control over the people ... so the money pours out on to Mother Earth and her inhabitants.

Anything with a sun (also a big portal) - i.e. bp British Petroleum ... Let's all imagine that the sun now shines on Mother Earth ... that it's no longer a portal to suck in power and money toward the corporations, but a giant portal of love that shines kindly on the people and no longer sucks in energy ... instead, pouring money and power back to the 99%, into social health and clean up the earth programs.

Anything with a magnet ... Let's all imagine it's reversing. If the magnet faces east, we will point it west ... So that the company is no longer sucking energy from the people and Mother Earth and it's powers are shut down.

Anything with the eye of Horus ... often the eye of Horus is used and it spins the energies inward ... it sucks the energy in. So let's all imagine the eye spinning their energies out, returning the money from the cable companies to the people.

Many corporate logos are portals ... always picture the portals reversing themselves - so that the money and energy pours out. You will find once you start paying attention to corporate logos that they are easy to flip to the light ... And - They are good focal points for magicians to return the power to the people and to Mother Earth! These guys work with sacred geometry and they twist it ... for power ... so let's all flip them so the power goes to all people ... It's like Marshall arts.

Nazi swastika ... The regular swastika is a symbol of goodness in India. However, when it is reversed it will bring chaos onto the planet ... Lets all imagine when anyone looks at the Nazi swastika it automatically reverses and brings peace and prosperity back to the people and the planet.

The wings of Isis ... are a symbol of healing, yet they use it as a symbol for Chrysler ... so, let's take that sigil and we can all imagine that every time someone sees the wings of Isis they are healed, and think about healing Mother Earth ... and with Chrysler, let's all imagine that the wings of Isis no longer protect the oil companies, seeing all their money going back into healing Mother Earth ... We now call on Isis for this.

Here's a blog entry on the occult meanings of a few corporate sigils.

<http://blog.corporatelogos.ws/famous-corporate-logos-controversy>

OH! ... OH! ... let's not forget the H.A.A.R.P. logo ... and facebook.

Recently I saw the correlation between the facebook sigil and H.A.A.R.P..which is in the shape of a kite or a shield ... may this shield come down - so the people are awakened and uplifted every time they see this symbol. We have also have noticed that the facebook sigil has 13 heads stuck in the ground ... may those bodies rise up and be empowered every time someone sees that sigil.

Many symbols are good i.e. the sun ... we don't want to piss off the sun...lol...but - The rising sun, for instance, is also the symbol for shell oil. It is a hermetic symbol and good sacred secret societies use it for good ... For the rest of those who misuse this symbol, may the energy lines that control them be cut by the help of Archangel Michael and Violet Flamed so all humanity may awaken conscious spiritual beings.

A few more symbols to be aware of and reverse:

The flower of life that protects Stanford University

The 322 of skull and bones

The nazi swastika

The jp morgan/chase octagon

Any stars turned on their heads are now turned upright so our crown chakras face the Creator again.

Any pyramids are turned upside down so that the people and Mother Earth and her inhabitants, those who have been controlled are on top now and are freed.

Any hexagons (i.e. stars of david) used to entrap the elements are now reversed so the elements are free (i.e. Mother Earth, our bodies, all creatures bodies).

Any suns, vortices, portals (including the flower of life) now are reversed and resonate and are in tune with the Creator.

citigroup's symbol of the temple or star gate is set free - our bodies and the earth are temples that belong to us and the Creator.

any upside down crosses or staffs (citigroup again church of Rome) are turned upright and the people are awakened.

pentagons - as in the chrysler symbol with a star encased in a pentagon... picture that opening up too...anything encased in an octagon or pentagon - open it up and let the power flow out.

also pentagrams or stars that are inverted - picture them right side up and pointing toward the Creator...

Pentagrams - it is a sacred symbol for the 4 elements plus spirit, but they use it to control the elements ... anytime a star is encased, it is like controlling the elements and spirit ... Let's all imagine the star free again and working with the Creator.

This will give us court advantage if you start making this part of your daily practice. Anytime you see these symbols, your first reaction should be to cut, reverse, and see them loose the power. See that power being returned to the 99% along with cleaning up and healing the Earth ... and all life forms.

Make a copy of this and put one in your car and wallet/purse just for reference.

The power of the forces are with us....all of them.

“Not my will but thy will be done”

SO BE IT!

Prayer to Cut All Nazi's from their Sacred Energy Symbols

In the name of the presence of God, which I AM, through the magnetic power of the sacred fire vested in me, I COMMAND:

That all Nazi swastika symbols are reversed, so the energy now brings in peace and prosperity back to the earth and humanity. Every time anyone looks at a Nazi swastika, see the energy being reversed into its correct positive direction. We cut the ties to anyone whose intent is to misuse any sacred symbols. We call the Violet Flame through them to clean them up and we reconnect those symbols to the Divine. See these energies being reversed to their positive correct direction NOW.

I COMMAND that any portals, star gates, time portals, including the time portal at Montauk , being used for the dark purpose of manipulating time or allowing dark forces from other dimensions on the planet, be cut from those that are misusing them, and closed and sealed...forever, made invisible and moved so they cannot reopen them. Imagine any machines being used for this purpose breaking down NOW! See any magic symbols and rituals, being used to rent the veils between inter-dimensions, be rendered harmless. I ask that all those who try and run Vril machines become confused so the machines do not function properly. As Vril energy is corrected, see humanity become conscious and focused on their Divine spiritual growth, bringing the Golden Age into manifestation.

I ask that all that misuse the Vril energy be tied and bound. All Vril machines are cut from their masters and any byproduct from Vril, including any psychokinetic energy /mind altering manipulating machines, and any Tesla invention. I cut these Elementals from their masters cleansing them with the Violet Flame, fill the Elementals up with love and COMMAND them to neutralize themselves by breaking down and no longer functioning. This includes any machines; computers connected to the ELF, H.A.A.R.P. programs, any microwave/cell phone towers, airplanes, spy satellites, jets or helicopters creating chemical trails, and the Montauk program.

I ask anyone trying to misuse the Vril energy through the use of sound, color, water, chemicals, drugs, etc., to stop now. Step forward into the Light and help us bring the Earth into the Golden Age peacefully. Stop manipulating humankind by creating apocalyptic energy. If you choose not to work with the light in a peaceful way, I ask your Higher Self and your Guardian Angel to put you in a position of harmlessness.

I ask Michael the Archangel to cut all energy and money sources from those that misuse the Vril energy. Redirecting that energy to light workers to put towards their Divine Missions and making their lives prosperous and comfortable.

“Not my will but thy will be done.”

SO BE IT!

Bringing Golden Solar Energy Down to Cover All the Pyramids & All Sacred Spaces

Let it be amplified 100,000,000 fold. I see the pyramids, grids ,lay lines, domes, obelisks and all sacred spots on the planet covered in a golden solar Divine energy again, allowing us to be in sync with the heavens once more ... waking us up ... waking up all inhabitants of this beautiful planet. Sending this golden solar energy right to all the grid lines and into the heart of the Mother Earth. Regenerating the Earth. I see all Elementals of war being put in a position of harmlessness - so that no human being may hurt another ... the machines of war are shut down, as we leap into a golden age beyond the first golden age ... a golden age of healing and telepathy and living in complete harmony ... We see anything nuclear being closed down and any person who wants to take nuclear forward is removed from office and replaced with a sane, enlightened being who will push ahead renewable energy supplies. NOW!

See all reptilian politicians being removed from all offices they hold NOW, and replaced with a loving, kind awakened spiritual being.

Energy Answer to Zombie Virus

A friend of mine and I were pondering on the crazy zombie virus. Where people go crazy and eat ... People! So what kind of disease makes you go crazy and want to bite people? That one is easy - RABIES! And these "zombie's" have super strength. So someone slipped these people a super charged rabies virus with a little steroid for the kicker. For those of you who are not in the drug world and not familiar with drug terms (like me), when it was said that something was put in their bath salts they didn't mean Epsom salts but a synthetic drug that is smoked. Really bad drugs. Some of the symptoms of rabies are ... you are very thirsty and you can't drink or stand the site of water, and you get very hot and sometimes foam at the mouth. Pretty awful. Someone is trying to create a real zombie apocalypse. I don't know about you but that one just doesn't work for me so I offer up this prayer to neutralize it.

Let's do some energy work ...

I call to Michael the Archangel to cut all ties to whoever created this zombie/enhanced rabies virus and the virus no matter where it is, in physical form ... human or animal, in the lab or in drugs of any kind. We call the Violet Flame through the disease to clean it up, the energy of the Angelite to heal it, now we see this virus reconnecting to the Creator. As it recharges in the light we COMMAND the virus to be neutral and to allow itself to be eliminated from the body in a gentle kind release, or simply turn to water.

I call to the fire Elemental to now burn down these labs, including all university labs, private or government run, in a way no one will be hurt or harmed. I call to the Higher Selves of all responsible scientists and ask them to stop creating harmful viruses and if they choose to continue (free will), we ask their Higher Selves and Guardian Angels to put them all in positions of harmlessness NOW! See these scientists putting their knowledge and gifts to works for humanity... or deciding to retire and spend more time with their families.

Energy Balancing/Curse Removal

Let there be Light! In the name of the Presence of God, which I AM, through the magnetic power of the Sacred Fire vested in me, I COMMAND:

I surround you in a bubble of Golden flame; I add the Violet Flame for transmutation; the Blue Flame of protection; the Green Flame of healing and seal you in the Pink Flame of Love.

I call in all your Teachers, Guides, Masters and Angels that are working with you, asking them to help make this energy shift as gentle, kind and loving as possible.

I want you to now take a deep breath and as you exhale, imagine everything that no longer serves you being released gently through your breath. As you are doing this, I call to Michael the Archangel to come forth and cut all ties to any energy that no longer serves you, any energy you have taken on that is not yours. As this energy is released through your breath, I send it through the Violet Flame to clean it up and then back to the Creator, replacing that energy with your Divine essence.

I now want you to imagine this incredible energy coming down from the Creator, entering your Crown Chakra, and let that High Divine energy flow through your Third Eye Chakra. Keep sending the energy through this area until you feel a slight pressure, it goes warm, or starts to tingle. (This means your center is open, when this happens, move on to the next Chakra.)

Now allow this Divine energy to flow down through your Throat Chakra. (Keep sending the energy through this area until you feel a slight pressure, it goes warm, or starts to tingle.

Allow this Divine energy to flow down through your Heart Chakra. (Keep sending the energy through this area until you feel a slight pressure, it goes warm, or starts to tingle.

Allow this energy to now flow through your Solar Plexus. (Keep sending the energy through this area until you feel a slight pressure, it goes warm, or starts to tingle.

Allow this energy to flow down through your Belly Button Chakra. (Keep sending the energy through this area until you feel a slight pressure, it goes warm, or starts to tingle.

Allow this energy to flow further down and out your Root Chakra. (Keep sending the energy through this area until you feel a slight pressure, it goes warm, or starts to tingle.

Let this energy flow down your legs, out through your feet, sending the energy into the earth. (Do this for 4 deep breaths).

Now allow this energy to flow down your arms and out your hands. (Do this for 4 deep breaths).

Allow this energy to flow down your spine. (Do this for 4 deep breaths).

Take one more deep breath, and as you exhale, imagine yourself releasing any stuck unwanted energy that may be left in your body. Now breathe normal.

As you are doing this, I call to Michael the Archangel to cut all ties to any energy you may have taken on that is not yours, whether it's from family, friends, relatives, acquaintances, animal, TV, people you may have worked with, or taken on someone's energy unconsciously, your Higher Self adds anyone we may have forgotten. As this energy is removed, I call forth the Violet Flame to clean it up, the Angelite energy to heal and as you take a deep breath we release all this unwanted energy back to the Creator and you fill up with your Divine Essence.

I call to Michael the Archangel to cut all ties to all reptile dinosaur energy, secret societies, or any organized religion. We cut all ties to any oaths, vows, curses, hexes, or dark rituals that may have been done to you ... Or you may have done to others consciously or unconsciously. As all this energy is released, peeled off you, we send the energy through the Violet Flame to clean it up, the Angelite energy to heal and you fill up with more of your Divine essence. (Take a deep breath and release this energy)

I call again to Michael to cut all ties to all effigies that may be used against you including anything that you own. Cloths, hair, pictures or your name simply thought of or spoken out loud. As ties to these Elementals are cut I call the Violet flame through them to clean them up, the Angelite energy to heal them, now we seal them in the pink flame of love. I now COMMAND them to be neutral or only emitting love.

I call to Michael the Archangel to remove all energy implants that may have been done to you in this life time or carried over from other life times due to satanic magic, voodoo or dark witch craft. I want the stick, pin, needle or knife to be removed from your Crown Chakra, Third eye, Throat chakra, your Heart, Solar Plexus, Belly button and Root Chakra. Also removed from your eyes, ears, nose, mouth, teeth, hips, knees, ankles, or anywhere in your body you feel out of balance. As all these needles and knives are removed, imagine those spaces filling up with Violet Flame to clean up the energy, the Angelite energy to heal, and fill the spaces up with your Divine essence.

I call to Michael to cut all ties to Patriarchy, genocide, rape, incest, slavery and circumcision, removing all veils and overlays that are trying to manipulate and control you. Any energy that is keeping you from reconnecting to the Creator, healing yourself, being successful, and fulfilling all your Divine missions. As all this unwanted energy is also peeled off of you like an onion skin, we send it through the Violet Flame to clean it up and back to The Creator, refilling that space up with more of your Divine essence. (Take 4 more deep breaths filling yourself up with more of your Divine essence).

“Not my will but thy will be done.”

SO BE IT!

Let your energy flow normally.

It's very necessary to ground yourself after doing this work!!!

You should be feeling a little light headed and I want you to ground yourself.

Stand please.

Imagine energy coming up from the earth, which will cause you to feel a bit heavier and more into your body. As you breathe feel more of the earth energy coming into your body. The light headedness should be gone, leaving you clear headed, very energized and relaxed.

OR

You can hold the stone hematite which will also center and ground you in minutes.

OR

Go hug a tree. Place your hands on the tree and send all your excess energy into the tree. Do this for a few minutes. Now ask the tree to send you energy back. You should also feel yourself coming back down to earth, all light headedness leaving you, leaving you centered and refreshed.

Prayer for Quantum Leaping the World into The Golden Age, Divine Infinity & Beyond

*By Catherine M. Bilsky

I want to end this book with one of my favorite prayers and that is the Quantum Leap prayer - for it takes us into what we will become ... are becoming. This is the goal. When we manifest the Quantum Leap, we will have 10,000 yrs of peace. That thought brings a big smile to my face.

Once again I offer you my favorite prayer ...

Let there be light! In the name of the presence of God, which "I Am", through the magnetic power of the sacred fire vested in me, I COMMAND!

I call to the Architect of The Universes, Divine Creators, and ask for permission to Quantum Leap the World, and all life forms on all planes and dimensions, seen and unseen, connected with planet earth. To let us go beyond our known potential into the greatest unknown Golden Age the universes and worlds, and all planets have ever experienced. Let us take the best of all lifetimes, all golden ages, all worlds, galaxies, and create such a Divine and enlightened planet that is even beyond the Creator's imagination. Imagine the Creators laughing with joyful glee on this action we have put into motion with every breath we now breathe. And it is snowballing, quantum leaping forward every moment. Every time someone reads this prayer, see the energy amplifying 100,000,000 fold, creating a higher resonance with the Creators, and the Architect of The Universes.

See the blissful information and energy of heaven surrounding earth like a golden shimmering rainbow of colors. See this energy anchoring now to the planet; all life forms; Elemental kingdom; Angels; from the lowest of consciousness life forms, any trapped and stuck entities, any aliens from other worlds; the Reptilian king and queen, all their seeds including all hybrids; any one practicing any kind of black magic, voodoo, and black witch craft. All the way up to the most enlightened beings on the planet none excluded, all included. As this energy settles in, seeing everyone's integration gentle, loving, and kind, going into everyone's DNA, soul memory and dreams.

As all life forms dream and create, let them dream of all the times they lived in the Golden Age where there was plenty of everything, everyone was using their Spiritual psychic abilities for many different forms of Divine Creation, no one lacked for anything, functional families where men and women lived side by side in Divine harmony; lots of laughter, with everyone practicing compassion, joy, kindness, and love in action. See these dreams being brought into physical, present form.

Anyone who chooses not to go forward into the Golden age, and tries to stop this prayer from forward movement, I ask their Higher Self, spiritual teachers and Guardian Angels to step in and put them in positions of harmlessness. We ask the Creators to give them special grace and unlock the doors in their minds that are keeping them from connecting to the higher frequency of light. Release all that which is holding them back. I ask all the Creators to close down the reptilian part of the brain and open up the Divine God brain, filling them with whatever high vibration is needed to shift them, so everyone gets to go into the Golden Age - leaving no one behind. Send these beings and entity's whatever vibration, sound, color, and memories of being connected to the Creator they need, so they gently evolve into the light. The Creator, their Higher Selves and Angels know exactly what each one needs and are sending it to them as we speak.

See us propelling ourselves far into the Divine Golden Age way beyond the Creators wildest dreams of a Golden Age planet.

Angels, humans, Elementals, and extraterrestrials working together, all veils removed so everyone's psychic potential is being developed and put into practical practice.

Families putting love into action and becoming Divinely functional, having everything they need when they need it. The elderly are honored for their wisdom. People becoming awakened spiritual beings, practicing religious tolerance and the positive aspects of their religion.

See us working at one with beings from other galaxies and planets, who are just delighted we are quantum growing into enlightened beings, and giving us all the new tools, ideas and technologies on how we can make this a more joyful, functional, enlightened planet - taking us beyond our Divine potential.

The earth is being treated with much respect. The old ancient cultures, responsible for taking care of the planet, sharing their secrets and beliefs as everyone listens with open minds, and hungers for their knowledge - using that knowledge with wisdom.

All sacred knowledge of all natural healing methods are put into practice including all tools made out of stone, light, sound, energy, and vibration; Enlightened beings growing healing herbal gardens.

Everyone is being taught the sacred teachings, paths of enlightenment, and truths. All knowledge flows freely, gifts in music, the arts, sports, and intuition ... are encouraged and allowed to be developed.

Enlightened politicians and elected officials that tell the truth, acting for the benefit of humanity - with limited terms of service.

The earth is a healed, being at one with all life forms on her. Everyone so in tuned to the Mother Earth that they can hear her sing; her sighs; where she needs extra light; becoming aware of every move and grove she needs to do. Allowing her to do so and move out of her way with grace and understanding, like people do for the Fire Goddess Pele in Hawaii when she needs to flow. The interaction with the earth and all life forms is gentle, loving, kind, and conscious.

Organic food abounds. Chemical free clean pristine water, earth and sky. The sun and wind are harnessed in true solar fashion. Tesla's ideas and inventions of free energy being created with all walks of life benefiting.

People living in joy for hundreds of years if they choose, and when it is time to make transition, it is done with much joy and understanding of light evolution. Everyone...all life forms going beyond their Highest Divine potential.

We ask the Creator to fill in whatever we have left out to take manifesting Quantum Leaping the World into the Golden Age far beyond our dreams and imaginations into the Creators thoughts, wishes and dreams.

We ask that all who are manifesting the Quantum Leap be given all they need on all levels. Complete protection, and be put in bubbles of invisibility so they are hidden from the dark side. As this Divine idea flows outward, see all walks of life coming together in harmony and of one accord. Each person and group remembering their Divine Missions. What their parts are in Quantum Leaping the World into the Golden Age, and putting it now into action. Let all the Divine sleepers awaken to their Divine missions and Divine Purposes NOW.

As always, we put this in your hands - our Architect of The Universes and Divine Creators. Propel us into what your concept of the Golden Age is. We offer this work in service to the Creator, all life forms, the Earth, all Elementals, Cosmic Beings, my family and friends.

Inspire us, guide us into doing not our will but thy will be done.

May the Creator bring you all your hearts desires.

SO BE IT!

The Angelite Massage Tool has an assortment of different minerals in it for balance. The massage tool can have a quartz core to amplify your Divine energy, and the Angelite inside it allows a novice to use this Angelite tool successfully, to help others release pain and stress. You can even use it on yourself. If you see it glow at night - it is suppose to. We add a pinch of fairy glow-in-the-dark dust and a dash of Sai Baba's vebuhti, to enhance its healing properties. Just put the Angelite Massage Tool in the sun for a few minutes, then go find a dark place and look at it glow. If you sit it in a place where it's able to receive some form of light source, it will pick up enough light to glow all night. Leaving the tool under a light bulb will also charge it up. Too much direct sunlight will fade the color; however, it will not interfere with it glowing all night.

Do not soak the Angelite Massage Tool in ANY clear or salt water. Rinsing the tool under water is OK, to clear it from any negative energy it may have collected. Then immediately dry it.

HOW TO USE THE ANGELITE MASSAGE HEALING TOOL

You can use it ANYWHERE ON THE BODY. Just hold it in either hand and rub it on the person's back. Just be careful to avoid the bony parts of the body and rub only the fleshy parts. Determine the amount of pressure you can use by what feels comfortable for the receiver. Send some love through the Angelite Massage Healing Tool. It's that simple. Don't forget to massage the head ... Yum ... what a divine experience.

The Angelite Massage Healing Tool is good to use for reflexology. You can place the ball on the floor and put your foot on top of it, rolling your foot over the ball. Apply as much pressure as you can without causing pain or discomfort to your foot. Massaging your feet is like massaging your entire body affecting all your internal organs. It is very beneficial.

You can also massage your hands with the Angelite Massage Healing Tool. Just roll the ball between your hands for a few minutes, or massage one hand at a time. It feels great.

Use the Angelite Massage Healing Tool to massage your kids, your parents, your honey and your friends. You can create a mutually beneficial experience by teaching them how to return this gift of healing. It will make them feel so good that it will be hard for them to not reciprocate.
